

Miramichi and the North Shore, etc.

NEW YEAR'S was well observed at the Allen House, the usual excellent dinner being provided for the inmates.

CHURCH.—Three congregations were held at the Allen House, on Sunday, 28th ult., one being at 10 a.m., another at 2 p.m., and a third at 7 p.m.

THE SEASON'S RISK is a striking one, young people this winter with much of the old-time enthusiasm. The attendance on New Year's night was large, the ice good and the music very enjoyable.

THE NEW RAILWAY meeting which was held at the Allen House, on Sunday, 28th ult., was again postponed on account of the snow storm which prevailed on that day. It will probably take place while the Municipal Council is in session.

THE RAIL.—The caretaker of the Grammar and High School building, in the middle district, Chatham, showed the fire to go out in the furnace of the hot water apparatus by which the place was heated, and it was raised by the water freezing in the pipes. Mr. Morgan is now putting in a new furnace, and the holidays are still in force.

CHURCH.—His ALLEN, A. Dorothea, a Protestant minister, who was called to Chatham last week, was severely injured a few days ago. He was employed in stacking logs, when one of them fell upon his right leg and crushed the bone. The injury was so severe that he was removed to this city, and is now undergoing treatment for his injuries at the Victoria Hospital.—Herald.

PERSONAL.—We regret to hear that J. D. Phinney, Esq., M. P., of Richibucto is seriously ill. He has been confined to his house for several days. The illness is of a serious nature, and it is feared that he will not recover. He has been a member of the House of Commons since 1878, and has been a member of the House of Commons since 1878.

REAR PASSES for magistrates, shipwrecked, lawyers, school trustees, lumber surveyors, surveyors of roads and public officers, etc., are advertised in the ADVANCE. We offer an excellent opportunity to justice to possess themselves of these passes at half price for use in the discharge of their duties. All of our forms are in accordance with the latest amendments of the laws and are particularly fitted to magistrates in this respect.

THE BARRY FRANCHISE.—Reports of severe frost and a great deal of snow from the mountains. Yesterday, a son of Mr. C. A. C. Bruce of the name company—the latter having just arrived from an extended trip to Great Britain and the Continent—arrived in Chatham on Tuesday, and was heartily welcomed by their many friends here.

REAR PASSES for magistrates, shipwrecked, lawyers, school trustees, lumber surveyors, surveyors of roads and public officers, etc., are advertised in the ADVANCE. We offer an excellent opportunity to justice to possess themselves of these passes at half price for use in the discharge of their duties. All of our forms are in accordance with the latest amendments of the laws and are particularly fitted to magistrates in this respect.

THE BARRY FRANCHISE.—Reports of severe frost and a great deal of snow from the mountains. Yesterday, a son of Mr. C. A. C. Bruce of the name company—the latter having just arrived from an extended trip to Great Britain and the Continent—arrived in Chatham on Tuesday, and was heartily welcomed by their many friends here.

THE BARRY FRANCHISE.—Reports of severe frost and a great deal of snow from the mountains. Yesterday, a son of Mr. C. A. C. Bruce of the name company—the latter having just arrived from an extended trip to Great Britain and the Continent—arrived in Chatham on Tuesday, and was heartily welcomed by their many friends here.

THE BARRY FRANCHISE.—Reports of severe frost and a great deal of snow from the mountains. Yesterday, a son of Mr. C. A. C. Bruce of the name company—the latter having just arrived from an extended trip to Great Britain and the Continent—arrived in Chatham on Tuesday, and was heartily welcomed by their many friends here.

THE BARRY FRANCHISE.—Reports of severe frost and a great deal of snow from the mountains. Yesterday, a son of Mr. C. A. C. Bruce of the name company—the latter having just arrived from an extended trip to Great Britain and the Continent—arrived in Chatham on Tuesday, and was heartily welcomed by their many friends here.

THE BARRY FRANCHISE.—Reports of severe frost and a great deal of snow from the mountains. Yesterday, a son of Mr. C. A. C. Bruce of the name company—the latter having just arrived from an extended trip to Great Britain and the Continent—arrived in Chatham on Tuesday, and was heartily welcomed by their many friends here.

