No more than one block can be entered in this Competition by the same person. The blocks are to be twelve inches square, to be made entirely by handwork of silk, either of one piece or patch work, and can be embroidered or painted according to the taste of the maker, and is to be ferwarded to THE CANDIAN QUEER'S "Royal Quilt Competition," 58 Bay Street, Toronto, Canada, accompanied by the name and address of sender, tegether with $1.00 for one year's subscription to THE CHERY before April 10th, 1891. to THE QUEEN, before April 10th, 1891.

As the blocks are received, the name sender will be entered the same number will be in list of competitors and numbered, a placed upon a tag which will be affix 1 to the block, so that the committee selected by the Publishers of The Queen will decide according to the merit of each block, (vithout knowing the names of competitors) and will award the prizes to numbers representing of competitors) and will award the prizes to numbers representing them on the blocks, MAKING THE COMMITTEE ENTIRELY FIRE FROM PARTIALITY OR PREJUDICE FROM INDIVIDUAL ACQUINTANCES. The committee will select from the blocks received, the forty-eight handsomest ones, for which they will award the prizes as above described. These blocks will be quilted at the expense of the Publishers of The Queen, and the ROYAL QUILT will be seld at public auction, (which will be announced through the daily press) and the proceeds thereof will be given to the Hospital for Sick Children of Toronto. From the remaining blocks will be made different quits, one of which will be sent to Montreal, Halifax, St. John, Hamilton, Winnipeg, Ottawa, London, Victoria and Vancouver. The same will be sold at public sale at each of these places and the proceeds therefrom will be given to some local charitable institution located at such places.

THE CUEEN, while containing literary matter interesting to every member of a cultivated family, is specially devoted to every subject of interest to ladies. Besides other features, of interest traindies. Besides other features, it contains the latest English fashions, imported designs for fancy work and "Our Cooking School," in which Department prizes are offered each month to those of The Quies's readers who are experienced in would be valuable to our requirement. さんないというから
