Box Cars Derailed; Tie Up G. T. R. Traffic Five Hours

Accident At Kingscourt Causes Damage But No Injuries To Crew.

Four box cars on extra eastbound freight No. 560 were derailed about 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon, one mile west of Kingscourt, and as a result traffic on the Grand Trunk main line from Sarnia to London was tied up for about five hours. Trains were rerouted via Stratford, and extra passenger trains were run east to Brantford from this city to maintain conections during the tie-up.

The train, in charge of Conductor The train, in charge of Conductor Ryan of Sarnia, was proceeding to this city at a rate of about twenty miles per hour, when a broken truck on the fourth car from the engine caused the derailment, three succeeding cars leaving the rails and blocking both the east and west bound main lines. The London auxiliary was ordered to the scene of the according and traffic was resumed about accident, and traffic was resumed about 6 p.m. No one was injured by the de-railment, although several cars were smashed and the rails were torn up for a considerable distance.

Percy Comber, aged 17, an employee of the London Club, with no relatives in Canada, pleaded guilty in police court this morning to a charge of stealing a gold watch valued at $15 from Bert Chapman, a fellow waiter, and was remanded one week for sentence by Acting Magistrate P. H. Bartlett. In the meantime, inquiries will be made regarding Comber's past record.

The theft took place on Sunday last, Comber purioining the watch from Chapman's clothing hanging in his quarters at the London Club, both the above youths being employed as waiters at that place.

M. Fishbein pleaded guilty to a charge of having no lights on his car recently when a constable happened along, and paid a fine of $2 and costs for the privilege.

DENY ANY MEETING

The theft so the charge wick cocurred in January and Feb-strivity ast. Having pleaded guilty to a charge of escaping from custody, no evidence was offered the court on this count. Elvin Richards, a discharged soldier, testified that when serving with the Army Service Corps here he missed a pair of boots. He was informed that a pair had been turned in to the army stores shortly after the theft by Baker in exchange for a larger pair. He identified these boots as his own, by means of a spur tab, found in one boot, and peculiar markings upon the sole. However, as Pte. Cox, the man to whem Baker is alleged to have turned in the boots, was not present to testify, being in Vandour, acting for the defendant.

On a second charge, that of stealing a bandolier the property of Sergt. J. Reynolds, a comrade in the service, Baker also pleaded not guilty. He
