

Apparel

Apparel of to sense

COATS

$28 Formerly marked up to $42 Styles

Black, n, Bur

to take advantage

$17.65 to be

HOSIERY

59 Cents

Mercury Brand, with

Hosiery in black, grey, white.

$1.39

Hosiery in brown, black.

., LIMITED MAIN STREET

Charence Henderson is visit and Mrs. Gilmour at Ormoco

aeemic? No Vital Trouble?

THE GREAT FRENCH TONIC

generally. Rheuma wonderful remedy.

id tell every one who strung. I had indige advertisement of Vital n a new woman and so meone who has tried es, biliousness, constipa relief that follows. You Why drag on with your worth a fortune to you. iam, if your blood and h will be sweet; the coa-lour better. No matter De. a box or 6 boxes for chasing VITAL TAB-ug Company, Manufac

GEE, Halifax, N. S.

Rothesay

(Local Society continued.)
Miss Valde Fenton entertained at the tea hour on Thursday in honor of Miss Shyl McLean, of Sussex.

On September 24th, the marriage ceremony was performed at St. Paul's Church, Halifax, by Ven. Archbishop Armbrage, between Mrs. George's daughter and Miss Mary Dorothy Kinneag. The bridegroom saw considerable service in the Great War, and is now in business in Halifax. The bride is the only daughter of the late Dr. Beverly O. Kinneag, who was born and spent his early days in St. John, but who later was one of the resident physicians at the Chilton Spring Sanatorium, N. Y.

Mrs. Harold Lawrence left for Ottawa this week to attend the annual meeting of the Canadian Council of the Immigration of Women for Household Service, as the representative of the Province of New Brunswick.

Mrs. G. Frederick Fisher is the guest of Mrs. H. R. Lundy, St. John's Ave., Montreal, week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Grant and Master Homer Grant, who have been visiting in the city, left for Boston on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Warner and Mrs. Agnes Warner are visiting Mrs. Edith at Great Neck, Long Island.

Mrs. Harold Coleman leaves this evening for Boston on a short visit.

Mrs. Thomas Gilbert has taken an apartment at the LaTour for the winter.

Mrs. James H. Robertson, of Digby, is the guest of Mrs. Alfred Morrissey, Hallow's street.

Mrs. George McLeod left this week for Bangor and New York.

Mrs. W. A. Gaudin arrived at the tea hour yesterday in honor of Mrs. Claude Sinclair.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Clark arrived home yesterday from their wedding trip.

Mrs. D. Grimmer, who is spending the winter at Gagetown, is the guest of this week of Mrs. H. H. Grimmer, German street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Ope Rothwell are residing at 83 Queen street for the winter months.

Mrs. L. G. Macdonell, who has been visiting in Bedford, Mass., and Hartford, Conn., returned home on Monday.

Mr. Bayard Center left on Tuesday for Detroit to spend the winter.

Miss Cornelia Adams, of Columbia, Ohio, and Miss Orr, of Galt, Ont., returned to their homes on Wednesday evening.

Mrs. G. Crawford and Miss Christine Crawford left this week for San Juan, Porto Rico, to spend the winter with Mrs. Crawford's son, Mr. Edward Crawford, who is the manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia at San Juan.

Miss Alice Wilson, of St. John, spent the last week-end at Fair Vale with Miss Royce.

Before returning to her city residence in St. John, Mrs. Leonard Willey was hostess last week at a large and most enjoyable afternoon tea.

Mrs. H. P. Puddington's many friends are glad to know she is recovering so nicely from her recent illness.

Miss A. L. Brock, who is leaving here to spend six months in Florida, will be greatly missed by her many friends.

The Community Club are to resume their weekly meetings, beginning this evening, and everybody is invited to attend.

Having greatly enjoyed a visit to relatives at Springfield and Chicopee Falls, Mass., the Misses Thompson returned home last Saturday evening.

Mrs. Harry Reid and daughter, Miss Margaret Reid, of Newton, Mass., who have been guests of Mrs. Catherine Reid, left for home last week.

George Gilbert, of Bathurst, this week spent a day or two here with his sisters, the Misses Gilbert.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McAvity, Mrs. Frank Fairweather, Miss Lois Fairweather, who spent the summer here, have returned to St. John.

