Ottawa, April 13, 1910.

Dear Mr. Eby:

You may remember my writing some time ago, at Mr. King's direction, to let you know that the mail service between Waterloo and Erbeville had been increased from twice a week to four times a week.

You will probably be interested in knowing, and may wish to make an item of the information, that the Postmaster General has consented to establish a daily service and that this increase in the service will go into effect at once.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours very truly,

(Sgd.) ~~W. L. Mackenzie King~~
