

For Summer Cottage Sanitation

Patriotic Western Ontario

Address All News for This Column to the Editor of the Women's Page.

ALISA CRAIG—A large crowd attended the garden party at Moray on Wednesday evening, which was given by the Maple Leaf Club in aid of the Red Cross. Supper was served from 6 to 9, after which a program was given, with Dr. Racey of Parkhill as chairman. Solos were rendered by Miss Elliott, Mr. Browne and Mr. Law of Parkhill. Songs were given by the school children, and comic sketches put on by the girls of the club. The Alisa Craig Orchestra, with Mr. Allison as leader, and Miss Ada Munro, pianist, furnished music during the evening. The proceeds amounted to $139.40 for the Red Cross.

A garden party held at Beechwood by the public library board, in aid of the Red Cross, was largely attended. The program was of the very best nature, consisting of numbers by the Juvenile Pipe Band of London, with its clever little dancers, montpierre, etc. They were ably assisted by the Alisa Craig Orchestra, with Mr. Dugald Gray of Parkhill as chairman for the evening.

A strawberry festival will be held at Clarendon on Wednesday evening, June 26, when supper will be served from 6 to 9, after which a program of high order will be given by the Methodist choir of London, with readings, solos, etc. There will also be other local talent. Music will be furnished by the Alisa Craig Orchestra and a large crowd is expected.

The young people of Carleton place put on the play "Valley Farm" at Goldstream in aid of the Red Cross. It was well attended. The cast was assisted by the Alisa Craig Orchestra, with Mr. Allison, leader, and Miss Ada Munro, pianist. Solos were rendered by the Alisa Craig Orchestra, with Mr. Dugald Gray of Parkhill as chairman for the evening.

HARRINGTON—The packing committee of the Red Cross Circle met at the home of Mrs. Innes Sutherland and packed their boxes for the relief of the famine-stricken people of Hyman Hall, which consisted of 110 towels, 25 suits pyjamas, 34 pairs of socks, with a total value of $134.35.

DORCHESTER—A very enjoyable social Red Cross meeting was held at the home of Mrs. W. Cave. A very large company of workers and friends were there, including some from Mossley. Mrs. Sutton, the president, conducted the business part of the meeting, informing those present that the council has granted $30 a month to the circle. They have had two prisoners of war for some time, and have decided to adopt another. The circle and all that is wanted is lots of workers. A splendid lunch was served, after which a collection was taken up amounting to $27.75.

A SLUGGISH LIVER CAUSES LOTS OF TROUBLE

When the liver becomes sluggish it is an indication that the bowels are not working properly, and if they do not move regularly many complications are liable to set in.

Constipation, sick headache, bilious headache, jaundice, heartburn, water brah, catarrh of the stomach, etc., all come from a disordered liver.

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are a specific for all diseases or disorders arising from a slow, sluggish, lazy or torpid liver, and they have been universally used throughout Canada for over 20 years with the greatest success.

Mrs. W. A. Harrison, 7 Poplar Grove, Halifax, N.S., writes: "I take pleasure in writing you concerning the great good I have received by using Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills for a sluggish liver. When my liver got bad I would have severe headaches, but after using a couple of vials of your pills, I have not been bothered any more."

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25c a vial at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co.

HORLICK'S Malted Milk for Infants

A safe milk diet, better than cow's milk alone. Contains rich milk and malted grain extract.

POLLY AND HER PALS—Too Late, Pa, Furs Are in Season.

AS SIR MABEL'S WENT AN HAD MY FUR COAT MADE INTO A SUMMER-FURS!

HE! HE! HO! HO! HA! HA! THAT'S ONE ON YOU BOSS!

ON! YOU NEEDN'T LAUGH, SAM! SHE GOT THE IDEA OFF!

YOUR POLLY!

SAY! FETCH MY FUR COAT DOWN TO THE OFFICE! WANNA PUT IT IN THE SAFE!

TOO LATE SIR THE HON POLLY HAS - - - CUT US OFF!

HE! HE! HO! HO! HA! HA!

By Cliff Sterrett.

