MOROCCO CLOUD LOOMS UP AGAIN

Another Crisis Arises Between France and Germany

SITUATION SERIOUS Although French Foreign Office Says It Is Still Susceptible of Adjustment and Denies That Germany Will Demand Cession of Moroccan Port.

PARIS, Sept. 19.—Another crisis has arisen in the negotiations between France and Germany relative to the Moroccan conference. This has resulted in a suspension of the meetings between Dr. Rosen (German minister to Morocco) and M. Rouvier (former governor of Algeria), the special plenipotentiaries of Germany and France. Their last meeting occurred three days ago, and there is no present sign of a renewal of their conference. Dr. Rosen is seeking instructions from Berlin, but the extended delay begins to excite apprehension in official quarters. It is generally expected that the negotiations will not yield upon points which France considers to be essential. Both sides show anxiety, and the situation promises to affect the course seriously. However, the foreign office continues to view the situation as susceptible of adjustment, and denies the alarmist report in a French newspaper that the German demands include the port of Mogador upon the Atlantic coast of Morocco. The following official statement was made to the Associated Press today by the subject: "The question of Mogador does not enter into the negotiations in any form, for the reason that Germany and France in their exchange of notes have specifically agreed to maintain the integrity of Morocco. Therefore it is impossible to negotiate upon the cession of Mogador or any part of Moroccan territory."

THE TRAGIC DEATH OF WILLIAM F. T. HARRISON, OF THE CUSTOMS STAFF

He Accidentally Shot Himself While Working With a Shot Gun in His Room At His Home, Elliott Row—Death Casts Gloom Over Family and Many Friends.

It was with a feeling of the deepest sorrow and regret that St. John learned this morning of the sad and tragic death of one of its best known and most popular young men. William F. T. Harrison, son of the late W. F. Harrison, shot himself through the head while working with a shotgun at his home, 78 Elliott Row. Death was instantaneous as it was accidental. The body of the young man was found in his room, and the shotgun was found close to the body. It will probably never be known just what happened preceding the shooting or exactly how Mr. Harrison became the victim of such a horrible accident, which in the twinkling of an eye, robbed him of his life, plunged his relatives and friends into the deepest and most poignant grief, and caused a gloom to settle like a pall upon the hearts of his friends. Mr. Harrison, who, with his wife and mother and brother, had resided at 78 Elliott Row, was preparing to change his residence. Late last night he worked in his home packing his effects and awaiting in the general work preparatory to moving. He did not complete his work that evening, and when he retired it was with the intention of arising earlier than usual this morning so that he might finish packing his things before the hour came for him to report at the customs house, where he was engaged as deputy collector in the department of Inland Revenue, of which T. H. Belyea is the collector. It was stated this morning that it was not one of his own guns which had caused the fatality, but one which he was keeping for some one else. His own outfit is said to be in the country. There were few young men in St. John who numbered more friends or who were held in higher esteem than William F. T. Harrison, to whom death came in such tragic fashion. Born on July 23, 1873, he had but recently passed his thirtieth birthday. He was the third son of the late William F. Harrison, who for many years conducted a wholesale grocery business on the North wharf. His older brother was Capt. Charles F. Harrison, who was one of the South African volunteers, and who died of enteric fever in Africa during the Boer war. He leaves two brothers, Bertman Harrison, who is a graduate of the New York Academy of Dramatic Arts, and who had recently been engaged as stage manager for Henry Miller and Margaret Anglin, and another brother, Walter A., in the employ of T. H. Belyea. He also leaves one sister, Mrs. Hart, of Kingston, Ont., Jeremiah Harrison, of the Hay and Feed firm of that name, was an uncle of the deceased, and J. G. and W. Harry Harrison of this city.

Mr. Harrison was engaged in his father's office for some time and on the death of his father conducted the business. He was appointed a deputy collector of inland revenue on July 19, 1901. He was an ardent hunter and fisherman and took a keen interest in everything pertaining to rod and gun. He was also a prominent member of the St. Andrew's Club and of the St. John's Golf Club. He was a member of Court Martello, L. O. F.

A FAMOUS HUNT. ST. MARTINS, Sept. 18.—(Special).—The mayor's clerk of St. John has arrived here on a shooting expedition. He has two guns and four dogs. This evening he is entertaining the guests at the hotel with an account of how they bagged partridges in 1812. He has announced that he will return in a hamper under the trees to night, to get the proper spirit of adventure to the proper spirit of adventure. ST. MARTINS, Sept. 19.—(Special).—The mayor's clerk cleared his guns this morning, and took his dogs out for a run. His return for breakfast he entertained the boarders with a starting tale of a moose hunt of Fort Howe in 1832.

