

Ware

in brass, including
S CKS
AND TRAYS

VITY'S 11-17
King St.

Trophies

plans for fall and winter
for, and we would again re-
of our very desirable line of SILVER CUPS
designs and sizes, which substantially engraved at reasonable prices. Or we will be furnish designs for Cups, MEDALS, SHIELDS,
silver or bronze, for sporting
individual purchasers.
N WE SERVE YOU?
uson & Page

LEATHER

tes, Clipper Hooks
also—
and Wood Split Pulleys
TING
REN, LIMITED
ACTURERS
St., St. John, N. B. Box 702

Wood Hub Wheels

and Neck Yokes
Grease, Oils, etc.
AGAR
Union Street, St. John, N. B.

ignum

ERVATIVE & STAIN
shades. Does not evaporate in Prices right. Mail orders solicited.
73 PRINCE WILLIAM STREET

PRICES ON

ison Mazda Lamps
N, Electrical Contractors
Phone M. 2579-11

HAVE YOU USED HEMLOCK SHEATHING?

Western Hemlock
Sheathing is made from clear sound stock. The wood is different from our native wood and
gives good satisfaction.
Send for sample.
$65.00

The Christie Wood-working Co., Ltd.

186 Eris Street

NOW IN SEASON

Scallops, Oysters and Clams.
SMITH'S FISH MARKET
25 Sydney Street
Phone M 1704.

For Gentlemen

FINE HATS
"STETSON"
"KNOX"
With Appropriate Gloves,
"PERRINS."

MAGEE'S
ST. JOHN
Est'd 1889.

Do You Know That
Murray & Gregory, Ltd.

are Agents for

Aladdin Houses

Which Solve Home-
Building Problems

Cheaper-- Better
Quicker -- Easier

You buy these easy, comfortable houses which are shipped to you complete, from sill to ridge,
ready-cut to fit, with all paint, all hardware down to the smallest nail or hinge, also wall board or lath and plaster, and interior trim, with plans indicating plainly the location of every piece of lumber in the house. The instructions are so plain that any man who can read and write can put up Aladdin Houses without skilled supervision.

The work involved in the erection of the house is two-thirds done when the house arrives on the building site.

Aladdin Houses come complete, ready to be nailed together and occupied.

FOR LESS THAN YOU CAN BUY THE ROUGH
LUMBER LOCALLY.
AND REMEMBER, YOU
MAKE A BIG SAVING
ON THE FINISHED
HOUSE.

For full Particulars and Terms, Call, or Write

MURRAY & GREGORY, LTD.
St. John, N. B.

Painless Extraction

Only 25c.

Boston Dental Parlors.
Main Office 627 Main Street. Branch Office 48 Charlotte St.
Phone 683. Phone 58.
DR. J. D. MAHER, Proprietor.
Open 9 a. m. Until 9 p. m.

DANGERS TO THE EYESIGHT
exist everywhere—in the Home,
the School, the Blackroom, the Public, etc. When glasses are properly fitted, comfort and safety are secured. Consult us today.

K. W. EPSTEIN & CO.
Optometrists and Opticians
183 Union Street
M. 3654. Open Evenings.

CRIMINAL CASES BEFORE COURT AT WOODSTOCK

Interest Centres in the Case Against Henry London Charged With Crime of Incest.

Special to The Standard.
Woodstock, N. B., Sept. 25.—Before Judge Carleton, in the County Court, this afternoon, the case against Henry London, of Brighton, charged with incest, goes over until tomorrow

of as follows:
The King vs. Frank Delong—Indictment for killing a lamb and killing the same, the property of Oscar Shaw. The Judge ordered a verdict of not guilty to be entered. W. M. Connell and M. L. Hayward for Crown;
R. L. Simms, for prisoner.
The King vs. William Rockwell—Indictment for carnal knowledge with Ella Prosser, a girl under sixteen years of age, not being his wife. Mr.
Connell, for the Crown, called upon defendant to appear and for the bail-to bring the body of the said Rockwell. The defendant not appearing upon motion of Mr. Connell the recognizance of $1,500 was ordered and a bench warrant ordered to be issued.
Defendant not having been found, the case cannot be tried before next court.

