

- Negroes, as soldiers in South, 21-22; problems of reconstruction, 34 et seq.; health conditions among, 41-42; morals and manners, 42-43; poverty, 44-45; education, 44-45, 209, 211-20; relations with whites, 47-48, 277-78; lawlessness, 48-49; suffrage, 49-52, 58, 66-67, 78, 84, 85, 134, 169, 284-85, 300-01, 304; Lincoln urges deportation of freedmen, 66; legislation concerning, 77-78, 89-90, 93-98, 115-16, 127, 141; status at close of war, 89 et seq.; Freedmen's Bureau supervises, 109; Union League and, 181 et seq.; religion, 201-06; rule in South, 221 et seq.; in Congress, 230, 242; and state offices, 242; and Ku Klux, 258; anti-negro movements, 263; labor, 266, 272; "privileges," 269; advantages, 270-271; as farmers, 271-74; change in condition during reconstruction, 274-75; mixed marriages, 276
- Nelson, counsel at impeachment, 166
- New England, and negro suffrage 156, 285; Freedmen's Aid Society, 209
- New Orleans, negro soldiers in, 21-22; riots in, 83, 131, 175, 237 (note); Northern teachers in, 210; public debt, 232; Federal officials at, 241
- New York, charity for relief of South, 14; and negro suffrage, 156, 284
- New York City, Union League organized, 177; headquarters for Union League, 181; corruption in, 282
- Nordhoff, Charles, 291; The Cotton States in the Spring and Summer of 1875, cited, 232 (note)
- Norfolk, "contraband" camp, 36
- North, free negroes of, 35-36; planters from, 49; capital and labor from, 268; change in attitude toward South, 282; politics, 291
- North Carolina, negro colonies in, 36, 99; Johnson proclaims restoration of, 75; committee on laws for freedmen, 91, 92; courts, 111; negro voters, 152; Union League, 185, 186, 194; carpetbag rule, 221; public debt, 232; negro militia, 236; Democratic in 1870, 260; and enforcement acts, 261; conservatives gain control of, 290
- North Carolina, University of, 216
- Occupation, Army of, 18-22, 81; see also Army
- Ohio rejects negro suffrage, 156, 285
- Ord, General E. O. C., commands military division, 140 (note)
- Oregon, election of 1876, 297, 298
- Orr, J. L., and negro education, 212
- Orth, S. P., The Boss and the Machine, cited, 282 (note)
- Pale Faces, 245, 251
- Patton, R. M., Governor of Alabama, 174, 175; and negro suffrage, 51, 78; and contract labor, 110; and negro education, 212
- Peabody Board, 217-18
- "Peace Societies," 149, 179, 245
- Perry, B. F., Governor of South Carolina, and negro suffrage, 78-79
- Pettus, General, quoted, 250
- Phelps, J. S., military governor of Arkansas, 65
- Philadelphia, convention of National Union party at, 130; Union League organized (1863), 177