

TORONTO MAN MAKES THIRTY POUND GAIN

A. R. Godfrey Was Going Down Hill Rapidly When He Started Taking Tanlac—Now Feels Fine.

"I know it sounds unreasonable, but it's a fact that I have gained thirty pounds since I began taking Tanlac," was the statement made by A. R. Godfrey, residing at No. 12 Hamilton street, Toronto. Mr. Godfrey is a steel worker employed by the J. J. Taylor Safe Works. He served in the Canadian forces in France during the war.

"My health had been bad ever since I was gassed in France," said Mr. Godfrey. "My stomach was first affected and finally my health completely broke down. I never wanted anything I ate, and the little I forced down disagreed with me. I had awful pains in the pit of my stomach, and when I would bend down to pick up anything off the floor it would nearly kill me when I tried to straighten up again. I had such awful dizzy spells at times I would almost topple over. I felt completely worn out all the time, had little life or energy about me, and was so nervous I couldn't get a good night's sleep. I had terrible headaches, and was constipated nearly all the time. I fell off in weight, from one hundred and forty-eight pounds to one hundred and eighteen, and seemed to be getting weaker all the time. Then to make matters worse, I began suffering with rheumatism, and the pains—especially in my shoulders—were almost unbearable.

"A friend of mine advised me to try Tanlac, and after I took a few doses I could feel an improvement. I started to get hungry and was soon eating three big meals every day, and instead of disagreeing with me, my food began building me up. I continued taking Tanlac, and kept gaining weight until now I tip the scales at one hundred and forty-eight pounds—an actual gain of thirty pounds. I can now sleep all night without once waking up, and in the morning I get out of bed feeling great. My strength has been increased wonderfully. I haven't a pain about me, am never troubled with headaches, nervousness or constipation, and the dizzy spells have been entirely overcome. I have plenty of life and energy about me now. In fact I am feeling fine in every way. This is exactly what Tanlac did for me, and you may publish my statement if you wish to, because it may be the means of helping others who are suffering like I was."

Tanlac is sold in London by Standard Drug, Limited, and by an established agency in every town.

SPRACKLIN PLANS TO REVEAL WAR, ON BORDER BOOTLEGGERS

Fighting Parson Says He Will Go After Rum-Runners With Renewed Vigor, and There Will Be No Truce—Crown Plans No Further Action in Connection With Killing of Trumble.

[By Staff Correspondent.]

WINDSOR, Nov. 9.—Rev. J. L. Spracklin is resting at his home in Sandwich after the heavy strain of the past few days. He declared tonight that he and his associates will prosecute with renewed vigor the fight against rumrunners and bootleggers on the border.

"There will be no truce," he said. "I believe I am right, and Mr. Parson, attorney-general believes so, too, and I will continue my work as license inspector as long as I have the confidence of Mr. Parson."

No further action against Mr. Spracklin in connection with the slaying of Hamilton Tumble will be taken by the crown, J. H. Rodd, crown attorney, announced tonight.

Strong evidence has been forwarded to Attorney-General Parson by the local official who discussed the case tonight, gave two reasons for his action: first, that since the coroner's jury had heard all the evidence available bearing on the case and had decided in favor of the slaying of Tumble, it was certain any other jury that could be selected would reach the same conclusion; and secondly, in his opinion the evidence submitted at the inquest proved beyond doubt that Tumble had pointed a gun at the minister and had threatened to kill him.

Hamilton Tumble, father of the dead inkeeper, said tonight that he had not yet had time to consider indicating a civil suit for damages against Spracklin, or demanding that a more serious charge of manslaughter be preferred by the crown.

The fate of the Chappell House, scene of hundreds of party revelries, has not yet been decided. Tonight it is in darkness for the first time in years. It was planned that the father, a former Windsor alderman and well-known local house man, would conduct the roadhouse during the winter months while "dab," accompanied by his wife and two children, visited Cuba, where Tumble intended following the races. He had been a racehorse owner, and a Methodist leader on both sides of the border tonight renewed their protests against the impression that the church would stand upon untroubling Spracklin, regardless of the outcome of the case before a jury.