THE BARRY FRANCHISE.—Reports of severe frost and a great deal of snow from the mountains. Yesterday, a son of Mr. C. A. C. Bruce of the name company—the latter having just arrived from an extended trip to Great Britain and the Continent—arrived in Chatham on Tuesday, and was heartily welcomed by their many friends here.

THE BARRY FRANCHISE.—Reports of severe frost and a great deal of snow from the mountains. Yesterday, a son of Mr. C. A. C. Bruce of the name company—the latter having just arrived from an extended trip to Great Britain and the Continent—arrived in Chatham on Tuesday, and was heartily welcomed by their many friends here.

THE BARRY FRANCHISE.—Reports of severe frost and a great deal of snow from the mountains. Yesterday, a son of Mr. C. A. C. Bruce of the name company—the latter having just arrived from an extended trip to Great Britain and the Continent—arrived in Chatham on Tuesday, and was heartily welcomed by their many friends here.

THE BARRY FRANCHISE.—Reports of severe frost and a great deal of snow from the mountains. Yesterday, a son of Mr. C. A. C. Bruce of the name company—the latter having just arrived from an extended trip to Great Britain and the Continent—arrived in Chatham on Tuesday, and was heartily welcomed by their many friends here.

agement, the whole of the school house is now occupied as follows:—Jas. Mcintosh, principal, grades 7, 8, and 9, in about 30 pupils. Sister M. Bertram, grade 5 with 20 pupils. Sister Corbett, grade 1 and 2, with about 40 pupils. Sister M. Gertrude remains in the convent building and has charge of grades 3 and 4, embracing about 20 pupils.

THE "Gleaner" and its News.—An outline of the story of the alleged Belvedere tragedy, as stated by the St. John detective sent to the scene by the government, was obtained by the Gleaner and appeared in that paper. It also appeared in the ADVANCE. The Gleaner seems to think we should have credited the story to it, instead of the detective, as we did. If the facts had been given by the detective, the Gleaner would have been obliged to give credit to the detective, and not to the Gleaner.

THE Gleaner and its News.—An outline of the story of the alleged Belvedere tragedy, as stated by the St. John detective sent to the scene by the government, was obtained by the Gleaner and appeared in that paper. It also appeared in the ADVANCE. The Gleaner seems to think we should have credited the story to it, instead of the detective, as we did. If the facts had been given by the detective, the Gleaner would have been obliged to give credit to the detective, and not to the Gleaner.

THE Gleaner and its News.—An outline of the story of the alleged Belvedere tragedy, as stated by the St. John detective sent to the scene by the government, was obtained by the Gleaner and appeared in that paper. It also appeared in the ADVANCE. The Gleaner seems to think we should have credited the story to it, instead of the detective, as we did. If the facts had been given by the detective, the Gleaner would have been obliged to give credit to the detective, and not to the Gleaner.

THE Gleaner and its News.—An outline of the story of the alleged Belvedere tragedy, as stated by the St. John detective sent to the scene by the government, was obtained by the Gleaner and appeared in that paper. It also appeared in the ADVANCE. The Gleaner seems to think we should have credited the story to it, instead of the detective, as we did. If the facts had been given by the detective, the Gleaner would have been obliged to give credit to the detective, and not to the Gleaner.

THE Gleaner and its News.—An outline of the story of the alleged Belvedere tragedy, as stated by the St. John detective sent to the scene by the government, was obtained by the Gleaner and appeared in that paper. It also appeared in the ADVANCE. The Gleaner seems to think we should have credited the story to it, instead of the detective, as we did. If the facts had been given by the detective, the Gleaner would have been obliged to give credit to the detective, and not to the Gleaner.

THE Gleaner and its News.—An outline of the story of the alleged Belvedere tragedy, as stated by the St. John detective sent to the scene by the government, was obtained by the Gleaner and appeared in that paper. It also appeared in the ADVANCE. The Gleaner seems to think we should have credited the story to it, instead of the detective, as we did. If the facts had been given by the detective, the Gleaner would have been obliged to give credit to the detective, and not to the Gleaner.