Rev. Canon Daniel and Rev. Dr. Hibbard have been in St. John this week attending committee meeting in connection with the Anglican Synod.

At Mr. Bell's camp, at Gouda Point, Miss Katharine Bell, Miss Jean Daniel, Miss Madge Robertson, and Miss Dorothy Purdy spent the last week-end.

Mrs. Alexander Blincoe, of St. John, spent a few days this week with Mr. R. E. and Miss Puddington.

Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Lingley, who summered at Riverside, have moved back to St. John.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. D. Tilley have also returned to their home at St. John.

This afternoon in St. Paul's Sunday school house Mrs. C. D. Schofield, of Vancouver, is to give an address under auspices of the Women's Auxiliary branches. Bishop and Mrs. Schofield are guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Schofield, Rothesay.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Rothwell sincerely regret their departure from Rothesay. They have been comfortably settled in an apartment on Queen street, John.

Today Mrs. Walter Harrison, Mrs. H. W. Prink, Mrs. H. B. Robinson and Mrs. Bayden Thompson are leaving on an automobile trip to Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. G. Armstrong and family are among those who have returned to the city after having spent the summer here.

To spend a month with relatives at Cape Breton, Mr. Andrew Blair left on Tuesday this week.

On next Monday afternoon members of the Senior Branch Women's Auxiliary will meet at the home of the President, Mrs. A. W. Daniel. This will be the first meeting after the summer recess.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bell are at present guests at the Kennedy House.

Misses Edith and Doris Barnes have returned to their studies at McGill College, Montreal.

Rothesay has been greatly interested in the two weddings in Trinity church, St. John, on Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons of this week. Both brides are graduates of "Netherwood" School, and many friends from here were in the city as guests.

Mrs. William Pugsley arrived home from New York on Tuesday.

This afternoon Mrs. W. E. Flewelling is leaving by train for Albany, N. Y., to visit at the home of her brother.

Mrs. Hendricks and Mrs. Haines are here preparing to move their furniture to Halifax, where they will make their home. Friends are glad to have them here for October. Mr. Haines is in Halifax.

Miss Alice Wilson, of St. John, spent the last week-end at Fair Vale with Miss Royce.

Before returning to her city residence in St. John, Mrs. Leonard Willey was hostess last week at a large and most enjoyable afternoon tea.

Mrs. H. P. Puddington's many friends are glad to know she is recovering so nicely from her recent illness.

Miss A. L. Brock, who is leaving

here to spend six months in Florida, will be greatly missed by her many friends.

The Community Club are to resume their weekly meetings, beginning this evening, and everybody is invited to attend.

Having greatly enjoyed a visit to relatives at Springfield and Chicopee Falls, Mass., the Misses Thompson returned home last Saturday evening.

Mrs. Harry Reid and daughter, Miss Margaret Reid, of Newton, Mass., who have been guests of Mrs. Catherine Reid, left for home last week.

George Gilbert, of Bathurst, this week spent a day or two here with his sisters, the Misses Gilbert.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McAvity, Mrs. Frank Fairweather, Miss Lois Fairweather, who spent the summer here, have returned to St. John.

Rev. Canon Daniel and Rev. Dr. Hibbard have been in St. John this week attending committee meeting in connection with the Anglican Synod.

At Mr. Bell's camp, at Gouda Point, Miss Katharine Bell, Miss Jean Daniel, Miss Madge Robertson, and Miss Dorothy Purdy spent the last week-end.

Mrs. Alexander Blincoe, of St. John, spent a few days this week with Mr. R. E. and Miss Puddington.

Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Lingley, who summered at Riverside, have moved back to St. John.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. D. Tilley have also returned to their home at St. John.

This afternoon in St. Paul's Sunday school house Mrs. C. D. Schofield, of Vancouver, is to give an address under auspices of the Women's Auxiliary branches. Bishop and Mrs. Schofield are guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Schofield, Rothesay.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Rothwell sincerely regret their departure from Rothesay. They have been comfortably settled in an apartment on Queen street, John.

Today Mrs. Walter Harrison, Mrs. H. W. Prink, Mrs. H. B. Robinson and Mrs. Bayden Thompson are leaving on an automobile trip to Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. G. Armstrong and family are among those who have returned to the city after having spent the summer here.