PAGE OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

JIMMY COON STORIES

By Dr. Warren G. Partridge.
Copyright 1917 by George Matthew Adams.

JIMMY COON TAKES MRS. JIMMY TO A SHOW.
out of doors. But in the Spring the Crane Show comes North; and Jimmy Coon took his wife to see the opening performance, which was held not very far from Mirror Pond.

The Great Crane Show was one of the funniest entertainments ever seen under the green tents of the Great Forest. Jimmy and his wife sat in the upper balcony, in a Private Box. Jimmy didn't think it was safe to sit on the ground floor at such a big show. What made the big show so awfully funny was that every member of the Crane Family was a clown.

You know what big people the Cranes are! Why, they are taller than you are. And Jimmy Coon called the Crane Family "Giants." As the Clowns came on the stage they seemed to be walking on stilts. And Mrs. Jimmy pinched Jimmy's arm and whispered: "Why, Jimmy, I'm afraid the Ladies will fall and break their necks if they try to perform standing on those awfully high stilts!"

If you can imagine how very difficult it would be to dance on tall stilts, yet the Crane Family danced on stilts! Why, you know that their long legs are higher than any stilts you ever walked on!

Well, Mrs. Jimmy had to hold the end of her nose to keep from snoring at the Crane Show. And Jimmy was so tired that he fell asleep. For, in the first act in the show, the whole Crane Troupe of Actors faced the audience and made very low bows. And it was very comical to see those Giants, on stilts, try to be graceful.

It was very comical to see those Giants, on stilts, try to be graceful.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Readers Are Invited to Phone All News of This Kind to the Society Editor, Phone 3670.

Mr. John Laird of Hartford, Conn., spent the week-end with his mother, Mrs. Laird, Queen's avenue.

The Misses Eddy of Detroit are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. Shaw of Dundas street.

Mrs. Robt. Clananah of Glenoe was a visitor in the city yesterday.

Mrs. Geo. Mann of Princess avenue, accompanied by her son and daughter, left yesterday for their summer home in Muskoka. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Laurie have also left for Muskoka.

Mr. G. of Toronto is the guest of Mrs. E. Graham of King street.

Miss Marjorie Talbot gave a beautiful rendition of "Jesus, Hear My Cry To Thee," in St. Andrew's Church on Sunday evening.

Miss Minnie Fox was most successful in her rendition of "Divine Deceit," at St. Paul's Cathedral on Sunday night. Grant Milligan played the piano, and Mendelssohn's Greek Concerto.

Madame Eleanor Hazzard Peacock, accompanied by her husband and daughter, arrived in the city on Sunday evening, motorizing from Detroit. After a little visit with friends in London, they left yesterday for Hamilton and Toronto, and from there will motor through to Boston, where one of the two sons of the family in the army, Edward Lester, is in training for the naval aviation service. Madame Peacock has frequently sung in recital here, and has a large circle of warm friends.

DAILY BIBLE QUESTION CLUB
April 14.—Jesus Requires Confession and Loyalty.—Mark 8:1-9:1. Golden Text: If any man would come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross and follow Me.—Mark 8:34.

2. Verses 17-18.—What part does a tender heart play in understanding the ways of God?
April 15.—Jesus Transfigured.—Mark 9:2-9. Golden Text: This is my beloved Son; hear ye him.—Mark 9:7.

3. Verse 4.—Golden Text: This is my beloved Son; hear ye him.—Mark 9:7. Golden Text: God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.—John 3:16. Thou art the Christ, the Son of the Living God.—Matthew 16:16. I am not ashamed of the gospel, for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth.—Romans 1:16.

GOD GAVE HIS ONLY BEGOTTEN SON.
We may not understand fully the meaning of the expression "his only begotten Son," but though we may not fully comprehend these words, we may be able to apprehend them so as to get some intelligent idea of their meaning. God, of course, has begotten an uncountable number of men, for he is the father of us all. "It is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves." Jesus, however, is the only Son begotten by God direct, without any other instrumentality than Mary. We learn from the words of the angel, spoken to Joseph, the husband of Mary, that Mary's wife had conceived Jesus through the direct influence of the Holy Spirit, and is the father of a child who is this way, and thus Jesus is the only begotten Son of God.