THE Gleaner and its News.—An outline of the story of the alleged Belvedere tragedy, as stated by the St. John detective sent to the scene by the government, was obtained by the Gleaner and appeared in that paper. It also appeared in the ADVANCE. The Gleaner seems to think we should have credited the story to it, instead of the detective, as we did. If the facts had been given by the detective, the Gleaner would have been obliged to give credit to the detective, and not to the Gleaner.

THE Gleaner and its News.—An outline of the story of the alleged Belvedere tragedy, as stated by the St. John detective sent to the scene by the government, was obtained by the Gleaner and appeared in that paper. It also appeared in the ADVANCE. The Gleaner seems to think we should have credited the story to it, instead of the detective, as we did. If the facts had been given by the detective, the Gleaner would have been obliged to give credit to the detective, and not to the Gleaner.

THE Gleaner and its News.—An outline of the story of the alleged Belvedere tragedy, as stated by the St. John detective sent to the scene by the government, was obtained by the Gleaner and appeared in that paper. It also appeared in the ADVANCE. The Gleaner seems to think we should have credited the story to it, instead of the detective, as we did. If the facts had been given by the detective, the Gleaner would have been obliged to give credit to the detective, and not to the Gleaner.

THE Gleaner and its News.—An outline of the story of the alleged Belvedere tragedy, as stated by the St. John detective sent to the scene by the government, was obtained by the Gleaner and appeared in that paper. It also appeared in the ADVANCE. The Gleaner seems to think we should have credited the story to it, instead of the detective, as we did. If the facts had been given by the detective, the Gleaner would have been obliged to give credit to the detective, and not to the Gleaner.

THE Gleaner and its News.—An outline of the story of the alleged Belvedere tragedy, as stated by the St. John detective sent to the scene by the government, was obtained by the Gleaner and appeared in that paper. It also appeared in the ADVANCE. The Gleaner seems to think we should have credited the story to it, instead of the detective, as we did. If the facts had been given by the detective, the Gleaner would have been obliged to give credit to the detective, and not to the Gleaner.

THE Gleaner and its News.—An outline of the story of the alleged Belvedere tragedy, as stated by the St. John detective sent to the scene by the government, was obtained by the Gleaner and appeared in that paper. It also appeared in the ADVANCE. The Gleaner seems to think we should have credited the story to it, instead of the detective, as we did. If the facts had been given by the detective, the Gleaner would have been obliged to give credit to the detective, and not to the Gleaner.

THE Gleaner and its News.—An outline of the story of the alleged Belvedere tragedy, as stated by the St. John detective sent to the scene by the government, was obtained by the Gleaner and appeared in that paper. It also appeared in the ADVANCE. The Gleaner seems to think we should have credited the story to it, instead of the detective, as we did. If the facts had been given by the detective, the Gleaner would have been obliged to give credit to the detective, and not to the Gleaner.

THE Gleaner and its News.—An outline of the story of the alleged Belvedere tragedy, as stated by the St. John detective sent to the scene by the government, was obtained by the Gleaner and appeared in that paper. It also appeared in the ADVANCE. The Gleaner seems to think we should have credited the story to it, instead of the detective, as we did. If the facts had been given by the detective, the Gleaner would have been obliged to give credit to the detective, and not to the Gleaner.

weather, would make the time for fishing so short that it would be effectively closed by the business, and as under the present regulations, the catch for the past two years has been greatly in excess of 1888 showing that under the protection now afforded the lobsters are now rapidly increasing in this district.

THE Gleaner and its News.—An outline of the story of the alleged Belvedere tragedy, as stated by the St. John detective sent to the scene by the government, was obtained by the Gleaner and appeared in that paper. It also appeared in the ADVANCE. The Gleaner seems to think we should have credited the story to it, instead of the detective, as we did. If the facts had been given by the detective, the Gleaner would have been obliged to give credit to the detective, and not to the Gleaner.

THE Gleaner and its News.—An outline of the story of the alleged Belvedere tragedy, as stated by the St. John detective sent to the scene by the government, was obtained by the Gleaner and appeared in that paper. It also appeared in the ADVANCE. The Gleaner seems to think we should have credited the story to it, instead of the detective, as we did. If the facts had been given by the detective, the Gleaner would have been obliged to give credit to the detective, and not to the Gleaner.

