

each 50, they will
 the student will
 or wholly removed ant term.

meetings conducted by the students of the College and Academy. These meetings have been the means of much spiritual good to the students connected with the Institutions.

EXAMINATIONS.

Written Examinations are held at the close of each term, and frequently during the term. A public Examination is held at the close of the Fall and Spring Terms, to which parents and friends are cordially invited.

SOCIETIES.

The Horton Collegiate Academy Lyceum, a society under the management of the students of the Academy, meets weekly for literary exercises.

The Acadia Temperance Society, under the management of the Students of the whole Institution, meets monthly. The conditions of admission to this Society are the signing of a pledge of total abstinence from intoxicating liquors.

The Acadia Missionary Society, open to all students of the Institutions, meets monthly, when intelligence from the Home and Foreign fields is communicated, essays read, and matters of interest relating to missions discussed.

LIBRARY AND READING ROOM.

The Library of Acadia College is accessible, under proper restrictions, to the students of the Collegiate Academy.

The Reading Room under the control of the students of Acadia College, well supplied with foreign and domestic periodicals and newspapers, is open to the students of the Academy on payment of a small fee or by subscribing for the College paper—the Acadia Athenaeum.

ENCES.

had a moral and
 character on this

different student
 his number, who minated through its of vice. It had formed via
 other hand, many
 have, while her
 their purposes for

there are pray