

and air force refused to be stampeded;

Modifications made which speeded up instead of slowing down training programme while, at same time, giving immediate assistance to Britain;

Recent developments have vindicated policy: tide of war can be turned only by development of air superiority.

Air Training not the whole picture of Canada's air contribution

Home defence squadrons on coast guard and convoy duty;

Canadian pilots and airmen have