PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS Our province of Lower Canada hath been long disturbed by political dissensions, and was recently afflicted with rebellion and civil war, whereby it hath become necessary to suspend the constitution of the said province, and to provide for the temporary government thereof by means of extraordinary powers conferred upon Us by the Imperial Legislature: And whereas We are firmly resolved to punish with the utmost severity any future act of insubordination in Our said province, and more especially to prevent in future, as far as is in Our power, the occurrence of dissensions similar to those by which Our said province has been long disturbed as aforesaid, by effectually removing all causes of dissension, so that Our said province may be established in peace as a loyal and truly British colony: And whereas, in the exercise and in pursuance of the extraordinary powers as aforesaid, it hath been ordained and enacted by an Ordinance this day made and passed according to law, entitled, "An Ordinance to provide for the Security of the Province of Lower Canada," that it shall be lawful for Us to transport certain persons named in the said Ordinance to our island of Bermuda during Our pleasure; and that if the said persons, or certain other persons also named in the said Ordinance, who have withdrawn themselves from the pursuit of justice beyond the limits of Our said province, shall at any time hereafter, except by permission of Our Governorgeneral of Our provinces on the continent of North America, and High Commissioner for the adjustment of certain important questions depending in the pro-
