The Gladstones managed to catch the Royals and are now tie for first place in the City League, after taking all three from the Dominions last night. The pest the Royals could do was to take the odd came from the B. B. C. Co. College did dkewise from the Brunswicks, while the Rowing Club got all three from Paynes.

Manager John Ganzel of Rochester has released Pitcher F. H. Miller, the only left-handed twirler on the Hustlers' staff, to Brooklyn. Miller will stay in the south with the Repeaters until March 28, when the training at Anniston, Ala., will be finished. Ganzel secured Miller in order to help Brooklyn place the twirler. The Superbas now have a deal on to trade the pitcher, and Ganzel has consented to turn the hurler back. Pitcher Walter Ford, a brother of Russell Ford of the New York Americans, who is also with the Hustlers, is on the market. Ganzel has offered to turn the twirler over to Manager Gene McCann of the Bridgeport Connecticut League Club.

Robert Johnston of Hamilton was in town yesterday, and, according to the reports Mr. Johnston brings, the Hamilton bowlers are as enthusiastic over the big C. B. A. tournament as the Toronto bowlers are. Mr. Johnston entered a team from the Home Furnishers' Company, and states that three other business men's teams will come down with the Totals ... 306 356 341 346 301—1649 Eankers— 1 2 3 4 5 T'1. A PLEASANT SURPRISE awaits the Smoker who tries for the first time a Baron de Kalb Cigar. They contain that distinctly deliclous taste and fragrant aroma which is not to be found in many other brands and which makes them a little superior to imported brands.

REAL HABANA CIGARS, "Won their favour through their flavour"
