BRAINS OPENING TO-DAY

SHOE

STORY OF

How a brainy shoe man in face of much difficulty established an immense trade in Toronto-another step forward : : : : :

VERY woman, whether single or married, is interested in this shoe story. Especially is this so if the woman be a mother with several active little pairs of feet to keep shod. The United States is known as the home of the e business. Up-to-date machinery, skilful workers and modern'ou. equipment have brought shoe-construction to a point of perfection. equalled by no country in the world. Men who learn the business there have little to learn elsewhere. One of these, now most favorably known to the shoe manufacturers all over Canada, Mr. A. Levy, three years ago saw a field in Canada for supplying well made, reliable shoes to the consumer direct at manufacturers' prices. At that time it was difficult to secure a store in a suitable position for such a business, so Mr. Levy leased the only available space, namely, a corner in the Bachrack store. Notwithstanding many drawbacks of position and surroundings, an immense trade was built up. Many hundreds of customers, compelled by the undoubted shoe values, bought themselves, told their friends, and the business grew. Mr. Levy during this time owned the shoe stock at this store, and whilst advertising under the firm name the receipts and shoe trade belonged solely to him. For some time Mr. Levy has been impressed with the demand for high-grade shoes for women and children and has entered into arrangements with the well-known firm of Ladies' Outfitters, McKendry's, Limited, to sell these goods in their store, 226-228 Yonge Street. A handsome Shoe Department has been fitted up. A brand new stock of American and the better Canadian makes of shoes has been manufactured expressly for the department, and on Thursday next the opening sale will begin with high-grade shoes at the lowest prices heard of in Canada-after that date Mr. Levy wishes to inform the many customers he has made in Toronto and elsewhere he will have no connection of any kind with the Bachrack store, or with any other retail shoe department except that at McKendry's.

JULY 14 1904

KAY'S

It means a good deal to people of Toronto, and those anywhere else in Canada, to know all about this special July sale of ours of finest furniture. Let it be repeated that this is not a case of putting in special lines of furniture-bought for sale purposes. We do not do this. The object of the sale is to reduce the stock on hand, otherwise we would not mark down things, as we are doing this month. It is our usual half-yearly stock-taking period.

The furniture we offer includes that always kept in stock for our finest trade, and it is worth while knowing that there is no store in Canada where so large a stock of the finest and most artistic furniture is kept. The range includes :

-Finest in dining-room furniture, including extension tables, sideboards, chairs, buffets, etc.

-Finest in bedroom furniture, including beautiful specimens of muhogany and golden oak finish and other exclusive lines. The finest in brass and enamel and all brass bed-steads-certainly no such complete stock anywhere else in Toronto.

-The finest in drawing room and reception room furniture. Our own upholstered goods are a feature of this store.

-The finest in hall and library furniture, comprising many beautiful things in weathered oak and other specialties.

All these goods are marked down from the original ticket prices, which of themselves are special for goods of such fine quality. The sale will last only until the end of the present month.

> -Very large assortment of verandah furniture, comprising verandah chairs, settees and couches in wicker and reed. The marked down principle applies to these seasonable

> -"Kay's" finest all hair mattress, sold regularly for $17.50, is marked during this sale special at $14.00.

Shoppers who reside out of town should take advantage of this sale. You certainly cannot get such goods at home and you have the present opportunity of getting them all at reduced prices. Letter orders have very careful attention.
