NOTE.—These statistics are taken from the Government Inspector's reports, or from the report of the charity itself. The other benevolent institutions in Toronto not mentioned above are: The Hillcrest Convalescent Home, the Boys' Industrial Home, the Humane Society (including the protection of women and children), the Young Men's Christian Association, and the Woman's Christian Association. St. James' Cathedral maintains an "Old Woman's Home" at an expense of about $750, and St. George's Church supports a Home for Aged Men and Women, regardless of denomination.
