Manufactured in Winnipeg

Several hundreds of Western Canada's most progressive farmers have purchased and are using this implement, which was formerly sold as the Brandon Sub-Surface Packer, and the result from tilling the soil with it has proved to them, beyond a question of doubt, that a strata of well packed soil several inches thick will produce a better crop than soil that is not packed at all, or only slightly packed on the surface. Improvements have been recently made and added to the old machine making it more complete and better than ever as a soil packer. Catalog and testimonials furnished. Our new facilities for manufacturing this machine enable us to turn out a better implement and at a considerable reduction in price over the old machines. You get more packer quality for less money. Get our prices before purchasing a packer of any make. We can save you money.

"Very well. Here," writing a few words upon a slip of paper and passing it out, "give this to the boy when he returns."

Half an hour later the boy came, breathless.

"Everything all right?" he asked. Then, as he looked around, "Yes, I see it is. I'm awfully obliged. Why, what's up?" for the old man was looking at him with perturbed face.

"A man stopped here in a carriage an'—an' let me have this paper for ye."

The boy took the slip and read it, his face changing.

"It's from the owner," he gasped, "and says I must come to his office. Well, my place is lost. I'm done for this time."

"I'm sorry," the old man said, his face full of genuine sympathy. "I didn't want to tell anything, but he made me."

"Oh, that's all right," generously; "when he saw you in my place he had to ask questions, and of course you had to answer. I am the only one to blame."

An hour later the boy came back, walking very straight, with square shoulders and with a strange look on his face.

"I—I hope it wa'n't so bad as ye feared," said the kind old man anxiously.

"Bad," in a hushed voice; "no, it was all good—all good. I never had a man talk to me like that before. I am to work in his office, where he can have an oversight of me, and I have come for my things in the house here. I have never thought much about my—my responsibilities and what I am to do in the world; but after this I think maybe I can do something worth while, with him looking on. I shall try hard."

Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup is agreeable to the taste, and is a certain relief for irritation of the throat that causes hacking coughs. If used according to directions it will break the most persistent cold, and restore the air passages to their normal condition. There is no need to recommend it to those who seek a sure remedy and are in doubt what to use, the advice is—try Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup.

The Jonquil and the Rose.

By Lisette Woodworth Reese.

Just now Ben put them in her hand, They cost a penny, too! When spring delays to bless the land The lover pays the due.

But why, as up the stairs she goes, Does Phyllis sober grow? She thinks of Jack, who brought a rose A year or two ago.

She has it lying in her drawer, Flattened and sere and old, Pulled from a country brier, but more Than all the jonquils' gold.

For thus it is with maids and men; A single leaf from Jack Is worth whole gardenfuls from Ben— We covet what we lack.

Illustrated Flowers.

This is a new version of our old friend, the floral guessing contest. The flowers are illustrated by the following subjects.
