

For every four wheeled vehicle drawn by one horse, four pence currency.

For every cart, calèche or other two wheeled vehicle and for every winter vehicle drawn by one horse, four pence currency.

For every extra additional beast of draught, two pence currency. 5

For every horse, ass, mule, with its rider, three pence currency.

For every horse, mare, stallion, ass or mule, ox, bull, cow, or other horned animal, one penny half-penny currency.

For every sheep, calf, lamb, goat or pig, one penny currency.

For every person on foot, one penny currency. 10

Proviso, certain parties to be exempt from payment of tolls.

Proviso.

XV. Provided always, that no person, horse or carriage, employed in conveying a Mail or letters, under the authority of Her Majesty's Post-office, nor the horses or carriages, laden or unladen, and drivers attending officers and soldiers of Her Majesty's Forces, or of the Militia whilst upon their march or on duty, nor the said officers or soldiers nor any of them, 15 nor carriages or drivers or guards sent with prisoners of any description, as well going as coming, provided they are not otherwise loaded, shall be chargeable with any toll or rate whatsoever: Provided also, that it shall and may be lawful for the said Company to diminish the said tolls, or any of them, and afterwards if they see fit, again to augment the same or any 20 of them, so as not to exceed in any case the rates by this Act authorised to be taken: Provided also, that the said Company shall affix or cause to be affixed in some conspicuous place at or near the said Toll-gate, a Table of the rates payable for passing over the said Bridge, and so often as such rates may be diminished or augmented, they shall cause such alteration 25 to be affixed in manner aforesaid.

Tolls vested in Company forever.

XVI. The said tolls shall be, and the same are hereby invested in the said Company forever: Provided that if Her Majesty shall, in the manner hereinbefore mentioned, after the expiration of fifty years from the passing of this act, assume the possession and property of the said Bridge, Toll- 30 house, Toll-gate, and dependencies, and the ascents and approaches thereto, then the said Tolls shall from the time of such assumption appertain and belong to Her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, who shall from thenceforward be substituted in the place and stead of the said Company for all and every the purposes of this Act. 35

Fines in certain cases.

XVII. If any person shall forcibly pass through the said Toll-gate without paying the said Toll or any part thereof, or shall interrupt or disturb the said Company, or any person or persons employed by them for building or repairing the said Bridge, or making or repairing the way over the same or any road or avenue leading thereto, or shall drive at a trot or a gallop 40 on the said Bridge, every person so offending in each of the cases aforesaid, shall for every such offence, forfeit a sum not exceeding forty shillings currency.

No means of passage to be erected within two miles of said Bridge.

XVIII. As soon as the Bridge shall be passable and opened for the use of the Public, no person shall erect, or cause to be erected, any bridge or 45 bridges, or works, or use any means of passage for the carriage of any