JACK WORMER
LITTLE JACK WORMER WILL SIT IN A CORNER WITH MEALS HIS GOOD MOTHER HAS PLANNED. SHE'LL FEED HER WHOLE BROOD WITH THE CHOICEST OF FOOD, WHICH SHE IN HER WISDOM HAS CHANNED.

CYNTHIA GREY'S MAIL BOX
She is interested.
Dear Miss Grey,—Please send me a long's address if it is not too much trouble, as I am very interested in including a self-addressed envelope. I remain yours in thanks, AN ECHO.
Ans.—An address has been sent. No bother, I assure you.

Shall She Ice Them?
Dear Miss Grey,—I expect to be married soon and have a small wedding, and of course, wanted to haveiced cakes and everything nice, but they tell me it is against the law to ice cakes, so what am I to do? Please let me know through The Advertiser if I would be fined or not if I iced the cakes.
GREY EYES.
Ans.—There is no law at all in Canada against your having your cakes iced. Restaurants and confectionery shops are now restricted to a certain extent, but this does not apply to cakes iced and eaten at home. Of course, the food control board asks people to consume sugar wherever possible. Might say that whipped cream is being used in place of sugar icing by some folks.

Bothersome Stains.
Dear Miss Grey,—Will you please let me what will remove grease spots and fruit stains from a blue sergeotte crepe? Can sergeotte crepe and nylon be washed successfully? I have a pair of white shoes that have the toe cap damaged just slightly. When they are as good as new. Was wondering if patent leather toe caps are ever worn on white shoes. Hoping I have not bothered you too much. I am, yours truly, M. D.
Ans.—I do not think you would find home efforts very satisfactory. Best take the garment to a cleaning establishment.

2. It is claimed that both fabrics may be laundered successfully, but personally I have never tried. Has any reader done so with good results?
3. Best consult a shoe repair man as to what can be done.

Another Correspondent.
Dear Miss Grey,—I am a high school girl, and I should be very glad to correspond with "A High School Girl."
Ans.—"J. A. M.'s" address has been forwarded. Hope your correspondence may prove of mutual interest and benefit.

Use Sterilized Needle.
"Peony."—I should advise opening the spots with a sterilized needle; remove the contents and dab well with peroxide. No doubt as the blood clears these will cease to trouble you.
2. I am advised that the employer can "dock" a quarter-day's pay in such a case—not a half-day.
3. Should say that you possessed talent worth developing. No reason why a correspondence course should not be of help. I cannot give any addresses here, but could supply one if you cared to send address and stamp. In the meantime try not consult the free library for books and magazines along this line?

Re "Madeline."
Dear Miss Grey,—Will you permit me to comment on the answer you gave a correspondent on the meaning of the above name? You gave the derivation correctly, but did not give the meaning. Madeline is a Hebrew word, signifying "tower" or "greatness." Madeline, while indicating one who comes from Madeline, and therefore "tower" means also "grand, elevated, magnificent." Madeline is one French send me a Crippled Mother's son's

ADVERTISER PATTERNS

2056

A Becoming Dress for the Growing Girl.
2056—This design is fine for crepe, foulard, chiffon cloth, wash silk, challis, lawn, batiste and other soft fabrics. The skirt joins the waist at raised waistline, and may be finished with or without a ruffle heading. The waist may have a round yoke, as shown in the back view, or be finished with a narrow heading.
The pattern is cut in five sizes, 6, 8, 10, 12 and 14 years. It requires 3 1/2 yards of 44-inch material for a 12-year size.
A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents in silver or stamps.

ADVERTISER PATTERN DEPT.
Please send above-mentioned pattern as per directions given below:

Name

Town

Province

Age (if child's or misses' pattern)

Measurement: Bust..... Waist.....