THE Gleaner and its News.—An outline of the story of the alleged Belvedere tragedy, as stated by the St. John detective sent to the scene by the government, was obtained by the Gleaner and appeared in that paper. It also appeared in the ADVANCE. The Gleaner seems to think we should have credited the story to it, instead of the detective, as we did. If the facts had been given by the detective, the Gleaner would have been obliged to give credit to the detective, and not to the Gleaner.

THE Gleaner and its News.—An outline of the story of the alleged Belvedere tragedy, as stated by the St. John detective sent to the scene by the government, was obtained by the Gleaner and appeared in that paper. It also appeared in the ADVANCE. The Gleaner seems to think we should have credited the story to it, instead of the detective, as we did. If the facts had been given by the detective, the Gleaner would have been obliged to give credit to the detective, and not to the Gleaner.

THE Gleaner and its News.—An outline of the story of the alleged Belvedere tragedy, as stated by the St. John detective sent to the scene by the government, was obtained by the Gleaner and appeared in that paper. It also appeared in the ADVANCE. The Gleaner seems to think we should have credited the story to it, instead of the detective, as we did. If the facts had been given by the detective, the Gleaner would have been obliged to give credit to the detective, and not to the Gleaner.

THE Gleaner and its News.—An outline of the story of the alleged Belvedere tragedy, as stated by the St. John detective sent to the scene by the government, was obtained by the Gleaner and appeared in that paper. It also appeared in the ADVANCE. The Gleaner seems to think we should have credited the story to it, instead of the detective, as we did. If the facts had been given by the detective, the Gleaner would have been obliged to give credit to the detective, and not to the Gleaner.

THE Gleaner and its News.—An outline of the story of the alleged Belvedere tragedy, as stated by the St. John detective sent to the scene by the government, was obtained by the Gleaner and appeared in that paper. It also appeared in the ADVANCE. The Gleaner seems to think we should have credited the story to it, instead of the detective, as we did. If the facts had been given by the detective, the Gleaner would have been obliged to give credit to the detective, and not to the Gleaner.

THE Gleaner and its News.—An outline of the story of the alleged Belvedere tragedy, as stated by the St. John detective sent to the scene by the government, was obtained by the Gleaner and appeared in that paper. It also appeared in the ADVANCE. The Gleaner seems to think we should have credited the story to it, instead of the detective, as we did. If the facts had been given by the detective, the Gleaner would have been obliged to give credit to the detective, and not to the Gleaner.

THE Gleaner and its News.—An outline of the story of the alleged Belvedere tragedy, as stated by the St. John detective sent to the scene by the government, was obtained by the Gleaner and appeared in that paper. It also appeared in the ADVANCE. The Gleaner seems to think we should have credited the story to it, instead of the detective, as we did. If the facts had been given by the detective, the Gleaner would have been obliged to give credit to the detective, and not to the Gleaner.

THE Gleaner and its News.—An outline of the story of the alleged Belvedere tragedy, as stated by the St. John detective sent to the scene by the government, was obtained by the Gleaner and appeared in that paper. It also appeared in the ADVANCE. The Gleaner seems to think we should have credited the story to it, instead of the detective, as we did. If the facts had been given by the detective, the Gleaner would have been obliged to give credit to the detective, and not to the Gleaner.

THE Gleaner and its News.—An outline of the story of the alleged Belvedere tragedy, as stated by the St. John detective sent to the scene by the government, was obtained by the Gleaner and appeared in that paper. It also appeared in the ADVANCE. The Gleaner seems to think we should have credited the story to it, instead of the detective, as we did. If the facts had been given by the detective, the Gleaner would have been obliged to give credit to the detective, and not to the Gleaner.

THE Gleaner and its News.—An outline of the story of the alleged Belvedere tragedy, as stated by the St. John detective sent to the scene by the government, was obtained by the Gleaner and appeared in that paper. It also appeared in the ADVANCE. The Gleaner seems to think we should have credited the story to it, instead of the detective, as we did. If the facts had been given by the detective, the Gleaner would have been obliged to give credit to the detective, and not to the Gleaner.

