ANDOVER NEWS

Andover, N. B., Oct. 31—The usual harvest services were held at the church on Sunday evening, Oct. 26. The church was prettily decorated for the occasion, and appropriate music rendered by a choir.

OTHER REPORTS

Rev. C. W. Hamilton, as grand scribe and grand lecturer, submitted his report. Owing to the fact that Mrs. Hamilton has recently been very sick, these were brief. An grand scribe he was able to report a very encouraging net gain of 80 in membership for the year. He spoke of the need of appointing some one who could devote his whole time to the work of propagation.

OVERBOARD IN THE HARBOR

Wm. Lord and Arthur Cobham, Carleton Fishermen, Rescued by Tug Waring

CAPSIZED IN SQUALL

One Kept Himself Afloat by Swimming, the Other Clung to the Boat—Tug Put Out to Rescue, and Capsized Boat Was Towed to Slip and Righted.

While crossing the harbor in a small fishing smack Wednesday afternoon, William Lord and Arthur Cobham, two Carleton fishermen, were suddenly thrown into the chilly waters of the harbor by the capsizing of their craft, and had it not been for the prompt action of the crew of the tug Waring, their sail might have had a tragic ending.

CHAMPION LAZY MAN

At a dinner at Jamestown Exposition, Mark Twain talked about laziness. "We are all lazy," he said, "but some of us fight it down. Some of us, again, don't. I knew a non-commissioned officer in the army named Hannibal. His name was Jim Black, and one fine summer morning I found him lying under a tree beside a river, listening to the singing of the birds and watching the ships glide up and down the great stream. "Well, what are you doing here?" I said.
