The Late Lance Corporal Tucker

(Daily News.)

Surgeon Major Macpherson who is apparently once more in London, his letter being dated from the National Club, Whitehall Gardens, S.W., has written a letter to Mr. S. J. Tucker, from which, at our request, we are permitted to take the following extracts. It is dated Oct. 28th. To the sorrowing parents the letter must be a profound consolation. The young Corporal nobly did his duty, paying the price of citizenship and loyalty to Empire and Humanity with his life; and paying it without grudge or regret. The message he leaves is one that will ring out in every hamlet in the Island:—"I would rather be in the condition I am," said the dying hero, "than to have failed to fight for my country." It is because of these words, faithfully recorded by his kind and sympathetic physician, that we urged permission to publish the following extracts. Lance-Corporal Tucker did not live to achieve victory over the foes of Humanity, but he did achieve the greatest victory that man can achieve, the triumph over self, through service, and over the final enemy. "O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?" are questions rarely asked by the young. Walter Tucker may not have asked the questions in words, but he answered them unconsciously. He had done his duty and was content to leave the issue in the hands of his God. Dr. Macpherson's letter will be a precious memory to the parents and family. He writes, in part, as follows:

"I fear to-day has brought you a most painful message by telegraph, that my letter is not breaking to you the sad news of your son's death. I only wish while offering you my deepest sympathy, to tell you that I was with him a great deal during the voyage, and wrote for him the enclosed letter, which was to be continued as he improved. I was with him during his last two hours. He was conscious up to within about 20 minutes of his passing, and could say a few words. From the time of his operation I had spent a good deal of time with him and had watched him closely. Colonel Low, Consulting Surgeon to the Forces, a noted London surgeon, who had performed the operation, also watched him. The piece of shell had passed through the ribs and formed an abscess, which was drained at the operation, but the poor boy succumbed to general peritonitis, though for a while we had great hopes for him.

"On Monday morning I did not like his look, and Monday afternoon I could see he was collapsing. I thought it best to tell him of his condition, and I am glad that I did, for he had not thought he was dying, and I should not have had any message for you. I asked him what he wished me to tell you. His exclamation was: "This will be a wonderful surprise for Mom." A little later he said to tell you that he would rather be in the condition he then was than to have failed to fight for his country. Later he gave me to understand that he was quite prepared for the end, that he had felt this might be the outcome from the day he volunteered. Then finally that it meant Heaven, but the sooner, where he hoped some day to meet you."

"He was no more disturbed at the thought of death than if he were but passing from one room to another. He dropped off asleep in a few minutes, and, after sleeping quietly for about twenty minutes, the end came peacefully in his sleep. He was suffering a good deal when I wrote for him, but would not have anything said of it. After that he suffered very little, and seemed to enjoy his food. The nurses took very special care of him. It is an inestimable privilege to have witnessed a passing so brave and peaceful as Walter's was. I know the knowledge of the manner of his passing is the only thing that can afford any lightening of your heavy sorrow."

[Walter Tucker was well known by numbers of people in Bay Roberts, who will regret to hear of his passing. His dying words will be an inspiration to thousands.—Editor.]

Heart's Content Will be the Winter Shipping Port For Harmsworth Concern

By yesterday morning's train Mr. William Scott, of Harmsworth, left Grand Falls, leaving the purpose of the shipping terminal. The experienced years has shown to rely upon the end of the voyage, and wrote for him the enclosed letter, which was to be continued as he improved. I was with him during his last two hours. Value of Water

Water is one of the greatest aids in medicine. Internal bathing has saved thousands in cases of fever, auto-intoxication and typhoid. Hot water externally in many cases such as sprains, etc. Water is an auxiliary in the form of bath, effusion, or wet sheets, reduce febrile heat. Where it has a double influence: First, it contracts the capillaries most speedily, thoroughly and effectually; secondly, it directly abstracts heat from the over-heated body and so prevents destructive changes.

For this purpose patients may be kept in tepid or cold watery hours during an attack of typhoid, scarlet, or other fevers. This practice is quite in vogue in Germany. It reduces fever, it soothes pain, quiets restlessness, and makes way for recovery. Wonderful success has followed this practice. Brandt of Stuttgart, Germany, cured one hundred and seventy cases of typhoid fever in succession with it. Over sixty patients with typhoid fever have been saved recently in Mt. Sinai Hospital, New York, with a loss of but a single patient.

Sensational Arrest Made Saturday

Mr. Job Roberts, the well-known merchant of this city and his brother Nathan were arrested Saturday, on the complaint of Mr. C. A. G. Tessier, charged with conspiracy to defraud an insurance company, who had under written a policy of insurance on a cargo of fish coming from Labrador.

Detective Byrne arrested the former at his home, in the city, and the latter was apprehended by Inspector Bartlett at Bay of Islands and came here by the express Saturday afternoon. Mr. W. J. Higgins has been retained as Counsel for both the accused and obtained bail for them Saturday afternoon, sureties in $2500 each having been accepted from Hons. M. G. Winter and P. Templeman, and Messrs. R. Wright and J. Sollars.

The accused each gave $5000, the aggregate bail being $20,000. The bonds hold good until Monday next, 29th inst., when the preliminary on inquiry will take place. We hear today that three others will be arrested in connection with this case. They are members of the crew of the schooner, and warrants have been issued against them.—Mail and Advocate.