THE Gleaner and its News.—An outline of the story of the alleged Belvedere tragedy, as stated by the St. John detective sent to the scene by the government, was obtained by the Gleaner and appeared in that paper. It also appeared in the ADVANCE. The Gleaner seems to think we should have credited the story to it, instead of the detective, as we did. If the facts had been given by the detective, the Gleaner would have been obliged to give credit to the detective, and not to the Gleaner.

THE Gleaner and its News.—An outline of the story of the alleged Belvedere tragedy, as stated by the St. John detective sent to the scene by the government, was obtained by the Gleaner and appeared in that paper. It also appeared in the ADVANCE. The Gleaner seems to think we should have credited the story to it, instead of the detective, as we did. If the facts had been given by the detective, the Gleaner would have been obliged to give credit to the detective, and not to the Gleaner.

THE Gleaner and its News.—An outline of the story of the alleged Belvedere tragedy, as stated by the St. John detective sent to the scene by the government, was obtained by the Gleaner and appeared in that paper. It also appeared in the ADVANCE. The Gleaner seems to think we should have credited the story to it, instead of the detective, as we did. If the facts had been given by the detective, the Gleaner would have been obliged to give credit to the detective, and not to the Gleaner.

trial on the charge of having killed him. The crown officer must proceed therefore with the utmost care and never take a step towards charging a person with the crime until he is satisfied that there is reasonable ground to believe that a murder has been committed. The attorney general has acted upon this principle and no reasonable man will pretend that he has exercised undue caution.

THE GAS COMPANY.—At the Chatham Gas Light Company's annual meeting held yesterday afternoon, there did not appear to be much interest manifested by the stockholders, only seven of whom were present. The Directors reported that while they had reduced the price of gas last year from $2.50 to $2.00 per M feet, the income from consumers had increased. A dividend of 3% was declared, payable 1st May.

NEWS AND NOTES.—ELSON is now at work upon a patent appliance which will make the "hello" young lady in the telephone office seek some other occupation.

THE POPE'S HEALTH.—The Pope's physician says his Holiness may live for some time yet, as he has a robust constitution and is suffering from no infirmity.

LONDON'S LIGHT.—London was first lighted with gas on the 28th of January, 1807. In 1806 Sir Walter Scott wrote: "There is a madman in London who is trying to light the city with smoke."

A MOVING BANK.—New Zealand has a bank on wheels. On certain days of the week, a clerk from one of the Palmerston banks travels up and down the railway from Palmerston to Oaki, transacting the ordinary business of the bank on route.

THE DEATH OF THE.—The remains of the late eminent jurist Lord Esher, were cremated on Christmas day, at Woking, England, the ceremony being attended by the deceased's widow, the Duke and Duchess of St. Albans, Lord Falkland, Lord Esher, Sir Henry James and many others.

OUR FINANCIALS.—Mr. Horner, Canadian minister of finance has returned to Ottawa, from his West India trip.

OUR FINANCIALS.—Mr. Horner, Canadian minister of finance has returned to Ottawa, from his West India trip.

OUR FINANCIALS.—Mr. Horner, Canadian minister of finance has returned to Ottawa, from his West India trip.

OUR FINANCIALS.—Mr. Horner, Canadian minister of finance has returned to Ottawa, from his West India trip.

OUR FINANCIALS.—Mr. Horner, Canadian minister of finance has returned to Ottawa, from his West India trip.

OUR FINANCIALS.—Mr. Horner, Canadian minister of finance has returned to Ottawa, from his West India trip.

OUR FINANCIALS.—Mr. Horner, Canadian minister of finance has returned to Ottawa, from his West India trip.

OUR FINANCIALS.—Mr. Horner, Canadian minister of finance has returned to Ottawa, from his West India trip.

OUR FINANCIALS.—Mr. Horner, Canadian minister of finance has returned to Ottawa, from his West India trip.

priests' salaries which were confiscated during the anti-Catholic agitation. It is proposed that this accumulated capital shall be handed over to the bishops to be apportioned by them at their pleasure. This announcement suggests a field for the Ontario equal-righter, whose mission in Canada was such a dismal failure.

