

'The case before the Jury practically simmers down to this: Is Howard a Brahmin-Indo-Philosophical Zealot or a Simple Charlatan?'—From the Star, April 27, 1898.

---

"He obtained complete control over women because they are very susceptible, and got complete possession of the will of Mrs. Specht. Through her, he extracted Money, Diamonds, and all for the benefit of this Order. The Order turned out, however, to be his individual self."

—From the address to the Jury by Mr. Osler, Q. C. (of Toronto), representing the Defense in the Trial.