Caution: Be careful to inclose the above illustration, and send stamp of pattern wanted. When the pattern is sent measure, you need only mark 35, 36, 37, whatever it may be. When in waist measure, 22, 24, 25, or whatever it may be, a skirt, give the waist and length measure. When misses' or child's pattern, write only the figure representing the age. It is not necessary to write "inches" or "years." Patterns cannot reach you in less than one week from date of application.

which was beautifully decorated with flowers, and sat down to a very tempting supper. The remainder of the evening was spent in music and dancing. The bride and groom were the recipients of a number of handsome checks and presents. The groom's gift to the bride was a substantial piece of furniture, and the bride's gift to the groom was a beautiful pearl necklace. The young couple left by motor, mist showers of confetti, for Mitchell, Stratford, Kitchener. Bachelors and bridesmaids comprised only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties. Those from New York: Mrs. J. M. Livingston, New York; Mrs. Frances Pascoe, London; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Yeandle and Mrs. Wm. Livingston, Stratford; Mr. Hugh Jack Mitchell, Mr. John Livingston and family, Baden; Mrs. John Jack, Chatham; Mr. Alex. "Guthrie," Cathar, near New York; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Livingston, Stratford; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Shear, Listowel. The young couple will reside on the groom's farm near New York, and will be at home to their friends after July 1.

On June 12 a quiet but very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Sutter, when their cousin, Miss Janet R. Duhersty, was united in marriage to William G. Jack, a popular and prosperous young farmer of Mornington. The ancient custom of having attendants was dispensed with, and at 3 p.m. to the strains of the Wedding March the bride and groom entered the spacious drawing room, the bride leaning on the arm of her brother, Mr. Livingston. Walter Moffat performed the marriage ceremony. The bride was becomingly attired in a gown of white duchess satin with veil and wreath of orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of white roses. The ceremony was witnessed by the guests repaired to the diningroom.

On June 12 a quiet but very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Sutter, when their cousin, Miss Janet R. Duhersty, was united in marriage to William G. Jack, a popular and prosperous young farmer of Mornington. The ancient custom of having attendants was dispensed with, and at 3 p.m. to the strains of the Wedding March the bride and groom entered the spacious drawing room, the bride leaning on the arm of her brother, Mr. Livingston. Walter Moffat performed the marriage ceremony. The bride was becomingly attired in a gown of white duchess satin with veil and wreath of orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of white roses. The ceremony was witnessed by the guests repaired to the diningroom.

On June 12 a quiet but very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Sutter, when their cousin, Miss Janet R. Duhersty, was united in marriage to William G. Jack, a popular and prosperous young farmer of Mornington. The ancient custom of having attendants was dispensed with, and at 3 p.m. to the strains of the Wedding March the bride and groom entered the spacious drawing room, the bride leaning on the arm of her brother, Mr. Livingston. Walter Moffat performed the marriage ceremony. The bride was becomingly attired in a gown of white duchess satin with veil and wreath of orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of white roses. The ceremony was witnessed by the guests repaired to the diningroom.

On June 12 a quiet but very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Sutter, when their cousin, Miss Janet R. Duhersty, was united in marriage to William G. Jack, a popular and prosperous young farmer of Mornington. The ancient custom of having attendants was dispensed with, and at 3 p.m. to the strains of the Wedding March the bride and groom entered the spacious drawing room, the bride leaning on the arm of her brother, Mr. Livingston. Walter Moffat performed the marriage ceremony. The bride was becomingly attired in a gown of white duchess satin with veil and wreath of orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of white roses. The ceremony was witnessed by the guests repaired to the diningroom.

On June 12 a quiet but very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Sutter, when their cousin, Miss Janet R. Duhersty, was united in marriage to William G. Jack, a popular and prosperous young farmer of Mornington. The ancient custom of having attendants was dispensed with, and at 3 p.m. to the strains of the Wedding March the bride and groom entered the spacious drawing room, the bride leaning on the arm of her brother, Mr. Livingston. Walter Moffat performed the marriage ceremony. The bride was becomingly attired in a gown of white duchess satin with veil and wreath of orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of white roses. The ceremony was witnessed by the guests repaired to the diningroom.

