Lindsey, Charles. The Life and Times of Wm. Lyon Mackenzie. With an account of the Canadian Rebellion of 1837, and the subsequent frontier disturbances, chiefly from unpublished documents. With portraits and illustrations. 2 vols in 1. Demy 8vo, cloth. Toronto. 1862 4.00

The author is the son-in-law of Wm. Lyon Mackenzie and had access to all of Mr. Mackenzie's documents, besides having the advantage of being a member of the family. Many interesting documents and speeches are given in the Appendixes. One of the most valuable of these is the names of persons arrested in Upper Canada on charges of insurrection, the dates of arrest, and discharge, and if tried, the results of such trial from Dec. 5th, 1837 to Nov. 1st, 1838. At that time 27 were still in custody. "First in importance of all narratives connected with the U. C. Rebellion." Frank H. Severance.

Lord Glenelg, A Despatch from the Right Honorable, His Majesty's Secretary of State for the Colonies, to His Excellency Sir Francis Bond Head, Lieutenant-Governor of Upper Canada. 36 pp. Crown 8vo, paper. Toronto. 1835 1.50

This Despatch is the Instructions to Lieut.-Gov. Bond Head on assuming office in Upper Canada. An appendix contains the Instructions to the Commissioners for Lower Canada. Valuable documents.

Loulsbourg in 1745. The anonymous Lettre d'un Habitant de Louisbourg, (Cape Breton). Containing a narrative by an eye-witness of the siege in 1745. Edited with an English Translation. By George M. Wrong, M.A. 74 pp. Royal 8vo, paper. Toronto. 1897 1.00

This work by the Professor of History in the University of Toronto is of uncommon interest because it is the only unofficial account of that event and of the siege on record. It appeared in Paris shortly after the siege. The upper part of the page is occupied with the English translation while the French is on the lower.
