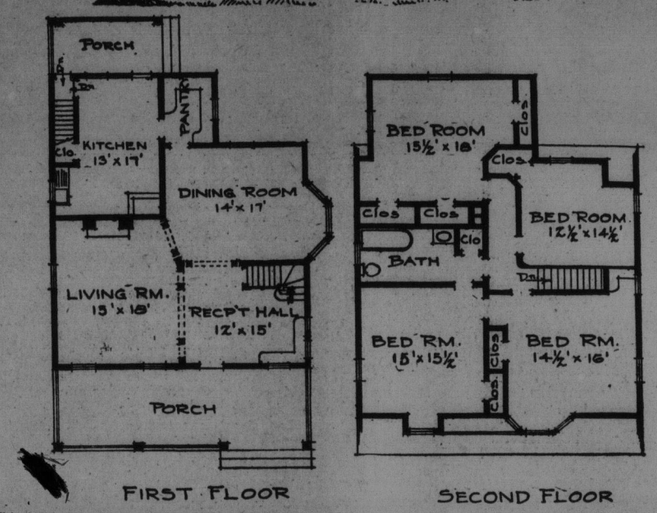
GANDY & ALLISON - 3 and 4 North Wharf

A Modern Suburban Home



FIRST FLOOR — SECOND FLOOR

This is a very pretty gambrel-roofed cottage, of a type that has been growing in favor steadily in the past few years. It has beautiful lines, but is very simply designed.

From the porch you enter a square reception hall with artistic staircase and beautiful spindled and balustraded entrances to the living and dining rooms. Living room is well lighted and cheerful with pretty open fireplace. Dining room has a bay, and is a pleasant, good-sized room, with plate rail around it. There is a convenient pantry and well lighted kitchen with stairs to basement accessible both from kitchen and outside by a lobby.

On the second floor there are four bed rooms with good closets. Linen closet in bath room. Two low rooms could be planned in attic, but in this case allowance would have to be made for staircase which would take space from one of the second floor rooms.

The exterior is shingled, but this house would look well with cement, pebble-dashed walls, which would add somewhat to cost.

First story, nine feet; second story eight feet six inches; width thirty-three feet six inches; depth fifty-three feet six inches. Foundation stone or brick; cemented cellar. Shingle roof.

Following items show cost of constructing:

Excavation	$175
Millwork	700
Stonework	250
Plumbing, etc.	230
Carpenter work	600
Painting and glazing	250
Hardware	95
Plastering	300
Lumber	800
Hot air heating	100
Total	3,500

BIG DEMAND FOR GOVERNMENT RAILWAY PUBLICATIONS.

Requests Received from all Quarters of the Globe for Useful and Valuable People's Railway Publications.

Included in the large mail that reach the General Offices at Moncton requests for the various publications issued by the Railway bulk large these days. So insistent has been the demand that a reprint of this year's issue of "Storied Halifax," "St. John, the City of the Loyalists," "The Garden of the Gulf" and "Bras d'Or Lake" has been necessary.

Requests have been received from many quarters of the Globe, the British Isles, India, China, from nearly every state of the Union and every Province of the Dominion, and some of these letters are not without their amusing and occassionally pathetic side. One applicant went to the trouble of actually reproducing the Railway's Magazine advertisement in detail, even to the drawing of the Moosehead trade mark, and the various rules used to make an attractive display. Another excused himself for writing with pencil as he had been an invalid for years and could not use a pen. But here is the gem of the season, written by a young lady to her mother. Reminiscent of Pickwick papers in its frequent reference to the inner man, and Alfred Jingle in its method of description; it also recalls Oliver Twist and is alleged insatiable appetite:

"Summerside, P. E. I.

"Dear Mamma: Arrived here safely Monday night. Boat very late, not the least bit seasick. Ate a big supper on the boat, and then ice cream, lobsters and chocolates on land.

"This is a swell place. Am just dying to get home to tell all about it. Were out to four fox ranches this morning. I got a date with a caretaker to take some snaps of the foxes at feeding time.

"There is a family here from Ontario. Classy, educated, money, Nice—but with the greatest thirst for information I ever saw. Tell papa for Goodness' sake to send over some of that I. C. R. literature. The father would simple devour it, the girls go into spasms, and the mamma would say 'very lovely.'

"We were out to an Island Tea about six miles from here ths afternoon. Fellow took us out. Name. 'Ben Bolt.' He stayed for tea, but we couldn't be bothered with him in the parlor with the 'Missus,' and are in our rooms writing letters. Am enclosing stamps for the literature. I have told him all I know and need assistance."

Needless to say the railway rendered first aid.

NOT A PERSONAL GIFT, C.P.R. PRESIDENT SAYS

Montreal, Aug. 16—In connection with the placing of a vessel at the disposal of the Canadian women for a British hospital ship, Sir Thomas Shaughnessy makes the following statement: "I am acting on behalf of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, in offering the ship, and not individually, as has been stated."

Miss Grace Estey, of St. John, is spending some time in town, guest of her aunt, Mrs. C. W. Knapp.—Sackville Tribune.
