Concerning the death of Van Doyput, the boy has been buried very shortly after the accident which he was through. This coupled with the few hospital cases, I submit to the court is what we might call "next best evidence".

As to the damage to the jeep an expert Policeman to class Lyle has testified regarding the amount of damage and type of damage.

As to the veh being Canadian. I believe it to be only accessory matter. The two soldiers in the jeep were Canadian and it is only reasonable that they were using a Canadian vehicle.

There was only one witness showing inconsistency. She was the girl with glasses. One other witness testified that she had been through an accident when younger which resulted in her having to wear glasses.
