

Says Rudolph, (the bottler):

"ORDINARY beer goes in bulk from the brewery to be bottled by local dealers. R-e-g-a-l Lager is bottled where it's brewed. That's one proof of its real quality—the pride we take in it and the pains we take with it.

"You see, no matter how good a beer may be in the lagging vats, the way it's bottled has a lot to do with its purity when it gets to your table. Bottling is a trade by itself, and it takes a big plant and a modern plant to bottle beer right.

"That's the kind of a plant I run here. You ought to prefer R-e-g-a-l Lager for that reason alone, even apart from the rich, delicious, nourishing quality of this light table beer.

"You can be absolutely sure you are getting perfect lager, clean lager, wholesome lager, when you open a bottle of R-e-g-a-l."

The Tercentenary.

The scenes of ancient glory now being re-enacted at historic Quebec, and the fact that the principal participants are descendants of the former actors in this wonderful drama have created the most enthusiastic interest amongst the people of Ontario. As but few, comparatively speaking, of Ontario's sons or daughters will be spectators of the wonderful pageantry now being displayed on the historic Plains of Abraham, it is for The Sunday World to bring those gorgeous scenes to the eyes of the stay-at-homes. This week's illustrated section will be replete with views of the Tercentenary and the scenes being enacted there.

A paneled frontpiece of dazzling beauty, showing King Francis I. going out to meet Jacques Cartier; the court of King Henry IV. at Louvre, France; Champlain leaving France and receiving his commission; Jacques Cartier's arrival at Stadacona; picturesque and awe-inspiring scene of Iroquois Indians attacking the fort at Long Sault; portraits of many historical figures in the costumes then worn; views and scenes in the life of Gens. Wolfe and Montcalm.

There are many other features of local and general interest in this week's picture section, that, combined, makes a souvenir number that will appeal to all classes.

Remember, there is no increase in prices. For five cents The Illustrated Sunday World can be obtained from all newsboys, at all news and stationery stores, and on all railway trains and boats. Order early to insure securing a copy

MILD COERCION.

Dire indeed is the threat made on behalf of the Paris restaurant waiters that, if their employees do not yield to their demands, they will bring their tyrants to their knees by disclosing the secrets of the kitchen, telling the public the conditions under which the food is cooked, even in best restaurants; how sauces are made, and other dreadful revelations. The Parisian stomach is fastidious, fond of mysterious and of the restauranters dare not face exposure. The great Sayer said that the making of sauces was the most sublime of culinary mysteries and, therefore, not to be revealed to those who dine. Shut your eyes and open your mouth would seem to be a vulgar translation of his dictum. To all people who partake of food provided for public delectation, it is a wise admonition. They must not be told the secrets of the kitchen—Industrial Canada.

Cornwall Canal.

CORNWALL, July 24.—(Special.)—It is expected that the dredging to widen the channel in the Cornwall Canal north of the New York Central will be completed to-morrow, when a full supply of water will be given to the mills.

The plans and specifications for the rebuilding of the canal bank, which went out on June 22, have been completed, and tenders for the work will probably be asked for next week.

The New York Central is making good progress with the erection of a trestle work for the temporary bridge across the canal.

FREE! GIVEN AWAY!

Dear Mrs. Currah, Windsor, Ont.: Your letter of the 24th received to-day. Please find enclosed $5.00 for six boxes of Orange Lily. I do not think of discontinuing your use of it, as I know that six more boxes will produce a permanent cure. Even now I am entirely same as mine (long-standing leucorrhoea), and as you give sample trial boxes free, if you would send me a few I would gladly hand them to my friends, for I know it will produce the same good results in every case. I intend sending you my photo and testimonial letter later, for I feel we cannot say too much in favor of Orange Lily, and know if more of same was used among suffering women, the surgeon's knife would be cheated of its many victims in the blood of suffering women. Hoping God may ever bless and prosper you and Dr. Cooley in your noble work, believe me, ever your sincere friend, (Miss) R. McK., Merlin P.O., Kent County, Ont.

Dear Friend: Some time ago I wrote and told you the great good you and after five years of terrible suffering and undergoing three operations, I am now free from all suffering and am happy and content. I cannot say too much in praise of it. Knowing as I do, it is so many women in this agony. Will you please send instructions and terms to agents?

WEST TORONTO HAS THE ANNEXATION FEVER, TOO

Hold Two Meetings in One Week—Death of Mrs. Thos. Burton County and Suburbs.

WEST TORONTO, July 24.—The annexation enthusiasts have determined to carry their fight to a finish. Another meeting was held to-night at T. J. Smyth's residence on Annette-street, and two petitions were prepared. One is to be presented to the council, asking them to appoint a committee to meet the Toronto Board of Control and discuss the matter. The second petition is to the property owners of West Toronto to get public approval of any action the council may take to try and have annexation brought about. The framers of these petitions are: Ex-Mayor Smith, Samuel Rydings and T. J. Smyth. This committee undertakes to visit the manager of each and every concern in West Toronto, to have the managers in their send the petitions through their telephone service with the city and an extension of the street car service. We haven't got any of these yet, but we are taxed right up to the limit in short, by annexation we have nothing to lose and everything to gain.

The members of Court Toronto Junior No. 1285, I.O.F., are requested to meet at the lodge-room in St. James' Hall to-morrow (Saturday) afternoon at 3 o'clock, for the purpose of attending the funeral of the late Bro. John Mooney, 100 Cooper-avenue. The members of Court Daventry Lodge No. 82 are invited to attend. Interment will take place at Prospect Cemetery.

