THE BANK MERGER

Montreal Paper's Comments on Amalgamation of New Brunswick and Nova Scotia Institutions

A despatch to J. M. Robinson & Sons quotes last evening's Montreal Star as follows:—
"Early next month the shareholders of the Bank of New Brunswick and Bank of Nova Scotia will meet to ratify the deal whereby the latter buy the former. There is no doubt about the ratification of the scheme, but it is stated on excellent authority that at one time a project was on foot to preserve the identity of the Bank of New Brunswick. This was to have been done through the medium of an offer of one of the banks of this province, one that was a slight improvement on that of the Bank of Nova Scotia.

Interests in the Bank of New Brunswick opposed to the sale, backed by a number of St. John business men who objected to the province losing its only local banking institution, were behind the scheme, but the proposition was frowned upon in quarters which it was impossible to ignore and the scheme was dropped."

TALK OF A BIG SUMMER HOTEL

Project For Establishment of One on Armstrong Property, Lancaster Heights

A project is on foot for the establishment of a magnificent summer hotel on Lancaster Heights. In the past it has been felt that one of the chief drawbacks of St. John as a resort for the better class of summer visitors was the lack of a summer hotel away from the centre of the city. If such a building were erected in a location where the guests could enjoy the cool breezes from the mountains and the view was attractive and where outdoor amusements could be provided at hand, it was felt that many wealthy people would be glad to spend the summer here.

With a beginning of this kind it is expected that many of the visitors would ultimately build summer homes of their own in the vicinity of the city, and St. John would benefit not only by the amount of money spent in this way, but also in a more substantial manner as a result of the practical interest which many of the visitors might be induced to take in the development of the city.

The proposed site for the hotel is a beautiful level stretch of about fifteen acres of ground on the extreme summit of Lancaster Heights which is owned by George E. Armstrong, of West St. John. The site gives a commanding view of the harbor, falls, the bay and the city, and is easily accessible by the street cars. Charles W. McCormack, of New York, a former St. John man, who spent a vacation here this summer, was deeply impressed with the possibilities of such a plan, and it is understood that he is considering arranging the financial end of the project in New York. Local capitalists have also expressed their willingness to give substantial support to the scheme.

BIDS WIFE GOOD BYE; GETS WORD AT WORK THAT SHE IS DEAD

Sad Experience Comes to Richard Talbot, Teamster, of Erin Street

To bid his wife good-bye about seven o'clock and to learn less than two hours later that she had been found dead in bed was the sad experience of Richard Talbot this morning. Mr. and Mrs. Talbot lived at 160 Erin street. He is an Englishman and has the respect of all around him in his four years' residence in St. John, and his wife, whom he married a little more than two years ago, was Miss Louise Jane Garzett, of Garrett Settlement. No children had yet come to bless the home. Mrs. Talbot's father, the little two-year old son of a neighbor and a girl who helped Mrs. Talbot in her house work, made up the household.

Mrs. Talbot had been under doctor's care from time to time for rheumatism, but attendance had not been needed for a week. Yesterday, however, she said that today she would take her usual call, as she did not feel so well.

This morning Mrs. Talbot left home about five o'clock to take up his work as teamster for Robert Harris. As always, he bade his wife good-bye, but, as she appeared to be sleeping, he spoke in a low voice for fear of awakening her. That there was no response did not alarm him, as he thought her asleep.

An hour or so later a grocer's boy called to take the order for the day. The girl went to Mrs. Talbot's room for instructions and there found her in death. The husband and Dr. Bishop were notified, and hurried to say Mrs. Talbot received a great shock when the news was conveyed to him. Heart trouble was the cause of death. Mrs. Talbot was only twenty-eight years old. The funeral will be on Saturday morning at nine o'clock to Garrett Settlement. Besides her husband, Mrs. Talbot is survived by her father. Within a year her mother and brother died. There will be deep sympathy for those so suddenly bereaved.

INURED IN BOSTON; FATHER HAS BEEN WITH HIM; HOME TODAY

John McKenna of Barker Street Brings News of Progress of Son to Recovery

John McKenna, of Barker street, returned home this morning on the Boston train after having, for the last fortnight, been in Boston, called there by serious injuries which befell his son, John, in a railway accident. Mr. McKenna said today that his son was now progressing favorably in the Massachusetts General Hospital and it was expected that he would be able to be out again in a few days. He suffered much pain from the injuries he received.

The accident happened at night in Boston. The young man has been employed with one of the railway companies there, and on the night in question had been standing in the railway yard just about to enter upon his duties again. Several engines were shunting. He suddenly found himself practically hemmed in, and before he could avoid it, was struck by one of them and thrown a few feet. In trying to get from the way of one of the engines he had been struck by the other. He was taken to the hospital, where it was found that he had been severely injured about the back. To add to his danger, pneumonia set in, and this prolonged his recovery, but he is now fast regaining health and will soon be at his work again.