On June 12 a quiet but very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Sutter, when their cousin, Miss Janet R. Duhersty, was united in marriage to William G. Jack, a popular and prosperous young farmer of Mornington. The ancient custom of having attendants was dispensed with, and at 3 p.m. to the strains of the Wedding March the bride and groom entered the spacious drawing room, the bride leaning on the arm of her brother, Mr. Livingston. Walter Moffat performed the marriage ceremony. The bride was becomingly attired in a gown of white duchess satin with veil and wreath of orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of white roses. The ceremony was witnessed by the guests repaired to the diningroom.

On June 12 a quiet but very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Sutter, when their cousin, Miss Janet R. Duhersty, was united in marriage to William G. Jack, a popular and prosperous young farmer of Mornington. The ancient custom of having attendants was dispensed with, and at 3 p.m. to the strains of the Wedding March the bride and groom entered the spacious drawing room, the bride leaning on the arm of her brother, Mr. Livingston. Walter Moffat performed the marriage ceremony. The bride was becomingly attired in a gown of white duchess satin with veil and wreath of orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of white roses. The ceremony was witnessed by the guests repaired to the diningroom.

On June 12 a quiet but very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Sutter, when their cousin, Miss Janet R. Duhersty, was united in marriage to William G. Jack, a popular and prosperous young farmer of Mornington. The ancient custom of having attendants was dispensed with, and at 3 p.m. to the strains of the Wedding March the bride and groom entered the spacious drawing room, the bride leaning on the arm of her brother, Mr. Livingston. Walter Moffat performed the marriage ceremony. The bride was becomingly attired in a gown of white duchess satin with veil and wreath of orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of white roses. The ceremony was witnessed by the guests repaired to the diningroom.

On June 12 a quiet but very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Sutter, when their cousin, Miss Janet R. Duhersty, was united in marriage to William G. Jack, a popular and prosperous young farmer of Mornington. The ancient custom of having attendants was dispensed with, and at 3 p.m. to the strains of the Wedding March the bride and groom entered the spacious drawing room, the bride leaning on the arm of her brother, Mr. Livingston. Walter Moffat performed the marriage ceremony. The bride was becomingly attired in a gown of white duchess satin with veil and wreath of orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of white roses. The ceremony was witnessed by the guests repaired to the diningroom.

On June 12 a quiet but very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Sutter, when their cousin, Miss Janet R. Duhersty, was united in marriage to William G. Jack, a popular and prosperous young farmer of Mornington. The ancient custom of having attendants was dispensed with, and at 3 p.m. to the strains of the Wedding March the bride and groom entered the spacious drawing room, the bride leaning on the arm of her brother, Mr. Livingston. Walter Moffat performed the marriage ceremony. The bride was becomingly attired in a gown of white duchess satin with veil and wreath of orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of white roses. The ceremony was witnessed by the guests repaired to the diningroom.

On June 12 a quiet but very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Sutter, when their cousin, Miss Janet R. Duhersty, was united in marriage to William G. Jack, a popular and prosperous young farmer of Mornington. The ancient custom of having attendants was dispensed with, and at 3 p.m. to the strains of the Wedding March the bride and groom entered the spacious drawing room, the bride leaning on the arm of her brother, Mr. Livingston. Walter Moffat performed the marriage ceremony. The bride was becomingly attired in a gown of white duchess satin with veil and wreath of orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of white roses. The ceremony was witnessed by the guests repaired to the diningroom.

On June 12 a quiet but very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Sutter, when their cousin, Miss Janet R. Duhersty, was united in marriage to William G. Jack, a popular and prosperous young farmer of Mornington. The ancient custom of having attendants was dispensed with, and at 3 p.m. to the strains of the Wedding March the bride and groom entered the spacious drawing room, the bride leaning on the arm of her brother, Mr. Livingston. Walter Moffat performed the marriage ceremony. The bride was becomingly attired in a gown of white duchess satin with veil and wreath of orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of white roses. The ceremony was witnessed by the guests repaired to the diningroom.

