FLOOD OF WHEAT
ALARMS TRADERS

Big Shipments From Kansas and Nebraska Sends Prices Down.

CHICAGO, Feb. 3.—Discovery that an unusual movement of Kansas and Nebraska wheat to Chicago had set in acted as a weight today on prices here.

The result was that the market closed heavy, 1-4 to 1-2c under last night.
Other speculative articles, too, suffered a net decline, corn 1-2 to 3-4 to 5-8c and provisions 2 1-2 to 7 1-2c.

News of the loading of considerable quantities of wheat at Kansas City for Chicago came in fulfillment of predictions that radical bears have been making for some weeks. As the shipments were said to be at the full market difference prevailing between the two cities, the evidence seemed plain that both export and milling demand southwest had reached an abnormally low level. Sales of increasing amounts of Nebraska wheat to be put in store at Chicago, tended further to discourage holders of contracts here for future delivery.

Corn Freely Offered.
Enlarged offerings from Iowa and Illinois weakened the corn market. Besides the evidence of increased supplies in regard to the yield in Argentina, where it was expected to begin no longer than a fortnight off.

Oats suffered a break in consequence of liquidating sales by holders, who were guided by the action of other grains.

Many stop loss orders were brought into play. Heaviness ruled the outset in the provision pit. Hog prices were lower and the bear side was also favored by the augmented stocks in warehouses here and by a gain shown in the world's supply of lard.