A FORMER CHATHAM MAN HAS A BLAZE.—The many Miramichi friends of Mr. John Pile will be interested in the following report, which we find in the Seranton Republican of 27th ult., and glad that he was not without insurance:—

At 10.25 last evening an alarm of fire was sent from box No. 15, Seranton House corner. It was occasioned by a fire in the newly store at No. 111 Penn-avenue, owned by J. Pile. The fire companies were on hand soon and after a half hour's work the flames under control. The fire originated in the cellar, presumably from the furnace, and communicated to the store above. The damage to the building was but slight, but to the stock, consisting of nearly 3000 cases of clothing, was considerable. The store contained $12,000 worth of goods, insured for $7,500.

At 10.25 last evening an alarm of fire was sent from box No. 15, Seranton House corner. It was occasioned by a fire in the newly store at No. 111 Penn-avenue, owned by J. Pile. The fire companies were on hand soon and after a half hour's work the flames under control. The fire originated in the cellar, presumably from the furnace, and communicated to the store above. The damage to the building was but slight, but to the stock, consisting of nearly 3000 cases of clothing, was considerable. The store contained $12,000 worth of goods, insured for $7,500.

At 10.25 last evening an alarm of fire was sent from box No. 15, Seranton House corner. It was occasioned by a fire in the newly store at No. 111 Penn-avenue, owned by J. Pile. The fire companies were on hand soon and after a half hour's work the flames under control. The fire originated in the cellar, presumably from the furnace, and communicated to the store above. The damage to the building was but slight, but to the stock, consisting of nearly 3000 cases of clothing, was considerable. The store contained $12,000 worth of goods, insured for $7,500.

At 10.25 last evening an alarm of fire was sent from box No. 15, Seranton House corner. It was occasioned by a fire in the newly store at No. 111 Penn-avenue, owned by J. Pile. The fire companies were on hand soon and after a half hour's work the flames under control. The fire originated in the cellar, presumably from the furnace, and communicated to the store above. The damage to the building was but slight, but to the stock, consisting of nearly 3000 cases of clothing, was considerable. The store contained $12,000 worth of goods, insured for $7,500.

At 10.25 last evening an alarm of fire was sent from box No. 15, Seranton House corner. It was occasioned by a fire in the newly store at No. 111 Penn-avenue, owned by J. Pile. The fire companies were on hand soon and after a half hour's work the flames under control. The fire originated in the cellar, presumably from the furnace, and communicated to the store above. The damage to the building was but slight, but to the stock, consisting of nearly 3000 cases of clothing, was considerable. The store contained $12,000 worth of goods, insured for $7,500.

At 10.25 last evening an alarm of fire was sent from box No. 15, Seranton House corner. It was occasioned by a fire in the newly store at No. 111 Penn-avenue, owned by J. Pile. The fire companies were on hand soon and after a half hour's work the flames under control. The fire originated in the cellar, presumably from the furnace, and communicated to the store above. The damage to the building was but slight, but to the stock, consisting of nearly 3000 cases of clothing, was considerable. The store contained $12,000 worth of goods, insured for $7,500.

At 10.25 last evening an alarm of fire was sent from box No. 15, Seranton House corner. It was occasioned by a fire in the newly store at No. 111 Penn-avenue, owned by J. Pile. The fire companies were on hand soon and after a half hour's work the flames under control. The fire originated in the cellar, presumably from the furnace, and communicated to the store above. The damage to the building was but slight, but to the stock, consisting of nearly 3000 cases of clothing, was considerable. The store contained $12,000 worth of goods, insured for $7,500.

At 10.25 last evening an alarm of fire was sent from box No. 15, Seranton House corner. It was occasioned by a fire in the newly store at No. 111 Penn-avenue, owned by J. Pile. The fire companies were on hand soon and after a half hour's work the flames under control. The fire originated in the cellar, presumably from the furnace, and communicated to the store above. The damage to the building was but slight, but to the stock, consisting of nearly 3000 cases of clothing, was considerable. The store contained $12,000 worth of goods, insured for $7,500.

