PURIFIED HIS BLOOD

Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills

Healed Mr. Wilson's Sores

When the sewers of the body—bowels, kidneys and skin ducts—become clogged up, the blood quickly becomes impure and frequently seeps back over the body. The way to keep them as Mr. Richard Wilson, who lives near London, Ont., found, is to purify the blood. He writes:

"For some time I had been in a low, depressed condition. My appetite left me and I had a general feeling of listlessness. I had a number of small sores and blotches flared all over my skin. I tried medicine for the blood and used many kinds of ointments, but without satisfactory results. What was wanted was a thorough cleansing of the blood, and I looked about in vain for some medicine that would accomplish this.

At last Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills were brought to my notice, and they are one of the most wonderful medicines I have ever known. My blood was purified in a very short time, sores healed up, my indignation vanished. They always have a place in my home and are looked upon as the family remedy."

Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills cleanse the system thoroughly. Sold by all dealers at 25c a box.

SPORT NEWS OF A DAY; AT HOME AND ABROAD

"Kid" Brown of Chicago and Jack Robinson of Chicago went 10 rounds to a draw at the Army A. C. Boston Tuesday. The fight was sharp from the start. Jim Flynn and Billy Papke have been matched to fight 20 rounds at Los Angeles on June 18.

Joe Jeanette is trying to get Langford for a 25-round fight.

Tom O'Grady has been forced to call off his match with Abe Attell scheduled for July 2 at San Francisco. Driscoll's illness has taken such a serious turn that he might not fight again for a year.

The London Sportsman has an interview with the referee of the McFarland-Welch fight in which that official gives his reasons for calling the contest a draw, in the face of the feeling that McFarland won by a wide margin. McFarland struck repeatedly with the open glove, he said.

Tom O'Grady of Wilkesbarre and Battling Jim Johnson of Tennessee fought each other to a standstill at the Douglas A. C. Philadelphia on Tuesday night. Both men were badly punished. Johnson's right eye being nearly closed, while O'Grady was bleeding from the mouth and nose.

Jem Driscoll, the European champion featherweight, who was scheduled to box Jack Goodman at Brighton, New York was suddenly attacked with a desperate cold and confined to his bed on Monday. Driscoll's illness explains the poor showing he made against Pal Moore.

In Montreal last night arrangements were made by Dan McDonald, Capt. Breton and Johnny Burns of New York for a ten round bout next week. If Burns knocks out McDonald inside of ten rounds he is to take the net receipts. Efforts are being made in Montreal to get Johnny McLooney of St. John for a bout with Young Burns for July 1.

Manager Bill Dahlen, of the Brooklyn team has been indefinitely suspended by President Lynch of the National League for disputing the umpire's decision in last Saturday's game.

St. John's Win Fine Game

The big crowd that attended the South End league game on the Every Day Club grounds last evening saw the best ball of the season when the St. John won from the Clippers, 1 to 0 in a brilliant contest. It was the snuggest exhibition of ball for the seven innings of play seen on the grounds for many a moon. It was a pitcher's battle from the outset and the Clippers, with Boward in the box, had a shade the better of the argument with "Dicky" Boone who came down from Fredrickton to assist the McClure outfit. The Clipper management had George Finnimore of the Celestial city holding down second and Thomas Howe, an old time favorite, at short stop. The St. Johns clinched the game in the first inning when they lowered two of the four hits but after that he was a puzzle. Both pitchers received fine support. Boward picked up a couple, allowing but three scattered hits and giving one base on balls. More than 300 people had the money's worth. The teams and scores follow:

F. M. A. Are Winners Again

In an exciting contest last night on the St. Peter's church grounds, the basketball team of the St. John's Athletic Association won their third game in the Intermediate league by a score of 5 to 2, defeating the team from Holy Trinity parish. At the third inning the game was 2 to 2, but the F. M. A. boys then fell on the H. T. pitcher, and knocked the sphere about with ease. The batteries were: For the winners, Harrington and Jones; for the losers, Pratt and Casey. It has been decided to make no change in the league schedule.

THE "UNIQUE" TODAY

The presentation of the Vitagraph company's reproduction of the King's funeral, given at the "Unique" for the first time yesterday, proved to be not only the most interesting, but by far the most impressive sight ever witnessed in a motion picture theatre, and owing to many requests will be repeated this afternoon and evening. This announcement, it is believed, will be received with interest by the hundreds who were unable to gain admittance last evening. Every scene is a notable one and shows the procession in great detail and with the best of the opportunity to view this great tribute paid by a loyal empire to our late king the management believe no one should allow it to pass by. The rendering of Rudyard Kipling's lines, "The Day King," by Steve Hurley, added to its interest. Two appropriate numbers were sung by Mr. Carson, closing forth well-earned applause. Other pictures on the programme are "The Two Seminoles," "Half-Breeds," "Bud's Escapade" and "Deep Sea Fishing."