HONEST MEN TURN TO CRIME LURED BY BOOTLEGGERS MONEY

[By Staff Correspondent.]

Windsor, Nov. 9.—Discussing the dismal state of four more patrolmen from the Detroit police department because of complicity with illegal liquor traffic, Police Commissioner Inghes tonight declared:

"Run-running, because of the fabulous fortunes to be made from it, has brought to Detroit the most desperate criminals of the United States, and when they weren't run-running they turned their talents to highway robbery and burglary. They debauched formerly honest men with their easy money, and the Detroit police department has had to fight crime because of them as no other city in the United States has had to fight it."

He told tales of police combats with run-runners that were almost unbelievable, and continuing said:

"I know over fifty men in Detroit today who have each made more than $100,000 apiece in the last six months bringing whiskey and beer into Detroit and Michigan from Windsor."

Thoroughly organized, "The traffic is now so thoroughly organized that it is conducted on a transportation basis. Whiskey is transferred at a fixed remuneration, the same as a railway move freight."

"Run-runners charge $10 a case for bringing it across the river, and fifteen minutes from the time the boat comes to the dock, and unloaded within fifteen minutes of the time it reaches the American side. That means $1,000 profit for a half-hour's work. No wonder the desperadoes of the country have flocked to Detroit to engage in this traffic."

Makes Huge Profits.

"One of the run-runners told my officers he could easily buy a new automobile every week, and still save money out of his profits. The actual cost of the element introduced by run running is bad, very bad, but even sadder is the fact that the easy money corrupts otherwise honest men."

"I have had to dismiss and disgrace police officers of long and honorable standing for falling for the wiles and seductions of the run-runners. Tomorrow there will be seven or eight officers here, but I believe that in connection with the liquor traffic. Some of them are men of good record, but they were corrupted by the easy money, but if they're guilty, I'll fire them. I'm going to clean up the police force, and I'm going to run."

Offered Him $200.

"One of my men, a new man, just graduated from the police training school, was put on a beat near Waterworks Park, along the riverfront. It was his duty to keep the boats out of the water, and is very difficult to control. The first night on duty a man approached him, and on being assured that he was a newcomer, said that if the officer would only keep his mouth shut before me on trial, he would be handed him every Monday morning."

THREE TOURISTS ARE KILLED WHEN MOTOR IS STRUCK BY TRAIN

Party Was en Route to Plattsburg from Montreal.

Montreal, Nov. 10.—Three of a party of five American tourists, who left Montreal yesterday morning en route to Plattsburg, were instantly killed last night when their automobile was struck by a train at the crossing about two miles from Lacolle. The two other occupants of the car were severely injured and are expected to die. They were taken to the Champlain Valley Hospital, Plattsburg, shortly before one o'clock this morning. The dead are: Samuel Schultz, 35 years of age, of Philadelphia; driver of the car; Louis Siewersburg, about 35, Philadelphia; and John T. Vandorpoel, about 45 years of age, Philadelphia.

MANUFACTURERS ASK EARLY CONSIDERATION OF FREIGHT QUESTION

Urges Equalization of Rates Between Eastern and Western Canada.

Ottawa, Nov. 10.—The Canadian Manufacturers' Association made application to the Board of Railway Commissioners asking for the earliest consideration of the question of equalizing freight rates between Western and Eastern Canada.

FOUNDER OF CANADIAN CLUB ADDRESSES MEETING OF MONTREAL CITIZENS

Montreal, Nov. 10.—Col. C. R. McCullough of Hamilton, founder and father of the Canadian Club idea, spoke at the Young Men's Canadian Club at the Windsor Hotel last night on the "Coming Canada." Athan David, provincial secretary of Quebec, to Toronto recently, and hoped his effort to make known to the citizens of Quebec that Ontario would be followed by others.

