

Social Notes of the Week

ROTHESAY

Rothsay, July 6.—Red Cross workers are in charge of the different departments in connection with the "Garden Party," to be held on the beautiful grounds of Senator Donville on July 26, are busy with their arrangements, and the weather is all that is needed for splendid success. A new feature for this year will be the "Post Office," which is in the hands of an energetic committee. The attractions are many.

An interesting talk was given at last Friday's Red Cross meeting by Miss Ritchie, of Halifax, who is specially interested in our soldiers now "prisoners of war" in Germany. So many are anxious to know how to help these fine fellows, with letters and comforts. Arrangements can be made with the Red Cross for the sending of parcels every week, and particulars may be had from Miss Muriel Robertson, secretary of our local Red Cross Society, at the office on Tuesday's meeting was in charge of Mrs. J. A. Pugsley and Mrs. W. M. Mackay. The attendance, both on Tuesday and Friday afternoons is large.
