OUR NEW YEAR'S THANK-OFFERING FOR 1858.

Last year many of our readers responded liberally to our invitation to them to evince their gratitude for the many blessings they enjoy, by their contributions to send a library to Calcutta, and now we should be glad if our friends adopt with similar heartiness this year's scheme. We have already told you of our desire to enable Miss Hebron of Calcutta to open a School for heathen girls in that great city, which designated, as she proposes, "The Canadian School," may be a light in a dark place—a permanent memorial of your interest in the benighted daughters of India, a constant evidence of the love for perishing souls of all true Christians. Judging us, by what we have-already accomplished, the Mission staff in Calcutta and our friends in Scotland, are expecting to hear that you have adopted this excellent proposal. If you turn to the October number of our paper, you will find full details about the School, and if the money can be raised during this year it will enable the School to be commenced, and once opened we are sure it will be sustained. In a letter published in the Home Record for November, Miss