Blame Legislative Bungling For Ontario Liquor Problem

[Special to The Advertiser.]

COTTAM, Nov. 9.—At a meeting of the Methodist ministers and laymen of Windsor district held here this afternoon the following resolution was unanimously passed:

"That the Windsor District meeting of Methodist ministers and laymen assembled are greatly gratified in the speedy and authoritative justification of Rev. J. O. L. Spracklin as touching the altogether regrettable tragedy in Sandwich. We deeply mourn the clash of law and order with lawlessness, which culminated in the death of a fellow-citizen, for whose bereaved relatives we have tender sorrow and unfeigned sympathy."

"We also express our abiding confidence in the Christian manhood, integrity and zeal of Rev. J. O. L. Spracklin in the exercise of the serious task assigned to him by the Government in guarding vital interests of the community at this critical juncture of provincial events."

"We regret the absence of hearty co-operation of many prominent citizens of the Border Cities whose apathy or thinly-veiled opposition have increased the peril and hardship of law enforcement."

"We impeach the legislative and executive bungling over the liquor problem, which has staged possible tragedies in our province. A scorpion instead of a bee is the guilty respite to the people's overwhelming cry for total prohibition of the liquor traffic."

"We summon loyalty and patriotism to the task of standing behind his majesty's laws and his duly appointed officers in the prosecution of lawless bootleggers and rumrunners who are devoid of self-respect and civic virtue."

WOULD HAVE DEPUTY POLICE MAGISTRATE WHO SPEAKS FRENCH

Essex License Inspector Mentioned for Post At Border.

MAYOR'S SUGGESTION

Spracklin Prepares to Resume War on Rum-Runners.

Windsor, Nov. 10.—(Canadian Press).—No confirmation could be obtained here today for the rumor that License Inspector M. N. Mousseau would be appointed deputy police magistrate for Essex County and that Rev. J. O. L. Spracklin would succeed him as chief license inspector for the district.

Both Mousseau and Spracklin have disclaimed any knowledge of such a proposal, and it is unlikely that, if such action is taken it will occur before W. E. Gundy, the newly-appointed magistrate, takes the bench.

The rumor is supposed to have grown out of a statement made following Mr. Gundy's appointment by Mayor E. B. Winter of Windsor. Mayor Winter said that, although Mr. Gundy had been appointed to take over all the duties formerly falling upon the late Magistrate Miers it might be found advisable at a later date to allow the new magistrate to sit only in Windsor and Walkerville and to appoint a deputy to take charge of the other places on the late magistrate's itinerary.

The mayor stated that there was a more or less general feeling that the deputy, if one were appointed, should be a man who spoke the French language, and stated that two names mentioned for the post were those of Mr. Mousseau and Gaspard Pacaud, a local notary public.

Meanwhile, all is quiet throughout the border cities. Mr. Spracklin, now positively assured that no legal action will be taken against him for the shooting of Beverly Trumble last Saturday morning, has stated firmly that he will continue the fight against the illegal traffic with unabated energy. He is now at his home and will preach as usual in his church next Sunday.

MAY SEND RELIEF TO ICE-BOUND SCHOONER

Another Use Discovered For Those Oxo Cubes.

Here is a recipe calling for no meat other than the concentrated beef-goodness to be found in the familiar Oxo cube.

Peel and slice sufficient potatoes to half fill a large pie dish, add few small onions, also sliced. Put into cold water, bring quickly to a boil, boil one minute, then drain.

Put back in pie dish with few slices of tomato, season with pepper and salt and flavour with herbs. Dissolve one Oxo cube in 1 pint of hot milk and pour over mixture. Put few bits of butter on top and bake for two hours in moderate oven. It's delicious.

All dealers sell Oxo in tins of four, ten, and fifty cubes.
