COUNTY COUNCILLORS STICK AT MILITIA GRANT

Some Say That $150 Wanted Goes to Officers' Mess-Four New Firemen.

HAMILTON, June 9 .- (Special.)ere was quite a stir in the county There was quite a stir in the county council this evening over a grant of $150 to the 77th Regiment, to help defray the expenses at Niagara Camp. Some of the councillors charged that the officers gathered up the money so that they could "live like princes," while the men had to struggle along on what they could. Action was defarred.

John Nevills has pleaded not guilty the shooting of Constable Harry math, and his trial will likely take

York County and Suburbs

YORK COUNTY COUNCIL

Henry, the members of the York County Council found it hard work yesterday to get down to hard work.

The morning session was devoted largely to a discussion on minor maters, and in the afternoon the council adopted in full the report of the equalization committee, the not without ivg-orous protest from those most affected. Reeve Keith of Newmarket was especially insistent that a substantial reduction be made in the canal town, but he pleaded unavailingly. Last year Newmarket was raised $100,000 on an increased assessment of $56,000, and the reeve thought that this year $50,000 would be a logical reduction, but it was not to be cine for nearly 40 years.

Frank Reilly was badly cut about the eyes and Cecil Simmons had a leg fractured and an arm dislocated by the sum of $23,775,904, and that the assessment of the town and village municipalities be reduced from the sum of $2,255,000, making the the premature explosion of dynamite to the sum of $2,855,000, making the equalized assessment of the whole
