

17. For the purposes of implementing the swing provisions in paragraph 16, the conversion factors shown in column (D) of Annex I shall apply.

Carryover/Carryforward

18. Following notification to the Government of Canada of the quantities involved, portions of any quantitative limit set out in Annex I which are not used during any restraint period may be carried over and added to the corresponding quantitative limit for the following restraint period within the higher percentage limit set out in column (F) of Annex I.

19. Any quantitative limit may be increased within the lower percentage limit set out in column (F) of Annex I by an amount advanced from the corresponding quantitative limit for the following restraint period. The quantitative limit for the following restraint period shall be reduced by an amount equal to the amount so advanced.

20. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the carryover and carryforward provisions may be used in combination only up to the higher percentage limit set out in column (F) of Annex I.

Exchange of Statistics

21. Both Governments agree to exchange all useful information concerning their mutual trade in textiles including information on textile items not covered by this Agreement.

22. The Government of the Republic of Korea shall provide the Government of Canada with monthly statistics relating to exports of the textile products listed in Annex I licensed for export to Canada and debited to the quantitative limits for each restraint period.

23. The Government of Canada shall provide the Government of the Republic of Korea with monthly statistics of total imports and of imports from the Republic of Korea and from other significant suppliers in respect of the textile products subject to this Agreement.

Concentration

24. If, on the basis of export data provided by the Government of the Republic of Korea, the Government of Canada ascertains that there is a sharp and substantial increase in the concentration of exports, other than a concentration attributable to normal seasonal factors, of particular products in any category subject to quantitative limits, the Government of Canada may request consultations in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 28 below with a view to remedying this situation.