To spend a month with relatives at Cape Breton, Mr. Andrew Blair left on Tuesday this week.

On next Monday afternoon members of the Senior Branch Women's Auxiliary will meet at the home of the President, Mrs. A. W. Daniel. This will be the first meeting after the summer recess.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bell are at present guests at the Kennedy House.

Misses Edith and Doris Barnes have returned to their studies at McGill College, Montreal.

Rothesay has been greatly interested in the two weddings in Trinity church, St. John, on Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons of this week. Both brides are graduates of "Netherwood" School, and many friends from here were in the city as guests.

Mrs. William Pugsley arrived home from New York on Tuesday.

This afternoon Mrs. W. E. Flewelling is leaving by train for Albany, N. Y., to visit at the home of her brother.

Mrs. Hendricks and Mrs. Haines are here preparing to move their furniture to Halifax, where they will make their home. Friends are glad to have them here for October. Mr. Haines is in Halifax.

Miss Alice Wilson, of St. John, spent the last week-end at Fair Vale with Miss Royce.

Before returning to her city residence in St. John, Mrs. Leonard Willey was hostess last week at a large and most enjoyable afternoon tea.

Mrs. H. P. Puddington's many friends are glad to know she is recovering so nicely from her recent illness.

Miss A. L. Brock, who is leaving

Bros. Millinery Dept., spent the week-end at her home in Bellefleur.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Taylor, with Mrs. James Patton and her guests, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Trautman of Woodstock, motored to Head of Millstream on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Sharp of Colima, are being congratulated on the advent of a daughter, born on Saturday, Oct. 2nd.

The numerous friends of Miss Madeline Manchester, are pleased to know she has arrived home from hospital in St. John, where she underwent an operation for appendicitis and from which she has made a speedy recovery.

Miss Edith Sharp and Miss Erna Hamilton of the teaching staff of the school spent the week-end in Sussex.

Miss Margaret Gambin of Colima, returned this week to Chipman Memorial Hospital at St. Stephen to continue her course of training for nurse. Miss Gambin had only been in training for a brief time when she became ill with pneumonia, from which she has made a tedious recovery, necessitating her absence from work much longer than she had anticipated.

Mr. and Mrs. David McDonald, (nee Miss Verna McAuley), have welcomed an infant daughter to their home, who has received the name, Flora Isabelle.

Mrs. George H. Seaward and Miss Lena Fenwick were guests of Mrs. J. S. Seaward at the Cedars on Saturday last.

Mrs. Adam Murray is spending a few weeks with relatives at Passmoreville.

Mrs. Edmund Puddington returned on Saturday from a pleasant visit in St. John.

Mrs. Ditcher of Coles Island, is a guest of Mrs. J. A. Crawford.

Mrs. A. H. Wilcox and Beckwith McKnight attended the Elgin Fair on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Sharp of Colima, are visiting in St. John, where they are guests at the Anderson Young wedding.

Mrs. Herbert Walker and children of Sussex, were guests of Mrs. Walker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Corbett this week.

Hampton

Hampton Station, Oct. 9.—Mrs. Geo. Hallett spent last Sunday in St. John. She was in Flewelling, of St. John, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Fowler.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Boone, of West St. John, spent last Sunday with friends here.

Miss Mary Allison, of Sussex, spent last Friday here in the interest of the C. I. T. work.

Mrs. Myles Fowler and family have taken the Cranford house on Langsford Terrace for the winter.

Mrs. W. S. Carter, of Fredericton, were motor visitors here last week.

Miss Catherine Robinson, of St. John, was a guest of Miss Minnie Travis on Sunday.

Mr. Cecil Langstroth left on Monday to resume his studies at McGill College.

Mrs. Wm. Lockhart returned to St. John on Saturday after spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Cole.

Mr. Chas. Wilkinson, of St. John, and Miss Wilkinson of Springfield, York County, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Wilkinson.

Mr. D. H. Holmes, of West St. John, took the Anglican services in this place on Sunday last. Rev. Mr. Lawrence of St. John's, was officiating.