The King vs. Henry London, of
Brighton—Indictment for sexual in-
tercourse with his own daughter, Alva
London. W. M. Connell and M. L.
Hayward for Crown. R. L. Simms, for
prisoner, set up the plea of insanity.
The witnesses for the Crown heard
today were Alva London, Allie
son London, Murray London, Wilma
London and Mrs. Eva London, the
mother. The defence called Rev. P.
J. Quigg, A. R. Foster, H. V.
Moore, Edmund Spencey, James
Faulkner and Dr. T. F. Sprague.

The King vs. Henry London, of
Brighton—Indictment for sexual in-
tercourse with his own daughter, Alva
London. W. M. Connell and M. L.
Hayward for Crown. R. L. Simms, for
prisoner, set up the plea of insanity.
The witnesses for the Crown heard
today were Alva London, Allie
son London, Murray London, Wilma
London and Mrs. Eva London, the
mother. The defence called Rev. P.
J. Quigg, A. R. Foster, H. V.
Moore, Edmund Spencey, James
Faulkner and Dr. T. F. Sprague.

The King vs. Henry London, of
Brighton—Indictment for sexual in-
tercourse with his own daughter, Alva
London. W. M. Connell and M. L.
Hayward for Crown. R. L. Simms, for
prisoner, set up the plea of insanity.
The witnesses for the Crown heard
today were Alva London, Allie
son London, Murray London, Wilma
London and Mrs. Eva London, the
mother. The defence called Rev. P.
J. Quigg, A. R. Foster, H. V.
Moore, Edmund Spencey, James
Faulkner and Dr. T. F. Sprague.

The King vs. Henry London, of
Brighton—Indictment for sexual in-
tercourse with his own daughter, Alva
London. W. M. Connell and M. L.
Hayward for Crown. R. L. Simms, for
prisoner, set up the plea of insanity.
The witnesses for the Crown heard
today were Alva London, Allie
son London, Murray London, Wilma
London and Mrs. Eva London, the
mother. The defence called Rev. P.
J. Quigg, A. R. Foster, H. V.
Moore, Edmund Spencey, James
Faulkner and Dr. T. F. Sprague.

The King vs. Henry London, of
Brighton—Indictment for sexual in-
tercourse with his own daughter, Alva
London. W. M. Connell and M. L.
Hayward for Crown. R. L. Simms, for
prisoner, set up the plea of insanity.
The witnesses for the Crown heard
today were Alva London, Allie
son London, Murray London, Wilma
London and Mrs. Eva London, the
mother. The defence called Rev. P.
J. Quigg, A. R. Foster, H. V.
Moore, Edmund Spencey, James
Faulkner and Dr. T. F. Sprague.

The King vs. Henry London, of
Brighton—Indictment for sexual in-
tercourse with his own daughter, Alva
London. W. M. Connell and M. L.
Hayward for Crown. R. L. Simms, for
prisoner, set up the plea of insanity.
The witnesses for the Crown heard
today were Alva London, Allie
son London, Murray London, Wilma
London and Mrs. Eva London, the
mother. The defence called Rev. P.
J. Quigg, A. R. Foster, H. V.
Moore, Edmund Spencey, James
Faulkner and Dr. T. F. Sprague.

The King vs. Henry London, of
Brighton—Indictment for sexual in-
tercourse with his own daughter, Alva
London. W. M. Connell and M. L.
Hayward for Crown. R. L. Simms, for
prisoner, set up the plea of insanity.
The witnesses for the Crown heard
today were Alva London, Allie
son London, Murray London, Wilma
London and Mrs. Eva London, the
mother. The defence called Rev. P.
J. Quigg, A. R. Foster, H. V.
Moore, Edmund Spencey, James
Faulkner and Dr. T. F. Sprague.

