PRINCE LOUIS DEPARTS.

Society and Civic Officials Bid Him God Speed.

A) number of solcety people and civic officials gathered at the Union station last night to bid the Prince of Battern berg farewell to Toronto, Perhaps never before has a member of the royalty won his way into the hearts of Toronto citizens as this broad-chested admirat of the English navy. His departure was marked by sincere regret.

He thanked those present for the pains they had taken for insuring his having a good time, and he was heartily sorry to leave at a time when he was enjoying himself so much, but duty called.