THE PRICE PAID FOR THE DOMINION ATLANTIC RY.

The Dominion Atlantic Railway deal, in which the C. P. R. people have admitted an interest, is described in the last issue of the London Canadian Gazette as follows:

"The Bank of Montreal on behalf of responsible citizens offers to purchase the preference stock of the Dominion Atlantic Railway at the price of 60 per cent, and the common stock at 20 per cent, provided this offer is accepted on behalf of not less than two-thirds of the aggregate capital of the 26th inst. The directors of the railway company in a circular to the stockholders say that the holders of half of the preference stock have agreed to these terms and the directors 'have no hesitation in advising all the stockholders to accept it.' The price of the stocks in the 'official list' when the offer was made were—preference 41-46, ordinary 15-18 while they were now quoted 52-60 and 17-20 respectively."

J. McNeil Belyea of the west side has been awarded the contract for remodeling the Montgomery building, King street, for W. H. Thorne & Co., and has sublet the contract for mason work to A. Corlett. The work is to be completed about August 18.

POLITICAL TRUCE NEARLY RUNS COURSE

Neither Side Willing to Yield in England—Veto Issue May Go Over For Year—The King's Oath

London, June 2.—The political truce which followed the death of King Edward has nearly run its course. The dogs of political war are again straining eagerly at their leashes and although the battle is not yet actually begun, they are snarling and barking with mutual defiance. The former declarations of impossibility of yielding in the present attitude of the government are being repeated by the respective journals, and occasionally from the rostrum.

In more moderate quarters there is still talk of a compromise, and a suggestion of a conference between the leaders of the two parties which finds considerable favor among those who do not want a fight to a finish.

They appeal, among other precedents, to the convention of 1876. The extreme Radicals and Laborites are Irish, however, have little excuse for the proposed conference. Some of them profess, indeed, to have no objection to a discussion, but they do not breathe their nullity their acquiescence by adding that "in no case will the Liberal party be bound to accept of any proposal which would involve the King and subject him to criticism and evil at the very outset of his reign."

Although, if a conference made it easy for the Lords and Tories to retreat from their present position, the extreme Radicals would not be so ready to do so. The Tory side kept up an equally stiff line which might involve the King and subject him to criticism and evil at the very outset of his reign.

It is London's first duty, they say, to maintain the constitution as it stands with out compromise or surrender. The return of the government to the hands of the government and until parliament meets on June 8th their intention is not likely to be divided.

May Postpone It

It is, however, practically certain that they will not press forward the veto question immediately parliament assembles if they are able to control their extreme followers. They may even postpone the issue until next year.

Despatches have already pointed out the claims of the civil list and Bageley bill to precedence. The budget for 1910-11 has also been taken up, and as the chance has to provide for increased expenditure, entailing, presumably, increased taxation, a settlement may be prolonged and difficult.

Then there is the burning question of the king's declaration of Protestantism. The government has not yet given any clear indication of how they will deal with the avowed, or, indeed, any distinct pledge that they will deal with it at all, but the subject is known to be engaging the close attention of the members of the cabinet. They are in no wise reluctant to remove the insulting terms to the declaration, but the problem of legislation on the subject is extremely delicate. That sensitive plan the non-conformists conscience, upon which and Liberal government must largely rely for maintenance, recalls so violently under a touch of religious toleration that it behooves the cabinet to act with the greatest caution.

FREE SOAP WEEK BIG SUCCESS

Women Are Quick to Take Advantage of John Taylor & Company's Generous Offer.

Most dealers busy this week since the announcement that John Taylor & Company would give free a pound cake of Infant's Delight Soap to every woman who bought a cake of Taylor's Borax Soap. Dealers had to hustle to get up with the demand.

Most housewives are familiar with the virtues of Taylor's Borax Soap. They use it constantly and are already convinced that it does their work well, easily and quickly. So they were glad to get not only one free cake of Infant's Delight, but a number.

The Company placed no restrictions on their offer. A cake goes with every 25 cent purchase of their Borax Soap, no matter how much you buy. This generous policy seems expensive, but they say that it makes them lifetime customers and friends.

Prudent housewives are stocking up with Taylor's Borax Soap today, this important time, to insure an ample supply of the finest toilet soap—free. Many prominent dealers have striking window displays.

