FEWER CIGARS AND LESS CHAMPAGNE

Marked Reduction in Retail Sale in England Since Last Budget.

London, Oct. 22.—(A. P. Correspondence)—Since Chancellor Austen Chamberlain introduced his last budget there has been a marked reduction in the retail sale of champagne and cigars in England. Cigar merchants say that during the recent months clearances from bond and importations from Cuba have practically been suspended. The public, it is said, refused to buy at the high prices necessitated by the heavy duty and the inflated cost of tobacco.

In 1914 a really good Havana cigar could be bought at 40 shillings to 50 shillings a hundred, but today the cost is more than five pounds a hundred. Wine merchants are a little surprised at the decline in the sale of champagne, as prices have not been substantially increased. In many cases growers have shouldered a part of the duty

OVERCOATS AND HATS STOLEN FROM CHURCH

(Canadian Press Despatch.)

Montreal, Nov. 7.—The necessity to watch as well as pray was brought out strongly tonight when it was discovered that the vestry of the St. James Methodist church had been entered and three overcoats and a hat stolen. The minister's hat had been spared, presumably because the thieves did not wish to become too conspicuous with clerical headgear.

The police are making enquiries.

ANTI-ALIEN LAW.

El Centro, Cal., Nov. 7.—"The new anti-alien law will stand," Governor D. Stephens declared here today in an address made in connection with the campaign made for the new recruits for the super dreadnought California. The governor speaking of recent election results said: "I am glad to see that the voters of California have passed the anti-Japanese law and I am here to say that it will never lead to war. There may be diplomatic interchanges between Washington and Japan, but the law will stand and Japan will never go further than protesting. The reason for this is simple. No foreigner can own land in Japan and no foreign workman can enter Japan. Britain, Japan's own ally, and Australia have both placed in force laws similar to the California law and Japan has done nothing."
