ITALIAN AIR RAID ON CAPITAL OF CARNIOLA

OVER A MILLION ENGAGED IN NAVAL WORK

For Every Man in Navy Two Persons Contribute Some Phase of Work to Maintain Fleet's Efficiency.

London, Feb. 20.—The magnitude of the work going in the navy is shown in a letter from the Admiralty to Sir Gilbert Parker, answering his question in the House of Commons on the number of people engaged in all branches of the navy and of naval work.

The letter states that the navy proper had 146,000 officers and men when the war broke out, which number has now increased to 230,000, with the authority granted for a further increase to 250,000 officers and men, besides 67,000 naval reservists.

There are also 55,900 men engaged in work at Royal dockyards, and other naval establishments, and several times that number on Admiralty work under contract and sub-contract.

Besides these, the letter specifies men engaged in setting coal for the fleet, dockside workers and civilian crews of colliers, oilers, mine sweepers, supply ships, etc., and in addition men and women engaged in making clothing and preparing food for the fleet.

Thomas J. MacNamara, financial secretary of the admiralty, adds: "If asked to put the matter in a sentence, I should say that for every man in the navy, of whom there are something like 300,000, there are certainly two persons, and possibly even three, at work on ship construction, repairing and contributing to the general efficiency and fighting ability of the fleet."

An aggregate of more than a million persons engaged in various branches of naval work is thus shown.

Officers of the 140th Battalion Will Enter Field of Sports and Also Entertain Public

The officers of the 140th Battalion were entertained at lunch at Bond's yesterday by Lieut. Col. H. Boer, the officer commanding. After lunch a conference was held and matters pertaining to the welfare of the battalion discussed.

The battalion is now assembling from Canada, with this idea in mind it was decided that the battalion should enter the field of sports and it will be heard from in the future in this respect as there is some excellent material. It is only necessary to say that Capt. D. C. Malcolm, medical officer, was appointed chairman of the sports committee, to ensure success.

It was also decided that, in view of the kindness shown to the boys by St. John the Battalion should reciprocate in some way. A committee of which Capt. Bell is chairman was selected and it was decided to give a series of concerts to which the public will be welcomed and all they would be expected to do would be to have a good time.

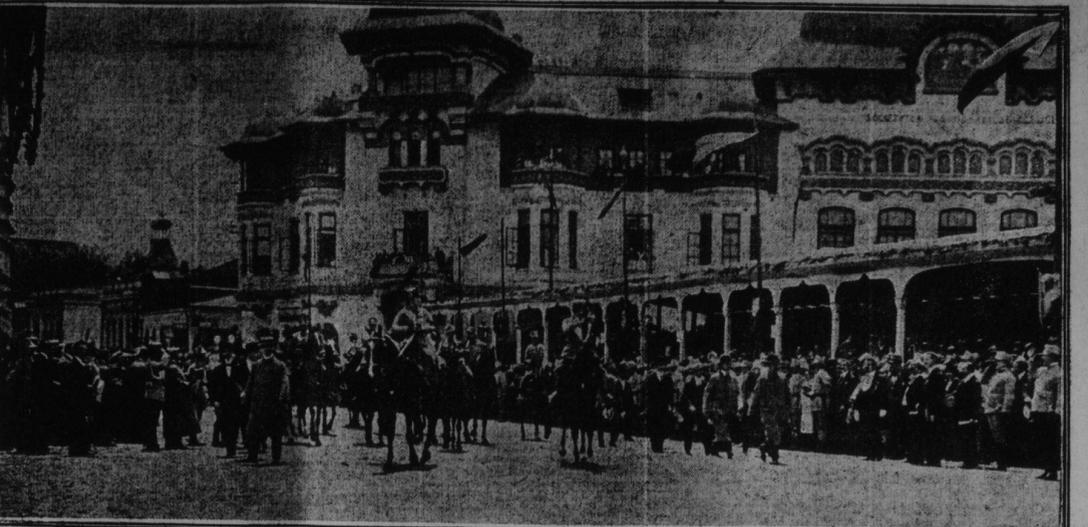

Had Weak Heart Had to Stay in Bed. Many women are kept in a state of fear of death, become weak, worn and miserable, and are unable to attend to their household, social or business duties, on account of the unusual action of the heart.

