KENNEL CLUB SHOW TOMORROW

The New Brunswick Kennel Club show which opens tomorrow in the old drill shed promises to be the most successful yet undertaken by the club. Five champion dogs have been entered in the show this year and the other entries are exceptionally good. The Irish terriers entered are all of good breeding. Two champions have been entered from Houlton, Me., and three from Montreal, and the local dogs of this breed are better than other varieties. All the bull terriers entered are pedigreed dogs and this class is stronger than ever before. The judge, Mr. Charles H. Mason of Port Washington, Long Island, will arrive in the city on Tuesday. Seats around the ring, where the judging will take place, have been arranged by the Exhibition Association and an excellent opportunity will be afforded to view the proceedings. A large number of dogs have been entered from outside the province and two dog handlers are on their way from Montreal with a string of seventeen dogs. In addition there are fifteen entries from Nova Scotia and fifteen from other outside points.

CAN BLAME HIMSELF.

If John McGraw fails to win his fourth successive pennant this year he can charge it up to his own bad judgment. Why? Well, because of the following mistakes he made:
 Turning back Pitcher Rudolph, now Boston's star.
 Letting Red Ames get away from his pitching corps.
 Swapping Beals Becker, he of the big stick.
 Dropping "Choke-em-to-death" Herzog from his infield.
 Possession of this quartet would not only insure McGraw the pennant, but would give him something more than a forlorn hope of finally winning the world's series.

MIGHTY POOR SEASON

The 1914 baseball season is nearing its close. More than a dozen leagues will complete today.
 The South Michigan league has got into a new schedule and will survive the week. This was doubtful until last Friday.
 It was a hard summer for nearly all the minors, as well as the majority of the major league clubs. Most of the minors lost heavily.
 One thing can be safely predicted and that is the number of baseball leagues in the United States will be somewhat cut in 1915.

POPULAR COMPANY GOES TO HALIFAX

Many friends farewelled Mack's Musical Revue, at Union Depot, on Saturday evening.
 Mack's Musical Revue concluded their engagement at the Opera House on Saturday night and left for Halifax where they open today. The engagement was a success in every respect. The point of view of the audiences, who have made it a practice to witness the performances each week. During the seven weeks that they have entertained St. John theatre patrons the company by the excellent standard of production they have given established themselves firmly in popular favor. The class of entertainment which they introduced in this city evidently struck a responsive note judging by the comments heard from day to day, and all who attended were delighted with the performances.
 The company includes in its personnel a number of talented people and St. John inclined to be hyper-critical as regards theatricals, was entirely satisfied. Miss Ackerson, under whose personal direction the performances were staged, came to St. John not as a stranger, but her work during the past weeks has served to make her even more popular, and she is assured of a welcome whenever she returns.
 Nat Farrum, he of much nationality, a very large number of southerners, and whose frequent trips "to do office" have been an antidote for tears, and the bane of the group will be missed from his usual haunts, but he'll find the latch out when he comes back. Should he go to war—well—we'll miss him just the same.
 Another member whose work was of an exceptionally high order, was Walter De Luna. His versatility is unusual, and while his character impersonation was a strong feature in his work, his sketching in chalks is his forte.
 Miss Eisle Wallace, who also won a very large share of the company's popularity, Miss Russell, Miss Gilbert, Miss Burt and the other ladies and gentlemen of the company, may also be certain of a hearty welcome to one and all their friends extend "Good-bye, Good Health, Good Luck, and Good wishes," and hope to see you soon again.
 A number of their friends gave them a great send off on Saturday night at the depot previous to their departure.

Good News.

The street railway will start its regular service to and from the North End this morning. The car service on this route has been poor, owing to the interruption caused by street improvement work. In view of the exhibition the city made arrangements to have the street railway resume its full service this week, so as not to inconvenience visitors.

Servians made rich haul of arms, ammunition and equipment, in battle of Jodar.

Nish, Servia, Sept. 6.—According to the official organ Srpski Novine, the following spoil was captured by the Servians in the battle of Jodar, 100 cannon of which ninety-two were field guns, eight siege guns, 2,500 horses, three hospitals of 3,000 beds, thirty-seven mitraluses, 37,000 Mauser rifles, 114 full caissons containing 500 shells for each cannon, ammunition, and 4,600 prisoners, including a large number of officers and one military band with its conductor.
