Tuesday Next Our Fall Millinery Opening NGHT-SCHOOL Takes Place Tuesday Next, Sept. 16.

A more brilliant gathering than ever will greet you this season. The Millinery for 1902-3 is incomparable—the Silks and Dress Goods are of matchless beauty—then the Cloaks as shown in London, Paris, Berlin, and Costumes, these are rich, dignified and elegant looking. Every section has something of interest for you. When you come, don't confine your visit to Millinery, Cloaks, Silks and Dress Goods, look through every department. Our entire staff is at your service and you'll be cordially received.

> A Splendid Offering of Silks for fourth to two-fifths under value. Now its natural that you should want to know how new silks could be bought under price and the season have 96 McCaul-street. just commencing. These silks are manufacturers' "shorts"-remnant ends, you know, although many of the pieces contain 20 yards and more—others have only about 4 yards.

Once a season the manufacturers dispose of these ends, and our silk buyer happened to be in the Old Country at the right moment to make this very profitable purchase.

New Style House Wraps 5000 yards Black and Colored Silks, worth $1 and $1.25 yard. The blacks include Rich Satin Brocades, Dainty Figured Black Taffetas, Lustrous Peau de Soie, Corded Dress Poplins, Lovely Liberty Satins, Duchesse Satins and Satin Merveilleux. Colors comprise a handsome lot of fancy waist silks, taffetas, lace stripes, black and white effects and Paisley pattern foulards. All these silks will be on sale Monday, in 75. the Silk Section, main floor, at, per yard
