

We didn't think so awfully much of 'Old Harkness' in those days. No indeed! We used to think things about him that wouldn't look good in print, and if there is anything in the old saying the Harkness ears must have kept up a perpetual burning that would make a western prairie fire look like a cigar store lighter. But as we grew older and schoolday joys grew in the retrospect, we learned to appreciate Dr. Harkness at something like his real worth, and now, after a lapse of years—long and often weary years—his name is recalled by the notice of his death, and immediately memory gets busy."

The fourth volume of the "Round the World" series has appeared. This volume contains a fund of valuable and interesting information, ranging from the Esquimaux, in their ice fields, to the residents of sunny California. The chapter on "Curious Farming" is worthy of special mention. Benziger Bros., price 80c.

"Sheer Pluck" and other stories of the bright ages, from the prolific pen of the Rev. Bernard Bearne, S.J., is an interesting book for boys and girls. It is bright, witty and entertaining, placing in a most pleasing way the events in Church history and the noble deeds of pious and heroic personages that will live forever. Benziger Bros., 80c.

Priorum Temporum Flores.

Rev. J. J. Macdonell, '02, passed some days at the College during the past month.

Rev. J. H. McDonald, '03, was a recent visitor to College Halls.

Rev. J. V. Meagher, '04, has been appointed to the professional staff of Regiopolis College, Kingston.

Rev. R. Halligan, '04, is now engaged in parochial work at Kinkora, Ont., in the diocese of London.

The recent Knights of Columbus initiation brought a number of our "old boys" to Ottawa. Among them were Revs. J. Breen, '01, and T. French.

Rev. O. McQuade, O.M.I., now stationed at Strathcona, Alberta, paid us a visit of a few days while on his way back to the West after a visit to his old home in Lowell, Mass.