Local Constitution

The Council recommended to the various branches
a local constitution as follows:

CANADIAN INSTITUTE OF INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS

.....Branch

ARTICLE 1.

NAME.

This organization is established as a unit of the Canadian Institute of International Affairs (hereinafter called "the Canadian Institute"), in accordance with the Constitution thereof, and shall be known as the Canadian Institute of International Affairs (.....Branch).

ARTICLE 2.

OBJECT.

Its object shall be the same as that of the Canadian Institute, viz.,

"The object for which the Institute is established is to promote thorough study, discussion, lectures and public addresses and such other means as may be approved by the Executive Council, an understanding of international questions and problems, particularly in so far as these may relate to Canada and the British Empire, and to promote through the like means an understanding of questions and problems which affect the relations of the United Kingdom with any other of His Majesty's Dominions or of these Dominions with one another. The Institute shall not express by resolution or in any other manner its opinion upon any aspect of any question or problem within the scope of this article, and this limitation shall apply to and be binding upon the Executive Council of the Institute and upon each unit of the Institute that may be established under these presents."

ARTICLE 3.
