

CHANGES IN THE CANADIAN EXTERNAL SERVICE

(c) Major General Victor E. O'Brien, General Officer Commanding Second Canadian Division, has been appointed High Commissioner for Canada in the Commonwealth of Australia. General O'Brien will be replaced by General [Name] in order to see something of Australia before taking up his new post in the field of operations.

(d) Mr. A. R. Plimpton has been appointed Principal Attaché at the Canadian Legation in Washington, in place of Mr. James Gagne who has returned to Ottawa. Mr. Plimpton will also act as representative of the War Relocation Authority in the field of operations.