The King vs. Henry London, of
Brighton—Indictment for sexual in-
tercourse with his own daughter, Alva
London. W. M. Connell and M. L.
Hayward for Crown. R. L. Simms, for
prisoner, set up the plea of insanity.
The witnesses for the Crown heard
today were Alva London, Allie
son London, Murray London, Wilma
London and Mrs. Eva London, the
mother. The defence called Rev. P.
J. Quigg, A. R. Foster, H. V.
Moore, Edmund Spencey, James
Faulkner and Dr. T. F. Sprague.

The King vs. Henry London, of
Brighton—Indictment for sexual in-
tercourse with his own daughter, Alva
London. W. M. Connell and M. L.
Hayward for Crown. R. L. Simms, for
prisoner, set up the plea of insanity.
The witnesses for the Crown heard
today were Alva London, Allie
son London, Murray London, Wilma
London and Mrs. Eva London, the
mother. The defence called Rev. P.
J. Quigg, A. R. Foster, H. V.
Moore, Edmund Spencey, James
Faulkner and Dr. T. F. Sprague.

The King vs. Henry London, of
Brighton—Indictment for sexual in-
tercourse with his own daughter, Alva
London. W. M. Connell and M. L.
Hayward for Crown. R. L. Simms, for
prisoner, set up the plea of insanity.
The witnesses for the Crown heard
today were Alva London, Allie
son London, Murray London, Wilma
London and Mrs. Eva London, the
mother. The defence called Rev. P.
J. Quigg, A. R. Foster, H. V.
Moore, Edmund Spencey, James
Faulkner and Dr. T. F. Sprague.

The King vs. Henry London, of
Brighton—Indictment for sexual in-
tercourse with his own daughter, Alva
London. W. M. Connell and M. L.
Hayward for Crown. R. L. Simms, for
prisoner, set up the plea of insanity.
The witnesses for the Crown heard
today were Alva London, Allie
son London, Murray London, Wilma
London and Mrs. Eva London, the
mother. The defence called Rev. P.
J. Quigg, A. R. Foster, H. V.
Moore, Edmund Spencey, James
Faulkner and Dr. T. F. Sprague.

The King vs. Henry London, of
Brighton—Indictment for sexual in-
tercourse with his own daughter, Alva
London. W. M. Connell and M. L.
Hayward for Crown. R. L. Simms, for
prisoner, set up the plea of insanity.
The witnesses for the Crown heard
today were Alva London, Allie
son London, Murray London, Wilma
London and Mrs. Eva London, the
mother. The defence called Rev. P.
J. Quigg, A. R. Foster, H. V.
Moore, Edmund Spencey, James
Faulkner and Dr. T. F. Sprague.

The King vs. Henry London, of
Brighton—Indictment for sexual in-
tercourse with his own daughter, Alva
London. W. M. Connell and M. L.
Hayward for Crown. R. L. Simms, for
prisoner, set up the plea of insanity.
The witnesses for the Crown heard
today were Alva London, Allie
son London, Murray London, Wilma
London and Mrs. Eva London, the
mother. The defence called Rev. P.
J. Quigg, A. R. Foster, H. V.
Moore, Edmund Spencey, James
Faulkner and Dr. T. F. Sprague.

The King vs. Henry London, of
Brighton—Indictment for sexual in-
tercourse with his own daughter, Alva
London. W. M. Connell and M. L.
Hayward for Crown. R. L. Simms, for
prisoner, set up the plea of insanity.
The witnesses for the Crown heard
today were Alva London, Allie
son London, Murray London, Wilma
London and Mrs. Eva London, the
mother. The defence called Rev. P.
J. Quigg, A. R. Foster, H. V.
Moore, Edmund Spencey, James
Faulkner and Dr. T. F. Sprague.