At 10.25 last evening an alarm of fire was sent from box No. 15, Seranton House corner. It was occasioned by a fire in the newly store at No. 111 Penn-avenue, owned by J. Pile. The fire companies were on hand soon and after a half hour's work the flames under control. The fire originated in the cellar, presumably from the furnace, and communicated to the store above. The damage to the building was but slight, but to the stock, consisting of nearly 3000 cases of clothing, was considerable. The store contained $12,000 worth of goods, insured for $7,500.

At 10.25 last evening an alarm of fire was sent from box No. 15, Seranton House corner. It was occasioned by a fire in the newly store at No. 111 Penn-avenue, owned by J. Pile. The fire companies were on hand soon and after a half hour's work the flames under control. The fire originated in the cellar, presumably from the furnace, and communicated to the store above. The damage to the building was but slight, but to the stock, consisting of nearly 3000 cases of clothing, was considerable. The store contained $12,000 worth of goods, insured for $7,500.

At 10.25 last evening an alarm of fire was sent from box No. 15, Seranton House corner. It was occasioned by a fire in the newly store at No. 111 Penn-avenue, owned by J. Pile. The fire companies were on hand soon and after a half hour's work the flames under control. The fire originated in the cellar, presumably from the furnace, and communicated to the store above. The damage to the building was but slight, but to the stock, consisting of nearly 3000 cases of clothing, was considerable. The store contained $12,000 worth of goods, insured for $7,500.

At 10.25 last evening an alarm of fire was sent from box No. 15, Seranton House corner. It was occasioned by a fire in the newly store at No. 111 Penn-avenue, owned by J. Pile. The fire companies were on hand soon and after a half hour's work the flames under control. The fire originated in the cellar, presumably from the furnace, and communicated to the store above. The damage to the building was but slight, but to the stock, consisting of nearly 3000 cases of clothing, was considerable. The store contained $12,000 worth of goods, insured for $7,500.

At 10.25 last evening an alarm of fire was sent from box No. 15, Seranton House corner. It was occasioned by a fire in the newly store at No. 111 Penn-avenue, owned by J. Pile. The fire companies were on hand soon and after a half hour's work the flames under control. The fire originated in the cellar, presumably from the furnace, and communicated to the store above. The damage to the building was but slight, but to the stock, consisting of nearly 3000 cases of clothing, was considerable. The store contained $12,000 worth of goods, insured for $7,500.

At 10.25 last evening an alarm of fire was sent from box No. 15, Seranton House corner. It was occasioned by a fire in the newly store at No. 111 Penn-avenue, owned by J. Pile. The fire companies were on hand soon and after a half hour's work the flames under control. The fire originated in the cellar, presumably from the furnace, and communicated to the store above. The damage to the building was but slight, but to the stock, consisting of nearly 3000 cases of clothing, was considerable. The store contained $12,000 worth of goods, insured for $7,500.

missing man had mistaken a young Scotch sailor for him. In conversation with the prisoners so found an anonymous and anonymous the idea of any serious evidence against them, and said that at the most they could only be set up for assault and even then a serious assault at that. The prisoners are now being kept in the court house in the morning, the magistrate's office being too small to accommodate the crowd expected to be present.

What is Castoria? Castoria is Dr. Samuel Pitcher's Prescription for Infants and Children. It contains neither Opium, Morphine, nor other Narcotic substance. It is a harmless substitute for Paregoric, Drops, Soothing Syrup, and Castor Oil. It is Pleasant. Its guarantee is thirty years' use by Millions of Mothers. Castoria destroys Worms and allays feverishness. Castoria prevents vomiting, Colic, Croup, Diarrhoea and Wind Colic. It cures Constipation, Biliousness, Indigestion, and all the ailments of Infants and Children. It is the Children's Panacea—the Mother's Friend.