On June 12 a quiet but very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Sutter, when their cousin, Miss Janet R. Duhersty, was united in marriage to William G. Jack, a popular and prosperous young farmer of Mornington. The ancient custom of having attendants was dispensed with, and at 3 p.m. to the strains of the Wedding March the bride and groom entered the spacious drawing room, the bride leaning on the arm of her brother, Mr. Livingston. Walter Moffat performed the marriage ceremony. The bride was becomingly attired in a gown of white duchess satin with veil and wreath of orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of white roses. The ceremony was witnessed by the guests repaired to the diningroom.

On June 12 a quiet but very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Sutter, when their cousin, Miss Janet R. Duhersty, was united in marriage to William G. Jack, a popular and prosperous young farmer of Mornington. The ancient custom of having attendants was dispensed with, and at 3 p.m. to the strains of the Wedding March the bride and groom entered the spacious drawing room, the bride leaning on the arm of her brother, Mr. Livingston. Walter Moffat performed the marriage ceremony. The bride was becomingly attired in a gown of white duchess satin with veil and wreath of orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of white roses. The ceremony was witnessed by the guests repaired to the diningroom.

On June 12 a quiet but very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Sutter, when their cousin, Miss Janet R. Duhersty, was united in marriage to William G. Jack, a popular and prosperous young farmer of Mornington. The ancient custom of having attendants was dispensed with, and at 3 p.m. to the strains of the Wedding March the bride and groom entered the spacious drawing room, the bride leaning on the arm of her brother, Mr. Livingston. Walter Moffat performed the marriage ceremony. The bride was becomingly attired in a gown of white duchess satin with veil and wreath of orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of white roses. The ceremony was witnessed by the guests repaired to the diningroom.

On June 12 a quiet but very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Sutter, when their cousin, Miss Janet R. Duhersty, was united in marriage to William G. Jack, a popular and prosperous young farmer of Mornington. The ancient custom of having attendants was dispensed with, and at 3 p.m. to the strains of the Wedding March the bride and groom entered the spacious drawing room, the bride leaning on the arm of her brother, Mr. Livingston. Walter Moffat performed the marriage ceremony. The bride was becomingly attired in a gown of white duchess satin with veil and wreath of orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of white roses. The ceremony was witnessed by the guests repaired to the diningroom.

On June 12 a quiet but very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Sutter, when their cousin, Miss Janet R. Duhersty, was united in marriage to William G. Jack, a popular and prosperous young farmer of Mornington. The ancient custom of having attendants was dispensed with, and at 3 p.m. to the strains of the Wedding March the bride and groom entered the spacious drawing room, the bride leaning on the arm of her brother, Mr. Livingston. Walter Moffat performed the marriage ceremony. The bride was becomingly attired in a gown of white duchess satin with veil and wreath of orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of white roses. The ceremony was witnessed by the guests repaired to the diningroom.

On June 12 a quiet but very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Sutter, when their cousin, Miss Janet R. Duhersty, was united in marriage to William G. Jack, a popular and prosperous young farmer of Mornington. The ancient custom of having attendants was dispensed with, and at 3 p.m. to the strains of the Wedding March the bride and groom entered the spacious drawing room, the bride leaning on the arm of her brother, Mr. Livingston. Walter Moffat performed the marriage ceremony. The bride was becomingly attired in a gown of white duchess satin with veil and wreath of orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of white roses. The ceremony was witnessed by the guests repaired to the diningroom.

On June 12 a quiet but very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Sutter, when their cousin, Miss Janet R. Duhersty, was united in marriage to William G. Jack, a popular and prosperous young farmer of Mornington. The ancient custom of having attendants was dispensed with, and at 3 p.m. to the strains of the Wedding March the bride and groom entered the spacious drawing room, the bride leaning on the arm of her brother, Mr. Livingston. Walter Moffat performed the marriage ceremony. The bride was becomingly attired in a gown of white duchess satin with veil and wreath of orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of white roses. The ceremony was witnessed by the guests repaired to the diningroom.

