

Furthermore, the Capitalist Class dread the spread of knowledge upon certain subjects, and organizations that exist to propagate the very precious thing, are hated and feared by them. They will encourage and finance the chloroform associations, and strive to suppress the education of the slaves. Hence, my dear E., we have no reason to suspect the Canadian Government of helping in any way, shape or form, the SOCIALIST PARTY OF CANADA. No subsidy will come our way, they will build no "co-operative" elevators for us or send professors to lecture us on the benefits of organization. They know that we know the skin game in all its ramifications, and, in consequence, save themselves the trouble of offering us what has been aptly described as "sucker bait." They know that all our time is devoted to spreading amongst the workers, knowledge, which means the finish of exploitation. They are also keenly alive to the failure of their methods, once the slave has opened his eyes.

This brings us to a discussion of the farm organizations and their usefulness to the slave or master, as the case may be. You will observe, my dear E., that this is no blind attack on organizations as such, for we are urging the necessity of more and closer organization, knowing that in the organization of the workers lies the key to liberty. All that we endeavor to point out and prove, if possible, is that in the case of the U. F. A., G. G. A. and kindred organizations is a fatal tendency to drift away from the interests of the slaves and into the camp of the enemy.

Farm organizations, generally speaking, are as like each other as peas in any pod. They have the same battle cry: "Free Trade," "Currency Reform," "Democracy," "Cheap Transportation," etc., and these issues are skilfully handled by political tricksters and office seekers to win elections or secure to themselves a meal ticket. Surely at this late date the lesson to be learned from the numerous failures of farm organizations is easily
