

and the massacre of its inmates; and such was the expressed opinion of nearly all the members of the said Sixth Iowa Cavalry then stationed therein; and further deponents say not.

Signed. { JOHN LOGAN, Capt. Co. K, Sixth Reg. Iowa Cavalry.
DEAN CHEACLE, O. S. " " "
JOHN M. WILLIAMS, Q. M. S. " " "
JOHN MAGEE, Serg't Co. H, " " "
JOHN COOPER, Corp. Co. K, " " " MERIT M. OAKLEY, Corp. Co. H, " " "

Personally appeared before me, A. J. McKean, Clerk of the District Court, Linn County, State of Iowa, and made solemn oath that the foregoing is true and correct in all particulars, and that neither of the parties hereto subscribing is interested in any way in any effort which the said Mrs. Kelly may make, or has made, for indemnity, on this 22nd day of January, A. D. 1870.

[Seal.]

A. J. MCKEAN,

Clerk District Court, Linn County, Iowa.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,

Second Auditor's Office, December 2nd, 1870.

I certify the foregoing to be a true copy of the original filed in this office.

E. B. FRENCH,

Second Auditor.

[The memoranda below are written with pencil.]

Captain Logan was the officer of the day when Mrs. Kelly was brought into the fort (Sully).

John Magee, Sergeant Co. H, Sixth Iowa Cavalry, was sergeant of the guard at the same time.