On June 12 a quiet but very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Sutter, when their cousin, Miss Janet R. Duhersty, was united in marriage to William G. Jack, a popular and prosperous young farmer of Mornington. The ancient custom of having attendants was dispensed with, and at 3 p.m. to the strains of the Wedding March the bride and groom entered the spacious drawing room, the bride leaning on the arm of her brother, Mr. Livingston. Walter Moffat performed the marriage ceremony. The bride was becomingly attired in a gown of white duchess satin with veil and wreath of orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of white roses. The ceremony was witnessed by the guests repaired to the diningroom.

On June 12 a quiet but very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Sutter, when their cousin, Miss Janet R. Duhersty, was united in marriage to William G. Jack, a popular and prosperous young farmer of Mornington. The ancient custom of having attendants was dispensed with, and at 3 p.m. to the strains of the Wedding March the bride and groom entered the spacious drawing room, the bride leaning on the arm of her brother, Mr. Livingston. Walter Moffat performed the marriage ceremony. The bride was becomingly attired in a gown of white duchess satin with veil and wreath of orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of white roses. The ceremony was witnessed by the guests repaired to the diningroom.

Wednesday Morning

Goods On Sale 8:30

N. B.—The Musiums advertised for this sale will be sold out the first hour of selling. Be on hand early to secure these goods.

Ladies' Ready-to-Wear Garments

THIRD FLOOR.

Waists $1.59

White Voile Waists, front has fine tucks, embroidered collar, also lace and insertion. White Waists made of fine voile and vestings, with colored stripes, lace trimmed and convertible collar, sizes 36 to 42; regular $2.00 and $2.25. Wednesday morning sale price $1.59

Skirts $1.49

Awning Stripe and Novelty Plaid Skirts, gathered back, belt and fancy pocket, sizes 24 to 27. To clear $1.49

White Repp Skirts... 98c

Skirts made of good quality white repp, plain full skirt, with or without belt, sizes 24 to 33; regular $1.50. To clear 98c

WHITEWEAR Department

THIRD FLOOR.

White Cotton Underskirts, lace and embroidery trimmings, with and without dust frill. On sale Wednesday morning, only... 89c to $1.29

White Cotton Envelope Chemises, lace and embroidered trimmed, round neck, sizes 36 to 42. Specially priced $1.19

VARIETY

Thick clothes, thin clothes, It's hard to guess the weather; Hot wave, cold wave, Then both mixed up together.

Thick clothes, thin clothes, It's hard to guess the weather; Hot wave, cold wave, Then both mixed up together.

Thick clothes, thin clothes, It's hard to guess the weather; Hot wave, cold wave, Then both mixed up together.

Thick clothes, thin clothes, It's hard to guess the weather; Hot wave, cold wave, Then both mixed up together.

Thick clothes, thin clothes, It's hard to guess the weather; Hot wave, cold wave, Then both mixed up together.

Thick clothes, thin clothes, It's hard to guess the weather; Hot wave, cold wave, Then both mixed up together.

Thick clothes, thin clothes, It's hard to guess the weather; Hot wave, cold wave, Then both mixed up together.

Thick clothes, thin clothes, It's hard to guess the weather; Hot wave, cold wave, Then both mixed up together.

Thick clothes, thin clothes, It's hard to guess the weather; Hot wave, cold wave, Then both mixed up together.

Thick clothes, thin clothes, It's hard to guess the weather; Hot wave, cold wave, Then both mixed up together.

Thick clothes, thin clothes, It's hard to guess the weather; Hot wave, cold wave, Then both mixed up together.

Thick clothes, thin clothes, It's hard to guess the weather; Hot wave, cold wave, Then both mixed up together.

Thick clothes, thin clothes, It's hard to guess the weather; Hot wave, cold wave, Then both mixed up together.

Thick clothes, thin clothes, It's hard to guess the weather; Hot wave, cold wave, Then both mixed up together.

Thick clothes, thin clothes, It's hard to guess the weather; Hot wave, cold wave, Then both mixed up together.

Thick clothes, thin clothes, It's hard to guess the weather; Hot wave, cold wave, Then both mixed up together.

Thick clothes, thin clothes, It's hard to guess the weather; Hot wave, cold wave, Then both mixed up together.

Thick clothes, thin clothes, It's hard to guess the weather