Mr. Geo. Hallett is at present a patient in the Military Hospital, West St. John. His many friends are glad to know that he is recovering.

Mr. Lemuel McDonough has gone to St. John to spend the winter with Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Fowler.

Miss Marjorie Barnes entertained the Younger Set Bridge on Wednesday evening.

Hampton Village, Oct. 9.—Miss Margaret Adams entertained at bridge on Saturday evening. The following guests were present: Misses Fannie Langstroth, Gladys Smith, Trava Smith, Alma Gale, Louise Scribner, Marjorie Barnes, Messrs. D. Fairweather, Bruce Flewelling, Eric Warneford, Fred Chipman, Guilford Flewelling, Edward Harrington, Prizes were won by Alma Gale and Bryant Coster, while Trava Smith and Bryant Fairweather won the consolation prizes.

On Wednesday afternoon at the rectory Miss Portia McKenzie, of St. John, organized the Junior W. A. of St. Paul's Church. Mrs. Guy Flewelling was present, and Mr. Guy Flewelling, Walter Fairweather assistant superintendent.

Miss Alma Gale was a week-end guest of Miss Margaret Adams.

Rev. Mr. Lawrence spent last Sunday in St. John.

St. Stephen, N. B., Oct. 8.—Mrs. Sanford Pugsley and Miss Lou Vance, of Woodstock, were guests last week of the Misses Arnie and Addie Grimmer at their home on King street.

Dr. and Mrs. C. G. Main have returned from a delightful week-end motor trip to Fredericton.

Mrs. Fred Sears has returned from

Childhood Indigestion

Nothing is more common in childhood than indigestion. Nothing is more dangerous to proper growth, more weakening to the constitution, more likely to pave the way to dangerous diseases. Fully nine-tenths of all the minor ills of childhood have their root in indigestion. There is no medicine for the little ones to equal Baby's Own Tablets in relieving this trouble. They have proved of benefit in thousands of homes. Concerning them Mrs. Joe Lunette, immediate president, Que., writes: "My baby was a great sufferer from indigestion, but the Tablets soon set her right and now I would not be without them."

Baby's Own Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Mr. Harley L. Wright and the Misses Helen and Mary Coles of Moncton were week-end guests of Mr. Wright's parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. V. Wright.

Mrs. Teresa McKnight and Miss Helen and Mrs. Robert Robinson, were visitors to Moncton this week.

Miss Gladys Northrup of Jones

SALE New Fall Model Suits

Only a Limited Number at Great Reductions

Sale on Tuesday the 12th

Beautiful garments from the best American and Canadian designers that were imported for fashion show pieces. As the season is well on we have decided to mark these down for quick clearance.

Every suit is high class and the materials Duvetyn, Broadcloth, Velour, Silvertone or Tricotine. A number are handsomely fur trimmed.

11 Model Suits up to $110. Sale $83.95 each
4 Model Suits up to $148 Sale $106.50 each
9 Model Suits up to $92 Sale $64.80

NOTE—Out of town customers especially take note of this sale as the Suits are exceptional at the prices.

DANIEL Head King St. London House

Gagetown

Gagetown, N. B., Oct. 9.—D. C. G. Cossar, the well-known Scotch philanthropist and founder of the Cossar Farm, arrived at Lower Gagetown last week from Montreal and will remain for some time arranging affairs in connection with the Cossar Farm. Dr. Cossar expects to leave before long for South America, where he will engage in missionary work in the interior. On Sunday evening in the Methodist Church, Dr. Cossar gave a most interesting address to a large gathering of his friends.

Mr. Justice W. C. H. Grimmer and Mrs. Grimmer were here last week for a few days, visiting Mr. and Mrs. George Harding and party of friends were here last week from St. John and spent the week in their large yacht, which was moored off the wharf. The party enjoyed some very good hunting while here.

F. Lloyd Campbell, of St. John, was here last week, while on a camping trip along the river in his motor boat with a party of friends.

Geoffrey Du Vernet, of Digby, is here visiting T. Sherman Peters and his wife, who are here for two or three weeks.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hall, of Lloydminster, who formerly resided at Gagetown, heard with much interest of the marriage of their only son, Stephen S. Hall, to Miss Dorothy Helen Glendinning, which took place on Sept. 16th at St. John's Church, Lloydminster, Sask.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Brooks, who was an officer in a Western battalion, won the M. C. for gallant conduct at Bourlon Wood.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred DeVeber of West St. John, who were guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. Gabriel DeVeber, have returned home.