FORESTERS ASSEMBLE IN FORCE

Large Gathering in Temple Building to Hear Past Supreme Orator, Rev. Alex. McGillivray—He Speaks of Benefits of Membership

A large audience attended the Foresters' meeting held in the Temple building, Main street, last night under the direction of the contest committee. A. A. Wilson, K. C. High Councillor of New Brunswick presided. A short programme of songs and recitations was carried out, some taken up by Mrs. E. J. Todd, Miss Florence Drake, Miss Annie Smith, Mrs. George McKinney and Master McLaughlin. Rev. Alexander McGillivray, past supreme orator, gave an eloquent address on the aims and objects of the order. He was listened to with marked attention and at the close W. J. S. Myles moved a vote of thanks to Mr. McGillivray. This was seconded by D. J. Langley and carried in a manner showing the great appreciation of the large audience. The meeting closed with God save the King.

Rev. Mr. McGillivray said in part: "What Independent Forestry has accomplished makes a very interesting story and whatever is of interest to our fellow countrymen should stand upon its merits. We wish our sister societies all success and God-speed. There is room enough in this world for all. The Independent Order of Forestry is appealing to you on what it is and what it has done. It has been before the country for thirty-five years; it has been doing business in Canada, on practically its present basis for about twenty-seven years. Of course there have been some changes, as in any other organization.

Everything changes some with the years. We feel that now, after thirty-five years' experience and the test of time, we give to people as good and more benefits than any other organization. For the amount of money we get. We have the social and fraternal benefits we believe you get for the minimum amount of cost you get the maximum benefit. A man of twenty years, in good health, can take out a benefit of $1000 for the amount of $100 for 80 cents a month. He also becomes a member of subordinate courts, and for a short time of the minimum amount of cost you get the maximum benefit. In case of permanent disability there is no more assessment and after a short time half the amount of the policy is paid. The public does not really appreciate these benefits.

There are also old age benefits, an insurance of when you yourself reap the benefit in part. The benefit begins at the age of 70 years. For April last $10,000 was paid out to 108 men for old age pensions. The society averages 100 old age pensioners per month. This is a feature of the society which I wish to commend to the people. It saves dependence in old age. In last April $20,122 was paid in sick benefits to 1220 members. This averages $22 a family, which means a lot in time of need, when the wage-earner is ill. It is the duty of every wage-earner to insure his home and family against the time of need.

"The great work we do is to provide for the dependent ones in case of a member's death. Last April 183 men and women members died. No man is doing his duty as a good citizen, or as a man, by neglecting to provide means for supporting his family in case of his demise. Last month, April, $27,000 was paid out in mortuary benefits."

Mr. McGillivray told of instances when the benefits had come to the relief of families. He asked that the people protect themselves by taking advantage of the benefits of the Foresters' society, or some other equally good society.

"I mention these instances," he said, "to show you that the society is doing beneficial and benevolent work among people. He spoke of provisions for orphaned children of whom were being taken care of. The first one helped was in New Brunswick. I know of no drier work, said the speaker, that God can give to some men than giving aid to the boys and girls who have to face the world bereft of parents."

He spoke of the benefits to members of the order suffering from consumption. In the case of one of whom were being taken care of at Rainbow Lake in the Adirondack Mountains, which place had been bought by the Independent Order of Foresters.

"When you realize," said Mr. McGillivray, "that in the last twenty-five years we have paid over $2,000,000 in benefits, you will know that God is using us for a great work. In joining with a benefit society, the people are helping in the disbursement of a great good. We hope for the day when there will be a Forester in every home."

THOUSANDS HAVE WEAK LUNGS AND DON'T KNOW IT

Editor Used a Well Known Tonic and System Builder

The Editor and Manager of the Burk's Falls "Arrow," is only human. This being so it is not surprising that he should feel and suffer as other men. Mr. Alex. Pawcett says: "I had a very severe attack of La Grippe which left me very weak, spiritless and run down. I seemed to have lost all ambition. 'At this point I realized that my condition was likely to become more serious unless I took myself in hand. One day while in this 'Half dead and alive condition' I was listlessly looking over recent issues of your paper, 'The Burk's Falls Arrow' of which I am Editor and Manager, when my eyes rested on an advertisement of PSYCHINE. This clearly and explicitly set forth a case so exactly resembling my own that I at once purchased a bottle at the Medical Hall. After taking two or three doses I felt like a new man, and before half the second bottle had been used, every trace of the bad effects of La Grippe had left me. 'PSYCHINE is a marvel, and I have strongly recommended it to some of my friends who are similarly afflicted and they have used it with equally beneficial results.'"