CRITICAL SITUATION. A GLOOMY VIEW OF AFFAIRS IN THE INDIAN QUARTERS. OMAHA, Neb., Jan. 6. A despatch from Pine Ridge agency, S. D., says the unfortunate disposition of the troops making it possible for them to do something with the result of killing one another constitutes the greater cause of General Forsyth's suspension. The services of the situation here is increasing. Short Bull, the leading hostile chief, says he will take this agency if it cost every warrior his life. The half-breeds here have been informed by friends and relatives who some of them have among the hostiles that they had better immediately move their families away from the agency, as a great raid and massacre is certain. The half-breeds are accordingly leaving here with a rush. Gen. Miles says the situation is exceedingly critical. There are less than 600 soldiers here now all told. The number of Indians, bucks, squaws and children, killed at Wounded Knee reached 300; several others cannot recover. A board of inquiry has been appointed in Gen. Forsyth's case.

CRITICAL SITUATION. A GLOOMY VIEW OF AFFAIRS IN THE INDIAN QUARTERS. OMAHA, Neb., Jan. 6. A despatch from Pine Ridge agency, S. D., says the unfortunate disposition of the troops making it possible for them to do something with the result of killing one another constitutes the greater cause of General Forsyth's suspension. The services of the situation here is increasing. Short Bull, the leading hostile chief, says he will take this agency if it cost every warrior his life. The half-breeds here have been informed by friends and relatives who some of them have among the hostiles that they had better immediately move their families away from the agency, as a great raid and massacre is certain. The half-breeds are accordingly leaving here with a rush. Gen. Miles says the situation is exceedingly critical. There are less than 600 soldiers here now all told. The number of Indians, bucks, squaws and children, killed at Wounded Knee reached 300; several others cannot recover. A board of inquiry has been appointed in Gen. Forsyth's case.

CRITICAL SITUATION. A GLOOMY VIEW OF AFFAIRS IN THE INDIAN QUARTERS. OMAHA, Neb., Jan. 6. A despatch from Pine Ridge agency, S. D., says the unfortunate disposition of the troops making it possible for them to do something with the result of killing one another constitutes the greater cause of General Forsyth's suspension. The services of the situation here is increasing. Short Bull, the leading hostile chief, says he will take this agency if it cost every warrior his life. The half-breeds here have been informed by friends and relatives who some of them have among the hostiles that they had better immediately move their families away from the agency, as a great raid and massacre is certain. The half-breeds are accordingly leaving here with a rush. Gen. Miles says the situation is exceedingly critical. There are less than 600 soldiers here now all told. The number of Indians, bucks, squaws and children, killed at Wounded Knee reached 300; several others cannot recover. A board of inquiry has been appointed in Gen. Forsyth's case.

CRITICAL SITUATION. A GLOOMY VIEW OF AFFAIRS IN THE INDIAN QUARTERS. OMAHA, Neb., Jan. 6. A despatch from Pine Ridge agency, S. D., says the unfortunate disposition of the troops making it possible for them to do something with the result of killing one another constitutes the greater cause of General Forsyth's suspension. The services of the situation here is increasing. Short Bull, the leading hostile chief, says he will take this agency if it cost every warrior his life. The half-breeds here have been informed by friends and relatives who some of them have among the hostiles that they had better immediately move their families away from the agency, as a great raid and massacre is certain. The half-breeds are accordingly leaving here with a rush. Gen. Miles says the situation is exceedingly critical. There are less than 600 soldiers here now all told. The number of Indians, bucks, squaws and children, killed at Wounded Knee reached 300; several others cannot recover. A board of inquiry has been appointed in Gen. Forsyth's case.

CRITICAL SITUATION. A GLOOMY VIEW OF AFFAIRS IN THE INDIAN QUARTERS. OMAHA, Neb., Jan. 6. A despatch from Pine Ridge agency, S. D., says the unfortunate disposition of the troops making it possible for them to do something with the result of killing one another constitutes the greater cause of General Forsyth's suspension. The services of the situation here is increasing. Short Bull, the leading hostile chief, says he will take this agency if it cost every warrior his life. The half-breeds here have been informed by friends and relatives who some of them have among the hostiles that they had better immediately move their families away from the agency, as a great raid and massacre is certain. The half-breeds are accordingly leaving here with a rush. Gen. Miles says the situation is exceedingly critical. There are less than 600 soldiers here now all told. The number of Indians, bucks, squaws and children, killed at Wounded Knee reached 300; several others cannot recover. A board of inquiry has been appointed in Gen. Forsyth's case.