Taking advantage of the splendid stretch of pavement along Dundas-street, many auto enthusiasts have over-reached the speed limit as has been discovered by officers in plain clothes, who timed the autos with stop-watches. The names of about thirty alleged offenders have been taken, several of whom will appear in police court to-morrow before Police Magistrate Ellis. These are: Lever Bros., Arthur Morrice, R. A. Fraser, J. Mills, J. E. Proctor, G. W. Blackstock, J. S. Mills, G. E. Copping, Gordon B. McGinnis, R. Smith and E. J. Howe.

NEWMARKET.

Official Court Swells Attendance—Political Notes of the Riding.

NEWMARKET, July 24.—(Special.)—It now transpires that the attendance from all sources at Herb. Lennox's picnic on Tuesday last was a record. Not anything like the Metropolitan carried 4000, the G. T. R. 2000, the boats were responsible for 1000, while no less than 2000 farmers' rigs were scattered around, which at a modest estimate would account for an average of three in each, a total from this source alone of 6000.

Among local Conservatives no importance is attached to the reported victory of R. E. Ganev, M.L.A., into the federal contest in the riding.

The only names so far seriously connected with the contest are: H. Brunton, Major Currie, J. B. McKay, Arthur Pugsley and Reeve Armstrong.

King, J. D. McKay is editor and proprietor of the Express-Herald, and Messrs. Boag and Pugsley are successful farmers, and personally very popular.

HORSE THIEVES ARE BUSY.

Bold Robbers Find York County Good Recruiting Grounds.

York County farmers are being terrorized in a small way by the practice of horse thieves, and if the county officers do not round up somebody soon the ordinary farmer will soon be compelled to keep his equines under lock and key.

The latest victims were the horses of F. Eaton and Robert Stevenson in the Deer Park district, who have each lost one, strayed or stolen.

MIMICO.

Young G. T. R. Brakeman Meets Tragic Death.

MIMICO, July 24.—Sydney Mollett, a Grand Trunk yardman was instantly killed in the yards here at 5 o'clock this morning while engaged in cutting off cars. No one saw the accident, but when picked up by his companion, a nonchalance of the body had been a most cut in two by the passing over by the wheels of the heavy freight car. Dr. R. Riordan was called, but the unfortunate man was dead before their arrival.

Deceased had only returned to Canada from England a month, where he had been employed in the city. Coroner E. J. Smith held an inquest, after viewing the remains, adjourned for a week.

NORTH TORONTO.

NORTH TORONTO, July 24.—About three o'clock yesterday afternoon a heavy car load of stone was standing on the switch at the north end of the town, when another car came along and gave it a bump which started it going at a rapid rate towards Glen-grove, on top of the hill it reversed its action and went down the hill again to Bedford Park postoffice, arriving there and losing its force climbing the hill unaided it went south again to Glen-grove, where the car was finally caught and brought to a standstill.

The opening of H. Clement's ice cream parlor, Yonge-street and Hawthorne-avenue, resplendent with Nasmith's pastries, will take place on Saturday. Confectionery and refreshing drinks of all kinds. A call thankfully appreciated.

The nightly meetings held in the gospel tent on the corner of Yonge-street and Eglinton-avenue are fairly well attended.

In Davisville Methodist church on Sunday morning, Rev. T. W. Robbins will take for his subject "The Bible's World-Wide Aspect."

SCARLET FEVER VACCINE.

Children's Hospital Doctors Have Been Experimenting.

Doctors at the Sick Children's Hospital have been experimenting with a new vaccine with which they hope to render patients immune from scarlet fever.

For about nine months the house physicians at the hospital have been keeping a special record of the scarlet fever cases, and the statistics show that the disease has been kept in check by a remarkable manner. It may take years to perfect the vaccine.

HOMELESS AND UNTRAINED BOYS.

New York appears to be a deplorable state for homeless and untrained wandering boys, for there is no provision made for them in the city.

The blindages of the State is manifest in the more or less rigid enforcement, according to section, of the vagrancy law as applied to homeless boys. It comes as a shock to the mind to learn that the state punishes homelessness with imprisonment. In New York the penalty is quite rigidly enforced.

"The boy who is committed to the workhouse or jail for the first time in the world, according to the law, is thrown into intimate contact with the law, and many of them criminals; and he learns from them abominable habits and crime he otherwise might never have known."

"Society pitiless, indulges, or scorns the boy tramp, without ever by any means understanding him."

"The average boy tramp will tell you he has never had a chance. That he did not see his chance, and in that event, it is blindness in the boy that is responsible for his misfortune. He realizes his unfitness to hold his own in the world, and he embittered by hardship, and misunderstanding, where he is discouraged by the ineffectual, if well meant, efforts to help him, and he drifts onward and forward."

"There is no place in New York State, outside of a penal institution, where illiterate and industrially unfit boys can find a home. They are committed for one year's residence, where they can obtain free schooling and learn a trade. Public night schools and night industrial classes, aided by private philanthropies are positively available for large numbers of these boys, who are debarr'd by long working hours and the drudgery incidental to obtaining a bare existence."

"Not until boys of this sort, who have passed the sixteenth year, or juvenile period, commit a felony, are they eligible to an institution that will fit them to become self-supporting."

Clergyman Hurt.

BELLEVILLE, July 24.—Rev. J. C. Ash of this city was painfully injured by falling from his buggy and striking his head on the road. He was unconscious for some time, but will recover. A man on the Bloomfield Farmers' Canning Factory went to look for a gas leak with a light. He found it, and the explosion threw him about 10 feet and blew off about 20 feet of the roof.
