- 4. For purposes of their identification while in Japan, members of the United Nations forces shall be in possession of the foregoing personal identity card, which must be presented on demand of the appropriate Japanese authorities.
- 5. Members of the civilian components shall have their status and the organization to which they belong described in their passports. Dependents shall have their status described in their passports.
- 6. For purposes of their identification while in Japan, members of the civilian components and dependents shall, on demand of the appropriate Japanese authorities, present their passports within a reasonable time.
- 7. If the status of any person brought into Japan under this Article is altered so that he would no longer be entitled to such admission, the authorities of the sending State shall notify the Japanese authorities, and shall cause such person to leave Japan without cost to the Government of Japan as promptly as possible, unless such person be permitted to remain in Japan in accordance with the Japanese laws and regulations concerned.
- 8. If Japan, for good cause, has requested the removal from its territory of a member of the United Nations forces or of the civilian components, or a dependent, the authorities of the sending State concerned shall be responsible for causing the said person to leave Japan without delay.

ARTICLE IV

- 1. Vessels and aircraft operated by, for or under the control of the United Nations forces for the purpose of this Agreement shall be accorded access to such ports or airports as may be agreed upon by the Joint Board provided for in Article XX, free from toll or landing charges. When cargo or passengers not accorded the exemptions of this Agreement are carried on such vessels and aircraft, notification shall be given to the appropriate Japanese authorities, and such cargo or passengers shall be entered according to the laws and regulations of Japan.
- 2. The vessels and aircraft mentioned in the preceding paragraph, official vehicles of the United Nations forces and of the civilian components, and members of such forces and of the civilian components, and their dependents, and vehicles of such persons shall be accorded access to and movement between facilities and areas in use by such forces in accordance with Article V and between such facilities and areas, and the ports or airports mentioned in the preceding paragraph.
- 3. When the vessels mentioned in paragraph 1 enter Japanese ports, appropriate notification shall be made to the proper Japanese authorities. Such vessels shall have freedom from compulsory pilotage, but if a pilot is taken pilotage shall be paid for at appropriate rates.

ARTICLE V

- 1. The United Nations forces may use such facilities in Japaan, inclusive of existing furnishings, equipment and fixtures necessary for the operation of such facilities, as may be agreed upon through the Joint Board.
- 2. The United Nations forces may, with the agreement of the Government of Japan through the Joint Board, use those facilities and areas the use of which is provided to the United States of America under the Security Treaty between Japan and the United States of America.
