Pure Silk Ties for Early Buying

Note particularly that they're pure silk and knitted—not the ordinary manufactured tie that's usually offered at this price. We bought them at a remarkably low price. We're not making anything on the deal; don't want to—but we do want as hasty a clearance of ties as we've had this year. Down in New York and other big centres, as well as here in Toronto, these ties are worn by the most particular dressers. They're the very latest novelty, and not only look elegant, but you'll be delighted with the ease with which they slip around under the collar. In the new plain shades and cross-bar stripes. Clearing way below usual price—while the lot 50 lasts—each

Save Half on Dainty Cotton Corset Covers

Some are odd sizes, some left-overs of regular lines, while some are garments that have become "fumbled" looking. All prettily trimmed in various ways with lace embroidery, insertions to match, and all are pretty styles. Sizes 32 to 42 in the lot, but not all in every line. Many half-price. .25

White Cotton Skirts for 44c Skirts that you'd find particularly suitable for wash dress wear where you want a white skirt, yet not an elaborate one. Flounce of lawn, tucked, and with row of insertion and edge of lace. Lengths 38, 40 and 42 inches. Special. .44

Fine Silk and Wool Corset Covers, Half-price, 38c On cool evenings, when the light dresses are worn, these beautiful silk and wool Corset Covers are invaluable. Invalids and elderly people who feel the cold also prize these soft wool garments. All are fine Swiss ribbed in all wool or silk and wool, with high necks and short sleeves. Sizes 32 to 38. Half-price .38

Women's Corsets, Half-price, 48c The size range is broken, there now being sizes only 18 to 23. All are of good quality batiste, with medium bust and long hip and hose supporters, lace trimmed, color white, a few slightly soiled. Pair .48

Gorgeous Show Clocks, Half-priced Some remarkable prices are the result of our clearing of the Clock Section. A number of clocks that were in the semi-expensive class have swung into the moderate price class, but at the same time they retain all the elegance of design, richness of material and perfection of finish that made them worth the original prices. It's simply a case of stimulating the turnover and to make way for the new shipments.

A three-piece Parlor Mantel Set comprises the clock and two ornaments. The top and base, with four side pillars, are built of solid onyx. The top and base enclose all the sides, while on top is an onyx carving; the entire clock being about 30 inches high and 14 inches wide. Ornaments are patterned to match the style of the clock. 3 pieces for $.56.00

Another design is of black veined marble, having grooved, extended top and base, beveled glass sides and back, reinforced by four Corinthian columns; on top is a bronze lion. The clock possesses all the features that have made the French parlor mantel clocks so valuable. $.36.25

An extra heavy style of French Onyx Clock has a top and base with a graceful curved edge. The beveled corners and base are beautifully inlaid. The base, in turn, rests on a four-inlaid oval supporter. The movement is the same as that in that with fancy dial. $.26.00

A Bronze Clock, about 24 inches high, has a figure standing on a 10-inch base of dark green shaded bronze. Another in a bronze figure of a nymph, moulded in one piece with the frame of the clock. It has a pure enamel dial, and strikes hour and half-hour on a cathedral gong. Another design in copper bronze shows a fountain, with figure on side. $.12.50

A Gold-plated Clock, has a top and base inlaid with enamel surmounted by a dome resting on pillars on each side. The frame is elegantly inlaid, has beveled glass sides, front, and back, a visible movement that can be seen from all sides, with mercury pendulum, for $.14.00

A Plain Clock, with green onyx top and base, with oval glass door, sides, has top and base beautifully inlaid with pure hard enamel. The dial is also of inlaid enamel to match the sides. The fine French movement is visible. It is a favorite style for drawing-room clocks. $.27.50

Another design very similar to this, slightly heavier clock $.22.50

French Mantel Clocks, about 10 inches high, with 5-inch base, is an upright design with a case of beveled glass set in gold-plated or emery finished frame. A mercury pendulum is a feature of the high-grade French movement, which strikes hour and half-hour. Plain bright finished design, a decorative style of drawing-room clock. Half-price $.9.75

Mantel Clocks, in polished gold-plated frame, have base, top, and pillars in raised scroll designs, enclosing beveled glass sides, front, and back. An enamel-dial of light blue tints, with numerals set in white ovals, a mercury pendulum, and a French movement, striking hour and half-hour. $.14.00

Same style frame with fine French movement, mercury pendulum, hour and half-hour strike, enamel dial with embossed metal centre. Wednesday $.11.00