The King vs. Henry London, of
Brighton—Indictment for sexual in-
tercourse with his own daughter, Alva
London. W. M. Connell and M. L.
Hayward for Crown. R. L. Simms, for
prisoner, set up the plea of insanity.
The witnesses for the Crown heard
today were Alva London, Allie
son London, Murray London, Wilma
London and Mrs. Eva London, the
mother. The defence called Rev. P.
J. Quigg, A. R. Foster, H. V.
Moore, Edmund Spencey, James
Faulkner and Dr. T. F. Sprague.

The King vs. Henry London, of
Brighton—Indictment for sexual in-
tercourse with his own daughter, Alva
London. W. M. Connell and M. L.
Hayward for Crown. R. L. Simms, for
prisoner, set up the plea of insanity.
The witnesses for the Crown heard
today were Alva London, Allie
son London, Murray London, Wilma
London and Mrs. Eva London, the
mother. The defence called Rev. P.
J. Quigg, A. R. Foster, H. V.
Moore, Edmund Spencey, James
Faulkner and Dr. T. F. Sprague.

The King vs. Henry London, of
Brighton—Indictment for sexual in-
tercourse with his own daughter, Alva
London. W. M. Connell and M. L.
Hayward for Crown. R. L. Simms, for
prisoner, set up the plea of insanity.
The witnesses for the Crown heard
today were Alva London, Allie
son London, Murray London, Wilma
London and Mrs. Eva London, the
mother. The defence called Rev. P.
J. Quigg, A. R. Foster, H. V.
Moore, Edmund Spencey, James
Faulkner and Dr. T. F. Sprague.

The King vs. Henry London, of
Brighton—Indictment for sexual in-
tercourse with his own daughter, Alva
London. W. M. Connell and M. L.
Hayward for Crown. R. L. Simms, for
prisoner, set up the plea of insanity.
The witnesses for the Crown heard
today were Alva London, Allie
son London, Murray London, Wilma
London and Mrs. Eva London, the
mother. The defence called Rev. P.
J. Quigg, A. R. Foster, H. V.
Moore, Edmund Spencey, James
Faulkner and Dr. T. F. Sprague.

The King vs. Henry London, of
Brighton—Indictment for sexual in-
tercourse with his own daughter, Alva
London. W. M. Connell and M. L.
Hayward for Crown. R. L. Simms, for
prisoner, set up the plea of insanity.
The witnesses for the Crown heard
today were Alva London, Allie
son London, Murray London, Wilma
London and Mrs. Eva London, the
mother. The defence called Rev. P.
J. Quigg, A. R. Foster, H. V.
Moore, Edmund Spencey, James
Faulkner and Dr. T. F. Sprague.

The King vs. Henry London, of
Brighton—Indictment for sexual in-
tercourse with his own daughter, Alva
London. W. M. Connell and M. L.
Hayward for Crown. R. L. Simms, for
prisoner, set up the plea of insanity.
The witnesses for the Crown heard
today were Alva London, Allie
son London, Murray London, Wilma
London and Mrs. Eva London, the
mother. The defence called Rev. P.
J. Quigg, A. R. Foster, H. V.
Moore, Edmund Spencey, James
Faulkner and Dr. T. F. Sprague.

The King vs. Henry London, of
Brighton—Indictment for sexual in-
tercourse with his own daughter, Alva
London. W. M. Connell and M. L.
Hayward for Crown. R. L. Simms, for
prisoner, set up the plea of insanity.
The witnesses for the Crown heard
today were Alva London, Allie
son London, Murray London, Wilma
London and Mrs. Eva London, the
mother. The defence called Rev. P.
J. Quigg, A. R. Foster, H. V.
Moore, Edmund Spencey, James
Faulkner and Dr. T. F. Sprague.