Mrs. Sam Williamson, of Brown's Hill, who has been here for some time visiting Mrs. Kirby's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Dingle.

Plat, spent last week here with Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Crabbe.

Herbert Crabbe, captain of the Gagetown, who has been quite ill at his home here for the past two weeks, has returned to his post.

Miss Florence Brooks is here from St. John, visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Brooks.

Colonel Barker, of St. John, is here for the shooting season, and is a guest at H. Dingle.

Dr. J. H. Atkinson and Dr. Mac-

Hampton

Hampton Station, Oct. 9.—Mrs. Geo. Hallett spent last Sunday in St. John. She was in Flewelling, of St. John, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Fowler.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Boone, of West St. John, spent last Sunday with friends here.

Miss Mary Allison, of Sussex, spent last Friday here in the interest of the C. I. T. work.

Mrs. Myles Fowler and family have taken the Cranford house on Langsford Terrace for the winter.

Mrs. W. S. Carter, of Fredericton, were motor visitors here last week.

Miss Catherine Robinson, of St. John, was a guest of Miss Minnie Travis on Sunday.

Mr. Cecil Langstroth left on Monday to resume his studies at McGill College.

Mrs. Wm. Lockhart returned to St. John on Saturday after spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Cole.

Mr. Chas. Wilkinson, of St. John, and Miss Wilkinson of Springfield, York County, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Wilkinson.

Mr. D. H. Holmes, of West St. John, took the Anglican services in this place on Sunday last. Rev. Mr. Lawrence of St. John's, was officiating.

Mr. Geo. Hallett is at present a patient in the Military Hospital, West St. John. His many friends are glad to know that he is recovering.

Mr. Lemuel McDonough has gone to St. John to spend the winter with Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Fowler.

Miss Marjorie Barnes entertained the Younger Set Bridge on Wednesday evening.

Hampton Village, Oct. 9.—Miss Margaret Adams entertained at bridge on Saturday evening. The following guests were present: Misses Fannie Langstroth, Gladys Smith, Trava Smith, Alma Gale, Louise Scribner, Marjorie Barnes, Messrs. D. Fairweather, Bruce Flewelling, Eric Warneford, Fred Chipman, Guilford Flewelling, Edward Harrington, Prizes were won by Alma Gale and Bryant Coster, while Trava Smith and Bryant Fairweather won the consolation prizes.

On Wednesday afternoon at the rectory Miss Portia McKenzie, of St. John, organized the Junior W. A. of St. Paul's Church. Mrs. Guy Flewelling was present, and Mr. Guy Flewelling, Walter Fairweather assistant superintendent.

Miss Alma Gale was a week-end guest of Miss Margaret Adams.

Rev. Mr. Lawrence spent last Sunday in St. John.

St. Stephen, N. B., Oct. 8.—Mrs. Sanford Pugsley and Miss Lou Vance, of Woodstock, were guests last week of the Misses Arnie and Addie Grimmer at their home on King street.

Dr. and Mrs. C. G. Main have returned from a delightful week-end motor trip to Fredericton.

Mrs. Fred Sears has returned from

Childhood Indigestion

Nothing is more common in childhood than indigestion. Nothing is more dangerous to proper growth, more weakening to the constitution, more likely to pave the way to dangerous diseases. Fully nine-tenths of all the minor ills of childhood have their root in indigestion. There is no medicine for the little ones to equal Baby's Own Tablets in relieving this trouble. They have proved of benefit in thousands of homes. Concerning them Mrs. Joe Lunette, immediate president, Que., writes: "My baby was a great sufferer from indigestion, but the Tablets soon set her right and now I would not be without them."

Baby's Own Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Mr. Harley L. Wright and the Misses Helen and Mary Coles of Moncton were week-end guests of Mr. Wright's parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. V. Wright.

Mrs. Teresa McKnight and Miss Helen and Mrs. Robert Robinson, were visitors to Moncton this week.

Miss Gladys Northrup of Jones

Gagetown