To all such sufferers Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills will give prompt and permanent relief. They do this by their relaxing, strengthening and invigorating action on the heart, causing it to beat regularly and naturally, and in addition to this they tone up the whole nervous system.

ITALIAN AIR RAID ON TOWN OF LAIBACH

SCENE IN ROUMANIA'S CAPITAL DURING RECENT ACUTE CRISIS

QUEEN OF RUMANIA - IN THE UNIFORM OF A COLONEL GREETED BY THE CITIZENS OF BUCHAREST WHEN REVIEWING THE ARMY.

THE QUEEN OF RUMANIA IS HERE SEEN PASSING THROUGH ONE OF THE STREETS OF BUCHAREST. THIS PICTURE WILL GIVE THE READER SOME IDEA OF THE MODERN APPEARANCE OF BUCHAREST, WHICH HAS SHED ITS MOSQUES, MINARETS AND OTHER SIGNS OF THE OLD TURKISH RULE. THERE IS AN EASTERN FLAVOR IN THE BUILDINGS HERE AND THERE, BUT THE REST ARE COMPLETELY WESTERN IN STYLE. EVER SINCE THE OUTBREAK OF WAR THE POSITION OF THE MONARCHY, WITH ITS GERMAN SYMPATHIES, HAS BEEN A HIGHLY INTERESTING ONE.

THEY SOLD LIQUOR TO MEN IN UNIFORM. Saloon Keeper and "Boot-Leggers" Dealt With in Police Court.

The proprietor of Temple Bar was given a stiff sentence by Magistrate Ritchie in the Police Court Saturday morning. He was charged with selling liquor to soldiers in uniform on his premises on Canterbury street.

The evidence of the three soldiers to whom the liquor was sold was taken, and showed that on Thursday last the defendant had supplied them with flasks and also allowed them to drink in his bar. Two of these soldiers were military police. Inspector Jones was in court during the hearing and asked if the men supplied were intoxicated at the time. It was shown they were not.

The magistrate, in summing up the evidence, stated it was a very serious matter and also very serious. Here were three men in the King's uniform, two of whom were members of the military police, supplied by a licensed saloon with liquor. He believed in talking strict and drastic words in stopping this unlawful and illegal sale during war times. In view of what happened previously he would justify the police in arresting soldiers who showed the least sign of liquor.

In this case he imposed a fine of $50 on each of the three violators, which amounted to $150. "We must protect the soldiers and we must also protect the civilians," declared the magistrate.

Leonard Kingstone, given in charge by Sergeant-Major Rathbald of the 69th Battalion, pleaded guilty to the charge of supplying liquor to soldiers in uniform. He was fined the sum of $50 or six months imprisonment.

John Muntz, charged with the same offence, was treated in a similar manner. Muntz was very sick in court this morning and fainted just before the court went into session and in consequence had to be taken below.

Spent Countless Nights Unable to Rest or Sleep Was Run Down and in Terribly Nervous Condition—Using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food Gained Regularly.

In this letter is told once more the story which comes from many thousands of women. It is the story of exhausted nerves, of a run-down system and of all the accompanying misery of sleeplessness, headaches and loss of energy and vigor.

But there is a silver lining to this cloud. There is the light of new hope and courage which comes with the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

This letter is so representative of the kind we are daily receiving that you can judge from it what you might expect from this treatment under similar circumstances.

where he was cared for by the police officials. William Baxter and Walter Campbell answered the same charge and were dealt with along the same lines as their fellow "boot-leggers"—$50 or six months in jail.

In the case of Walter Campbell, who pleaded not guilty, Detective Barrett was called. He testified that he saw Campbell and a soldier, Pte. Charles Hughes, standing in an alleyway on Prince William street, about eight o'clock on Friday evening. He saw the two in the act of drinking and at this point he went and arrested them both.

The death occurred yesterday of William Johnston at the residence of his son-in-law, A. B. Thorne, 274 Prince street, West St. John.
