BODY OF CHARLES LENZ NOT YET RECOVERED

Friends Repudiate Suggestion of Suicide---St. Andrew's Benevolent Society.

HAMILTON, Oct. 29.—(Special.)—Up tidings of Charles Lenz, who, it is feared, was drowned in the bay Monday afternoon. Search was made for the body, but dragging operations had to be suspended this afternoon on account of the storm. They will be resumed in the morning. Before Mr. Lenz left for the beach Monday afternoon on the 3.10 car he invited two friends to accompany him.

The annual meeting of St. Andrew Senevolent Society was held this evening, and the following officers were elected and installed by George H. Mills, past president: John Wright, hen. president; Dr. McEdwards, president; William Hunter and W. M. McClement, William Properties W. D. D. Clement, Vice presidents. Clemont, vice-presidents; W. At their meeting this afternoon, th hospital governors decided to ask the city council to close Copeland-avenue. Friends of Charles Lenz indignantly deny any foundation for rumors cerning his death by drowning. There is no doubt that the circumstances were purly accidental. Mr. Lenz had been advised by his wife to go out for afternoon's recreation. On way to the waterfront he asked two friends to accompany him, but neither was able to poin him in his pleasure. It is presumed that the boat was overturned while Lenz was reaching for a duck that had been shot by huntsmen
