The question of extension of water and gas service to the street line was also discussed, and the feeling of the meet-ing was that the system now in opera-tion should be relaxed on account of the housing scheme and lack of work-ingmen's dwellings. Col. Moore com-plained of the action of an ex-alderman in proposing to erect stores and apart-ment houses on Bloor street, near High Park avenue, in a restricted district. E. C.