HEARD HIM MOVING ABOUT THE HOUSE. Suddenly the report of a shot was heard, coupled with the sound of a falling body. His brother Walter rushed to the room and found the body of the unfortunate man lying across a smoking case. In his head was a gaping gun shot wound, and when found he was practically extinct. The household was summoned, and Dr. Berryman sent for, but Mr. Harrison was probably dead before the physician received the summons. Mr. Coroner Berryman when seen said: "As I understand it, the family were going to move, and after breakfast, Will went into his bedroom to fix up his gun, ammunition, etc., and pack them preparatory to the removal of the household. He was in the room when the fatal shot was fired, and he was completely blown away. Death had been instantaneous. I was notified immediately, and I went to the house, and from the evidence adduced I should judge that the shooting was accidental. "From the appearance of the body it would seem as if he had been the body toward him, probably not knowing it was loaded, and his head had come in contact with the trigger, causing the discharge of the weapon." The coroner said he did not think there was any evidence of suicide. He said Dr. Holden would make a post mortem examination this afternoon before the remains were touched, and this evening an inquest will be held at 8 o'clock. It was stated this morning that it was not one of his own guns which had caused the fatality, but one which he was keeping for some one else. His own outfit is said to be in the country.

THE SALOR PRINCE AT CHARLOTTETOWN THEY HUNGRED FOR MOOSE MEAT Moncton Burglars Who Were Planning a Trip AFTER BIG GAME Hardware and Sporting Goods Stores Entered at Railway City and the Best Guns and Rifles in Stock Stolen. MONCTON, N. B., Sept. 19.—(Special).—The big game hunting craze has apparently taken such a hold of local parties as to cause them to resort to burglary to obtain rifles and ammunition. A few nights ago parties broke into C. E. Bink's gun store and went through his stock of shooting tools and selected the best Winchester rifle in the shop. On the same night and the night following parties tried to burglarize the Winter Co.'s hardware store and the Springfield coil office, where a number of rifles were used by the Moncton Rifle Association are stored. After burgling a hole through the back door of Winter's place the burglars were secured away and the Springfield coil office before gaining an entrance. The burglars were undoubtedly after rifles and ammunition for big game hunting, as the places visited kept the stock required. At Elliott's the burglars, after going through doors prying one off hinges and being for second, stood in the alley window fronting on Main street and took the best rifle in the shop. The police are endeavoring to trace the parties. The Moncton Citizens' band intends to prosecute in the history of exhibiting to effect a better organization or go out of business. Mr. E. S. Biddle, deputy minister of railways, left this morning for St. John.

THE SALOR PRINCE AT CHARLOTTETOWN

Prince Louis is Given Very Cordial Welcome

TO ISLAND CAPITAL Formal Address by City, to Which His Serene Highness Gracefully Replied—Well Contested Athletic Sports and Grand Ball Are Other Features.

CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. I., Sept. 19 (Special).—The address by the city of Charlottetown to Admiral Prince Louis, the city council chamber yesterday afternoon referred to His Highness as a worthy representative of that navy whose brilliant record of the past and whose eminent prestige at the present render it to the hearts of every British subject. His Serene Highness in replying said that as a misanthrope of the flagrant Royal Alfred, a long time ago, he spent some happy years on this station, repeatedly visiting Charlottetown harbor, of which he had preserved the most precious memories. During the last few weeks he had visited the principal seaports and inland towns of the Dominion, and everywhere had found the same tone of appreciation as expressed in the address of the services of the navy, and its intimate connection with the security and prosperity of this and all over-sea possessions of the British crown. At the athletic sports which His Highness attended in company with Lieut. Governor MacKinnon, Mayor Kelly and members of the city council, all passed off very successfully, despite the rain. About 1,200 shipwrecked men were on shore. The competitions were good, but the performances were not remarkable. The tug of war was won by the local militia. The crowd was the largest ever seen on the C. A. A. grounds, and the number of competitors the greatest in the history of athletic events in Charlottetown. The ball at government house last night was one of the most brilliant ever held in the city. About three hundred and fifty guests were present.

ONE HUSBAND NOT ENOUGH CHICAGO, Ill., Sept. 18.—A despatch to the Associated Press from Ottawa, Ontario, says:—Two weeks ago the 20-year-old wife of George Melville, a miser, told her husband she was going out to attend the wedding of a friend. Yesterday it was discovered that she was the bride and had married Harry Northey, a young man living less than half a mile from her home. Mrs. Melville had told Northey that Melville was her uncle, and she did not wish him to know of her marriage for a while, as she feared he would cable the news to her mother, who she said, is an invalid in London. She went back and lived with Melville for a week, then returned to her younger husband and remained with him until yesterday, when Melville succeeded in finding her. She denied him and declared he was her uncle and not her husband. Northey believed her, notwithstanding the records of the court at Great Falls, which show that she married Melville in August, 1901. The girl, four years ago, was married to a man named Walbridge, who abused her, and was killed by her father, for which crime the father, Mr. Hunter, is serving a sentence in the state penitentiary. The young woman was arrested on a charge of bigamy.

BULLETINS. The health of the party is excellent.

A FISH STORY. Mr. Peter Binks says that the English papers are making a great ado about an 85 pound skate that was captured in half an hour with rod and line at Penance. Mr. Binks wants the bloom of Britisher to know that he has seen a 175 pound skate get at Full Moon Lake in less than half an hour, many a time. Mr. Binks' fishing weight is about 175 pounds. He has also seen skates anywhere from 100 to 200 pounds, at this lake, in the height of the fishing season. Indeed he would be considered a rather poor fisherman who could not get a skate on in less than half an hour at Full Moon Lake.

THE HEALTH OF THE PARTY IS EXCELLENT.