The King vs. Henry London, of
Brighton—Indictment for sexual in-
tercourse with his own daughter, Alva
London. W. M. Connell and M. L.
Hayward for Crown. R. L. Simms, for
prisoner, set up the plea of insanity.
The witnesses for the Crown heard
today were Alva London, Allie
son London, Murray London, Wilma
London and Mrs. Eva London, the
mother. The defence called Rev. P.
J. Quigg, A. R. Foster, H. V.
Moore, Edmund Spencey, James
Faulkner and Dr. T. F. Sprague.

The King vs. Henry London, of
Brighton—Indictment for sexual in-
tercourse with his own daughter, Alva
London. W. M. Connell and M. L.
Hayward for Crown. R. L. Simms, for
prisoner, set up the plea of insanity.
The witnesses for the Crown heard
today were Alva London, Allie
son London, Murray London, Wilma
London and Mrs. Eva London, the
mother. The defence called Rev. P.
J. Quigg, A. R. Foster, H. V.
Moore, Edmund Spencey, James
Faulkner and Dr. T. F. Sprague.

The King vs. Henry London, of
Brighton—Indictment for sexual in-
tercourse with his own daughter, Alva
London. W. M. Connell and M. L.
Hayward for Crown. R. L. Simms, for
prisoner, set up the plea of insanity.
The witnesses for the Crown heard
today were Alva London, Allie
son London, Murray London, Wilma
London and Mrs. Eva London, the
mother. The defence called Rev. P.
J. Quigg, A. R. Foster, H. V.
Moore, Edmund Spencey, James
Faulkner and Dr. T. F. Sprague.

The King vs. Henry London, of
Brighton—Indictment for sexual in-
tercourse with his own daughter, Alva
London. W. M. Connell and M. L.
Hayward for Crown. R. L. Simms, for
prisoner, set up the plea of insanity.
The witnesses for the Crown heard
today were Alva London, Allie
son London, Murray London, Wilma
London and Mrs. Eva London, the
mother. The defence called Rev. P.
J. Quigg, A. R. Foster, H. V.
Moore, Edmund Spencey, James
Faulkner and Dr. T. F. Sprague.

The King vs. Henry London, of
Brighton—Indictment for sexual in-
tercourse with his own daughter, Alva
London. W. M. Connell and M. L.
Hayward for Crown. R. L. Simms, for
prisoner, set up the plea of insanity.
The witnesses for the Crown heard
today were Alva London, Allie
son London, Murray London, Wilma
London and Mrs. Eva London, the
mother. The defence called Rev. P.
J. Quigg, A. R. Foster, H. V.
Moore, Edmund Spencey, James
Faulkner and Dr. T. F. Sprague.

The King vs. Henry London, of
Brighton—Indictment for sexual in-
tercourse with his own daughter, Alva
London. W. M. Connell and M. L.
Hayward for Crown. R. L. Simms, for
prisoner, set up the plea of insanity.
The witnesses for the Crown heard
today were Alva London, Allie
son London, Murray London, Wilma
London and Mrs. Eva London, the
mother. The defence called Rev. P.
J. Quigg, A. R. Foster, H. V.
Moore, Edmund Spencey, James
Faulkner and Dr. T. F. Sprague.

The King vs. Henry London, of
Brighton—Indictment for sexual in-
tercourse with his own daughter, Alva
London. W. M. Connell and M. L.
Hayward for Crown. R. L. Simms, for
prisoner, set up the plea of insanity.
The witnesses for the Crown heard
today were Alva London, Allie
son London, Murray London, Wilma
London and Mrs. Eva London, the
mother. The defence called Rev. P.
J. Quigg, A. R. Foster, H. V.
Moore, Edmund Spencey, James
Faulkner and Dr. T. F. Sprague.

W. C. T. U. Elected A New President

At Provincial Convention
Yesterday Mrs. Joseph Per-
ry of Summerside, P. E. I.,
Was Chosen Leader—Successful Sessions Closed Last Night.

The Provincial W. C. T. U. convention resumed in Portland Street
Methodist Church yesterday morning
when the session was mostly devoted
to election of officers and receiving
visitors.

