The call for a Liberal Republican Convention, to be held at Cincinnati on May 1st, was issued this morning, signed by Horace Groeley and others.

To the Electors of Queen's Ward.

Gentlemen:—I take this opportunity of informing you that at the close of the civic year, which expires on Tuesday next, I shall retire from the office of Councillor of your Ward. In doing so, it is probably but just, as well to those of you who so kindly assisted in electing me a year ago as to myself, to explain the reasons which have induced me to adopt this course.

The office of Councillor was not one of my own seeking, but I was induced to put myself in nomination at the request of a number of the most influential and respectable men of the Ward.

At the same time, however, that 1 did myself in nomination at the request or able men of the Ward.

At the same time, however, that 1 did not seek the position, the warm encouragement I received from the outset of the can vass and the handsome vote polled, were exceedingly gratifying. I felt that I owed you a debt of gratitude for your having entrusted your interests to my keeping. That debt I have endeavored faithfully and honestly to discharge, and I think you will readily admit that I have at all times carefully watched your interests to the best of my ability. I may have committed some errors, yet, so far, I have heard no complaint.

The duties of the office I have found exceedingly burdensome, taking for their proper performance more time than a young man in my position ought, in my opinion, to spare from his profession.

At the same time I have cheerfully made whatever sacrifices were required and have not often been absent from my seat at the Board. I have thought at different times during the past that it would be necessary for me to retire, and have communicated my intention to some of you. But no other gentleman in whom you had confidence seemed ready, until within a day or two to take my place, and I was, therefore, willing to serve you another year, if you should think that my public course in the past en titled me to be returned without a contest.

Within the last few days, however, as I have already intimated, Mr. Lockhart has been brought to the front, and through his card has expressed his desire to represent you.

He is a merchant, one of the class whom Lee a sitient desire to see taking more heen brought to the Front, and will out card has expressed his desire to represent you.

He is a merchant, one of the class whom I, as a citizen, desire to see taking more and more interest in civic matters, and is a gentleman in whom, I believe, a large portion of the Ward has sufficient confidence. Under these circumstances I feel that I can cheerfully resign into his hands the trust I now hold.

From a personal contest with Mr. Lockhart, I feel that neither he, the city, nor my colic can be the gainer.

From a personal contest with Mr. Lockhart, I feel that neither he, the city, nor myself can be the gainer.

I claim to have had a share in several matters of public improvement some of which are not yet fully completed, and I trust my successor may aid in carrying them to a satisfactory conclusion.

Very many of you have urged me to stand for the Ward for another year, and contest the election, and have generally assured me of your support. To all such, as well the humblest votor as the richest and most influential, I return my heart felt thanks.

In closing, let me assure you, gentlemen, your and devote my dest divergence. The first devote and the first energy of the first ene
