

Defence: How did you connect the accused with the goods?

A: Witness will bring that out.

Defence: When you saw the accused - what did you warn him?

A: I warned him that he was charged with theft and that any statement he might make could be used in evidence against him.

Defence: Do you know U.D. property when you see it?

A: Some of it sir.

Defence: How could you identify this as U.D. property - (pointed out a can containing a commercial brand of food-stuff.)

A: Witness (name omitted) mentioned above) handed it to me as such.

Defence: You could never identify this as U.D. property? (Pointing to a tin of M.G.V.)

A: Yes.

Defence: You warned the accused?

A: Yes as I told him he was charged with theft.

Defence: What was his attitude?

A: Fearful and voluntary.