Mrs. J. S. Perry, Summerside, P. E.
I., was elected president of the W. C.
T. U. of Union of N. B. and P. E. I. Mrs.
L. R. Hetherington, Riverdale, Albert, is the retiring president. Mrs.
James McWha, Sussex, was elected
vice-president, succeeding Mrs. J. S.
Perry. Mrs. R. B. Gerrard, Campbell-
ton, was re-elected corresponding secretary, and Mrs. D. J. Bruce, Camp-
bellton, whose work as recording secretary, was greatly helped in making the
present convention a success, was
elected corresponding secretary, succeeding Mrs. T. A. Clark. Mrs. A. C.
M. Lawson, Fredericton, was elected
treasurer, and Mrs. L. R. Hetherington
elected Y. secretary, succeeding Mrs.
R. D. Christie, who declined nomi-
nation.

Mrs. M. L. Stevenson, Fredericton,
was elected L. T. L. secretary, succeeding Mrs. McWha, and Mrs. John Perry, Fredericton, was appointed advisor. Yesterday morning's session
was opened at 9 o'clock by Mrs. D. J.
Bruce, who led the devotional exercises, taking as her theme, "God the Great Worker."

A report on lumbermen and raft-
men, prepared by Mrs. Annie Phillips, Mrs. R. B. Gerrard, and Mrs. John Perry, showed that the welfare of the lumbermen had been well looked after.

A report on anti-narcotics, prepared by Mrs. T. A. Clark, was read by Mrs.
R. B. Gerrard. The report urged that a special effort be made to suppress the cigarette menace.

Mrs. James McWha read a news
item pointing out what sister workers were doing across the line in the interest of child welfare.

The secretary of the St. John County Union read a report showing that two public meetings had been held during the year and addressed by Mrs. Gordon Wright. A number of new members had been added, and at the quarterly meetings pastors of the city churches assisted greatly in making their meetings a success.

Mrs. A. S. A. Finnis closed the session with prayer.

Afternoon Session.
A very impressive Memorial Service
place at the afternoon session.
This was led by Mrs. Collier, who sang a hymn, Mrs. Hipwell and Mrs. Demar led in prayer. A message of Scripture was read and Mrs. Collier spoke on the necessity of working for God. Eight sisters had passed away since last year: Mrs.
Miley, Mrs. Gilmore, of Fredericton;
Mrs. Albert Patterson, Mrs. George
Saunders, Mrs. G. W. VanVart, of Woodstock; Mrs. J. McCow, of Moncton; Mrs. M. Smith, of Riverdale.
At the name of each sister was mentioned, Mrs. Collier called upon a member of the Union to which the sister belonged to speak a few words in praise of the departed, after which Mrs. Collier placed a bouquet of flowers upon the table to her memory.

At the close a hymn was added in memory of the departed, the singing of the hymn "Forever With the Lord," this solemn service closed.

The session opened at 2 o'clock, a devotional exercises being led by Seymour, who read the 91st Psalm,
and spoke on the safety and happiness
of those abiding under the shadow of the Almighty.

In the absence of the President,
Mrs. W. L. Hetherington presided.
The constitution was read. Mrs.
D. J. Bruce gave her report on present work. The reports of the finance plan of work, and resolutions committee were received and adopted.

A banner for the Union which had gained the largest number of members during the year was presented to Mrs. David H. H. Hetherington,
Union having added ten to their list.
In accepting this, Mrs. Hipwell praised the work of Mrs. R. D.
Christie, who is such an active member of the Union. Mrs. Scott, of the North End Union, was also mentioned as an energetic president. Flowers were sent to several sick members.

The suggestion was made that the convention meet next year in October
instead of in September, and this was adopted by motion.

Hearty votes of thanks were given the retiring president, Mrs. Hetherington, and to the St. John County Union for their encouragement of the delegates; to the Portland Street Methodist church, organist and choir;
and to the Press for help given during the convention.

