sentence will be pronounced on the condemned man Saturday.

After Dr. Haddock had completed his testimony Att'y Clark made a short address to the court, in which he reaffrmed the position taken by him two weeks ago that Juror Mears was until to serve. He stated further than when Mears testified that he had heard all the evidence submitted at the trial he stated what was not a fact and asked the court to consider whether or not he was competent to serve. At the close of his address court adjourned for ten minutes and on returning announced its decision. In the announcement Judge Sherman stated that he courts of the hearing which would warrant one. He contended that Mears was fully competent to serve and that nothing had been presented which would tend to set aside the finding made two weeks ago. They could not never lark then asked the privi-

DESTITUTE NATIVES.

NOME, via Seattle, April 1.—R. Chestnut, under date of January 9, writes concerning the destitution prevailing at the native village just west of Cape Nome. He says that many natives, mostly women and little children, are absolutely destitute. They are without fuel or clothing. It is pitiful to see such distress, writes Mr. Chestmut.

Chestnut.

"The miners have furnished these poor natives meal after meal, and have given them provisions to carry back to their huts. The limit of their charity has about been reached, and it is suggested that government officials should lend a helping hand."

V. H. Francis, who reached Nome Monday evening from Cape Nome, says that the condition of the natives at that place has not been exaggerated. For some reason or other they have not been able to catch their usual supply of fish.

BELIEVES HER CURE MIRACUL-OUS.

BIDDEFORD, Me., March 31.—Mrs. Victor Tousgnant, who lives at 145 Elm street, with her husband and daughter, firmly believes that she has been miracuously cured in answer to her prayers through the ministration of Father Vincent, a Franciscan priest of Montreal, who has been conducting missions at St. Joseph's church for the past few weeks.

Until last Sunday Mrs. Tousignant had not stepped out of doors for 12 years and much of the time she had been confined to her bed. She could stand on her feet but a few minutes at a time, and when able to sit up she occupied a low rocker by a window in the chamber where she had been confined for so many years. Now she walks like anyone.

TREATMENT OF CONSUMPTION.

(London Telegraph.) B. L. Cohen, M. P., presided over the annual court of governors of the Mount Vernon Consumption Hospital at the offices, 41 Fitzroy square. In annual court of governors of the Mount Vernon Consumption Hospital at the offices, 41 Fitzroy square. In moving the adoption of the report, B. A. Lyon said they had now 105 beds available at the hospital at Hampstead, and an annual income of about £10,000. Last year was an extraordinary one. They had found favor in the eyes of a most generous and modest gentleman, who wished to remain anonymous, and who had given them £121,000 for a new convalescent home. They had accordingly purchased about sixty acres of land at Northwood, near Pinner, and after the buildings which would contain 100 beds, were erected they hoped to have £50,00 remaining as an endowment. Her Royal Highnes Pricess Christian had kindly consented to lay the foundation stone on May 13. They had already £10,000 towards the completion of the Hampstead. Hospital, but required another £5,000. The medical report showed that of 48 cases of phthisis under the open-air treatment 69 per cent, showed distinct improvement and only 1.1 per cent. died. The out-patients numbered £,999. The chairman said that with their hospitals at Hampstead and Northwood they could claim to provide "Switzerland in Middlesex" for their patients.
