

PUBLICATION.—Continued.

- of a copy of register of judgments, privileged, 142.
- of libel and slander generally, 155-186,
- of libel, defined by the Code, 155.
- of libellous letters, 166, 167, 168, 171, 172.
- of libellous mercantile agency reports, 164.
- of newspaper articles influencing the jury, 812.
- of reports in newspapers, 298, 300.
- of reports of judicial proceedings, 278-297.
- of reports of public meetings, 298-322.
- of resolution of censure legally defective and not actionable, 159.
- place and manner of, as evidence of malice, 197.
- proof of, by proof of defendant's handwriting, 168, 176.
- proof of, of libellous telegram, by secondary evidence, 173.
- proof of, under Provincial Acts, 262-263.
- question of, when to be left to the jury, 672.
- refusal to answer as to, no proof thereof, 160.
- reports of public meetings, 298-322.
- secondary evidence of, 173.
- sufficiency of proof of, in slander, 156, 157.
- to a stenographer, 168-171.
- to person defamed, criminal and indictable, 2.
- to third person, essential in slander, 95.
- uncommon expressions and style of composition as proof of, 181.
- under a mistake and bona fide, 138.
- under Manitoba Newspaper Act, 262.
- usual mode of proving, 264.
- when presumed, 181.
- when protected, 189.
- when the joint act of two or more, 160.
- when invited, challenged, or provoked, 526-530.
- when libel sent in unsealed envelope to illiterate plaintiff, 161.

PUBLICATION IN NEWSPAPERS, 262-277.

- admissions in defendant's letters as proof of, 269.
- advertisements as evidence of, 267.
- as defined by the Code, 272.
- by insertion at defendant's request, 276.
- criminal responsibility of employer where sale by servant, 274.
- criminal responsibility of newspaper proprietors for, 273.
- criminal responsibility of seller of libel in newspaper, book, magazine, etc., 274.
- defects in mode of proving, 262, 263.
- defendant must be proprietor or publisher at date of publication, 274.
- insufficient evidence of, by newspaper correspondent, 277.
- mode of proving, under the Manitoba Newspaper Act, 262.
- newspaper is "published" when and where it is offered to the public by the proprietor, 270-271.