Mrs. Hetherington was made a life member of the Union.

A very interesting part of the afternoon meeting was a paper written by Mrs. R. B. Gerrard, of Campbellton,
on the Meaning of the W. C. T. U.
She said that if everyone knew as much about the W. C. T. U. as she did all would be members. The idea of the W. C. T. U. originated with Dr. Dio Lewis, a Boston physician and teacher of physical culture. It was after his teachings had taken root that the genius of Miss Willard came into play. The W. C. T. U. is represented in every country—in the United States, in the Dominion, in Great Britain, in every country of Europe, in South America, Africa, Asia, to China and Japan. Everywhere the little white bow, the emblem of purity, has gone, leaving behind it a trail of closed saloons and prohibitory legislation, of temperance and moral reform which few other organizations, if any, have equalled. We point with pride to a dry United States, to a dry Canada, to dry areas all over the world. While we cannot claim all the credit, much of it is ours,
and we rejoice in the hearty maledic-
tions of the rum forces.

After telling the story of the growth of the Union in the Provinces, Mrs.
Gerrard went on to speak of the great work ahead of the W. C. T. U. The necessity of seeing that the prohibitory laws are enforced, the education of public sentiment, the making of the enforcement of the law more certain, the teaching of women to use the franchise intelligently and as a duty, the responsibility of all towards the immigrants that they may be made Christians and Canadians.

Mrs. Gerrard concluded her excellent paper by pointing out the service which can be rendered by those who cannot become active workers but who by their prayers and interest can strengthen the Union.

At the close of this fine address a standing vote of thanks was tendered the speaker.

The meeting closed with the singing
of God Be With You Till We Meet
Again, and the Benediction.

The meeting closed with the singing
of God Be With You Till We Meet
Again, and the Benediction.

The meeting closed with the singing
of God Be With You Till We Meet
Again, and the Benediction.

The meeting closed with the singing
of God Be With You Till We Meet
Again, and the Benediction.

The meeting closed with the singing
of God Be With You Till We Meet
Again, and the Benediction.

The meeting closed with the singing
of God Be With You Till We Meet
Again, and the Benediction.

The meeting closed with the singing
of God Be With You Till We Meet
Again, and the Benediction.

The meeting closed with the singing
of God Be With You Till We Meet
Again, and the Benediction.

The meeting closed with the singing
of God Be With You Till We Meet
Again, and the Benediction.

W. C. T. U. Elected A New President

At Provincial Convention
Yesterday Mrs. Joseph Per-
ry of Summerside, P. E. I.,
Was Chosen Leader—Successful Sessions Closed Last
Night.

The Provincial W. C. T. U. convention resumed in Portland Street
Methodist Church yesterday morning
when the session was mostly devoted
to election of officers and receiving
visitors.

Mrs. J. S. Perry, Summerside, P. E.
I., was elected president of the W. C.
T. U. of Union of N. B. and P. E. I. Mrs.
L. R. Hetherington, Riverdale, Al-
bert, is the retiring president. Mrs.
James McWha, Sussex, was elected
vice-president, succeeding Mrs. J. S.
Perry. Mrs. R. B. Gerrard, Campbell-
ton, was re-elected corresponding secretary, and Mrs. D. J. Bruce, Camp-
bellton, whose work as recording secretary, was greatly helped in making the
present convention a success, was
elected corresponding secretary, succeeding Mrs. T. A. Clark. Mrs. A. C.
M. Lawson, Fredericton, was elected
treasurer, and Mrs. L. R. Hetherington
elected Y. secretary, succeeding Mrs.
R. D. Christie, who declined nomi-
nation.

Mrs. M. L. Stevenson, Fredericton,
was elected L. T. L. secretary, succeeding Mrs. McWha, and Mrs. John Perry, Fredericton, was appointed advisor. Yesterday morning's session
was opened at 9 o'clock by Mrs. D. J.